THIRD PARTY BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

Naturally enough General Weaver overestimates the importance and influence of the political party of which he is the nominal head.

The Clinton democracy, born in 1812, died the same year.

The anti-Masonic party, born in 1826, and though such men as Seward, Fillmore, Weed, Clay and Wirt were identified with it, its existence ceased in 1832.

The liberal party, born in 1840, died in 1844.

The free soil party, born in 1848, died in 1852.

The southern states right party, born in 1852, died the same year.

The American or know-nothing party, born in 1856, died in 1860.

The liberal republican party, the temperance party and the labor reform party were all born in 1872 and died the same year.

The American national party was born in 1875 and died in 1880.

The prohibition party, as a national party, was born in 1876, and has been dying ever since.

The national liberal party was born in 1877, and died the same year.

The national party was born in 1878, and died the same year.

The greenback labor party, upon whose ticket Gen. Weaver first sought the presidency, was born in 1882, and passed away so quietly that the exact date of its death is not positively known.

Since 1882 probably a dozen different parties, more or less tintured with socialism, have flourished for short periods of time.

The Germans are introducing coolie labor into east Africa, whereupon the Salt Lake Tribune says that as the years go by the Chinese become more and more a terror to thoughtful men, as no other race can compete with them.

The recent election has demonstrated the advisability of changing the election law in some particulars.

WINANS THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large sightly lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil, pure cold water and shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort and for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is also unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 150 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse power in its dashing streams and waterfalls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufacturing will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.
