A Cholera Scare.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera.

Notice.

By Order of the Common Council of Dalles City, made and entered on the 12th day of October, 1892, notice is hereby given that said city council is about to proceed to order and make improvements in streets in said city.

He Stayed Hypnotized.

That hypnotism is a dangerous science, even in skilled hands, was once more demonstrated at Le Bourget, near Paris. A professor of legerdemain, who was giving an entertainment in a cafe, and enjoyed some considerable reputation as a hypnotist, proposed concluding the evening's amusement by an exhibition of his skill. A young man named Raylant volunteered to act as the subject, and after some difficulty was rendered completely unconscious. The professor then performed the usual tricks with him, but when it came to awakening found, to his astonishment, that it was quite impossible to effect it.

Raylant was sent home and medical help was summoned, but the doctor could only recall him to consciousness for a few seconds, after which the young man relapsed into an agitated sleep, interrupted at intervals by violent nervous crises. Up to to-day Raylant has only had a few waking moments, during which he complains of excessive weakness and pains in the head. An inquiry has been opened by the police authorities. - Paris Cor. London Telegraph.

In one of the six existing manuscripts of the ancient Saxon chronicles occurs the following: "Bedwig was the son of Shem, who was the son of Noah, and the Bedwig, was the only one born in the Ark."

In colder water the blue shark is king. It is not nearly so big as its white cousin, seldom measuring more than fifteen feet in length, but in point of wickedness it is hard to beat.
