LOCAL BREVITIES.

Miss Anna Moore of Portland is in the city.

The breeze is as gentle as zephyr this afternoon.

Leave orders for Thanksgiving Turkeys at J. H. Cross' Feed Store.

Wanted by a lady: A position as nurse. Inquire at CHRONICLE office.

Miss Lizzie Richards has left The Dalles, and will reside in future in Portland.

Soren J. Farre, a native of Denmark, became a citizen of the United States yesterday.

Miss Mand French, daughter of Mr. D. M. French, left for Chicago last evening.

Fresh bread of the Geo. Ruche bakery, for sale at the Columbia Candy factory. Campbell Bros., daily.

The body of N. S. Becknell, whose sudden death on the 16th has been recorded, was shipped to friends in the east by express today.

Josh Hardy is doing some extra fine work on the democratic transparencies. You ought to see his roster on top of the capital dome crowing for The Press.

Pursuer John Hampshire of the Regulator got left this morning, as the boat leaves an hour later than usual we suppose; and was obliged to take the 3:05 train, which didn't leave until about 8 o'clock a. m.

Snow blockades east of us, and land slides west of us, keeps business demoralized, on account of the irregularity of the trains. No. 2, eastbound, arrived today, connecting by boat at Bonneville, and brought the back mails of the past two days.

Mr. Geo. A. Young is in the city awaiting the arrival of his daughter from Montana. Since his sickness his clothes are a trifle too large for his corporeity, but as he is beginning to feel as jolly as ever he hopes soon to get back to his standard weight.

Postmaster Nolan took a trip to Bake-Oven today to complete his "thank you job" of postoffice inspection. Officials in Washington do not appear to realize such a task as this in a country where it takes 24 hours to go from one postoffice to another in the country. This is not an old settled new England township as flat as the prairie.

Mr. J. R. Underhill of Center Ridge, informs us that the new school house there is now finished and furnished, but the district is still in debt a little for it, and to aid in paying off this sum, a benefit dance will be given on the 2d of December. Tickets, including supper, $1.00

Miss Anna Peter & Co., give notice today of a special sale of childrens and misses hats on Saturday.

J. B. Havelly of Boyd, was up Mill creek yesterday inspecting the flume, and the lumber, etc., brought into The Dalles by that water route, and he has about decided that it would be money in his pocket to come to The Dalles for his lumber supply.

A Murder Mystery.

The remains of a murdered man were found in a wheat car at Albina on the 16th. The car was No. 3193 from the Snake river country, but had been switched off at The Dalles and at Mosier en route. He is apparently about thirty-five years old, five feet ten inches in height, and weighs about 175 pounds. He was dressed in a black frock coat, black vest and gray-striped pants. His overshirt was a blue flannel one, and his underclothing was of brown woolen goods. He has sandy hair and a very light mustache. It was apparent that he wore false teeth, and his bare upper gums were lacerated, as if having been struck by some heavy instrument. He had a letter in his pocket, addressed Dear Brother, and signed Lease. The seal of the car had been broken.

The Extra Session.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—All the prominent democrats who have been spoken to are averse to having the 53d congress called in extra session. There is a feeling among them that it would be well to have as much work as possible done on the tariff by experts of the party, such as Carlisle, Mills and some of the members of the ways and means committee, before congress meets, so that a bill can be prepared and rushed through as soon as possible after the first session opens.

Preparing for the Inauguration.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The first definite move in the direction of appointing an inaugural committee, was taken at a meeting of the democrats last night. It was decided to recommend that the plan adopted eight years ago, when Cleveland was elected, be followed on this occasion. The plan provides for the selection of 50 citizens of the District of Columbia to take charge of the ceremonies outside of the capitol. The list of citizens was sent to Chairman Hartry, of the democratic national committee, for approval.

Thanksgiving eve., Nov. 23d, 1892, the long record of dullness under which The Dalles has been suffering from the recent destruction of the opera house, is to be broken by the advent of Prof. C. W. Kent with his famous lecture on the subject of Charles Dickens and his greatest work "Old Curiosity Shop" assisted by a series of beautiful dissolving views illustrative of the story of "Little Nell" operated by his clever partner Mr. Leon Borries. Amongst the beautiful pictures of child life which Mr. Dickens has given us there is not one so touching, so appealing to all hearts as that which Messrs. Kent & Borries have selected for the entertainment of our citizens. Due announcement by posters will be given as to prices.

INNOCUOUS DESEUTIDE.

The Cleve-Land Slide and the Snails Face of the U. P. R. Co.

The face of the whole country in the vicinity of Reeds, below Bonneville, seems to be moving for a mile and a half back. It is perhaps located on a glacier, and this being the year for record breaking the landslide record of the U. P. R. Co. along the Columbia must be shattered. From Monday night till this morning the slide has traveled 500 feet north of the track, and has not only demolished a house which has stood there thirty years, but has nearly covered up the locomotive, tender and car, ditched the first day. There is a mile of the mountain yet to come down, and at the present rate of working the Inland Empire will have to depend on the river, for some weeks at least. The U. P. R. Co. are displaying very little energy to cope with this immense obstruction. The Oregonian yesterday says the train due in Portland Tuesday

It was Ben Johnson, we believe, who, when asked Mallock's question, "Is life worth living?" replied, "That depends on the liver." And Ben Johnson probably saw the double point to the pun. The liver active—quick—life racy, everything bright, mountains of trouble melt like mountains of snow. The liver sluggish—life dull, everything blue, molehills of worry rise into mountains of anxiety, and as a result—sick headache, dizziness, constipation. Two ways are open. Cure permanently, or relieve temporarily. Take a pill and suffer, or take a pill and get well. Shock the system by an overdose, or coax it by a mild, pleasant way.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the mild means. They work effectively, without pain, and leave the system strong. One, little, sugar-coated pellet is enough, although a whole vial costs but 25 cents.
