A Cholera Scare.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Hel-

.. Geo. C. Blakeley T. A. Ward

metta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Notice.

By Order of the Common Council of Dalles City, made and entered on the 12th day of October, 1852, notice is hereby given that said city eouncil is about to proceed to order and make improvements in streets in said city, as hereinafter stated, and the cost of such improvement will be levied upon the property adjacent thereto, and said improvement will be made, unless within fourteen days from the final publication of this notice, the owners of two-thirds of the property adjacent thereto, shall file their remonstrance against such improvements as by charter provided.

The improvement contemplated and about to be made is as follows, to wit:

To improve Wa hington, Fulton and Laughlin streets in said city, by constructing a sewer of terra-cotta, from the Columbia river at the foot of said Washington street, and running thence south on said Washington street, and running thence south on said washington street, and running thence casterly a ong said Fulton street, to the junction of said Fulton street with Laughlin street, and running thence casterly a four street with Laughlin street, and running thence southerly along said Laughlin street, to the alley next south of Alvord street, said sewer to be of twelve inch terra-cotta pipe from the point of beginning, above mentioned to the alley between Fourth and Fifth streets, and of ten inch terra-cotta pipe from said place, to the termination thereof, as above stated ated this 22d day of October, 1852.

Frank Menerser, Recorder of Dalles City.

A Four-Year-Old Philosopher.

Among the many anecdotes relating to the late Rev. Thomas Hill, D. D., is one told by himself. Dr. Hill and his wife awoke quite early one morning and regarded with interest a crib which contained a precocious child of less than four years. Presently the child turned her face up to the ceiling and solilo-quized: "Oh, how much easier it is for a person to think than to act. Now. with a dog it is right the other way."-Boston Traveller.

Not a Five Cent Loaf. While treasurer of the Maine Central Mr. Linscott always made his own bank deposits, taking the immense amounts in bills wrapped in a newspaper under his arm as he rode up town on a street

"Why does that old gentleman carry up that loaf of bread every day?" on one occasion inquired the conductor. The value of the loaf of bread was probably not far from $50,000.-Lewiston Journal.

A Gentle Malden. Friend-So Miss Beauti refused you? De Sappe-Yes, but she did it very "Expressed sorrow, eh?" "It amounted to that. While I was proposing she gently slipped out of the room and sent her mother in to talk to me about the weather."-Good News. It is curious that Devonshire, England, is one of the few counties where the Duke of Devonshire owns no land. His estates, covering more than 198,000 acres, are scattered over fourteen counties, but Devonshire is not among them.
