LOCAL BREVITIES.

A. W. Brenner of Nansene, is in the city.

Miss Anna Moore returned to Portland this morning.

T. A. Abernethy and Dr. J. A. Lyon, are in the city.

Leave your order for cord wood at Maier & Benton's.

Miss Minnie Michell leaves for Portland on the evening train.

Wendell Hall of Spokane, is in the city. Also, Prof. J. H. Fisk, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith French and Mr. Frank French returned from Portland yesterday.

Mrs. Emma Waffle of Umatilla, is in the city, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Manns.

Everybody in The Dalles yesterday observed Thanksgiving in a suitable manner, according to taste.

Two cows and a valuable dog were killed on the U. P. R. yesterday, between Heppner and Cascade Locks.

The barometer today in The Dalles shows that another severe storm is brewing somewhere. It is low and falling.

Dutch Flat, eight miles south west of The Dalles, and possibly 2500 feet above, was visited by quite a fall of snow last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Stevens came up on the Regulator Tuesday, and are spending a few days with his parents Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Stevens.

Justice Schutz court which has been hanging along, awaiting developments for some time past is now about like the mills of the gods, all ready to grind.

The Columbia River Fruit company made a large shipment of fine prunes yesterday, and The Chronicle challenges the Pacific coast states to beat it, for quality.

C. C. Hobart and wife left on the midnight train for Lewiston, Idaho, to attend the funeral of their nephew Will Wiggins, who was drowned in Snake river on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Helen Harford, W. C. T. U. lecturer for the state of Oregon, will address the citizens of The Dalles at the reading room this evening, at 7:30. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

A government inspector of railways was hustled through The Dalles at lightning speed yesterday, in a special car with a locomotive. About three miles this side of the cascades a hand car was met. The men on the car escaped, but after that locomotive got through with that hand car, you could put the latter in your pocket easily, it was broken up so completely.

Mr. Geo. F. Beers took a vacation last week, the first one for several years, and in company with Mrs. B. visited the consolidated city, going by the Regulator line.

In a few hours, perhaps tomorrow, we hope to hear of some first class detective work in the Inland Empire. There is a fine field for it, ripe for a bountiful harvest of well earned laurels.

A dozen teams of Indian outfit from the Warm Springs reservation, are loaded or loading at the East End for the agency. Uncle Sam is very generous to these wards of the government. They receive two cents per pound for hauling the goods, then the goods are issued to them gratis.

Yesterday the little son of J. W. Jenkins while playing along the flume about five miles up Mill creek, fell about ten feet on some rocks, receiving a scalp wound about 2 1/2 inches long, cutting to the bone, and another cut about half an inch long over the right eye. Dr. Eshelman stitched and dressed the wound and the little fellow is resting easy.

There is some kicking in U. P. R. circles because THE CHRONICLE sees fit to speak the truth about matters of business in the transportation blockade, in consequence of the Reed geyser obstruction. Readers in the Inland Empire are not such fools as to be hoodwinked by falsehood; and it would be better for the U. P. if they would tell the truth a little more frequently.

Judge Blakeley has a petition, accompanied by a letter from Supt. J. H. Misener, asking aid for the Boys and Girls Society of Portland. The approach of winter calls for necessary extras, and as the society cares for boys and girls from all portions of the state, it is no more than right that all parts of the state should contribute. The society now have four children from Wasco county, and Judge Blakeley informs us that there are three more here that should be taken to the home as soon as possible.

But few reports reach us of people in the Inland Empire witnessing the meteoric displays this week. Dispatches show that the new comet is a pretty fair one, even if it was discovered by a mere amateur astronomer. There are six comets now visible in the heavens, and if you look through some glasses you may see as many as twelve.

Another comet has just been discovered, but the astronomer has not yet been able to determine whether or not the celestial body has just passed through the throes of a general election.

The Thanksgiving dinner at The Umatilla yesterday was largely patronized by others than those immediately "at home" there, and it was certainly a dinner equal to any given in Oregon. The dining room, which will comfortably seat 300 persons at one time, was very handsomely decorated, and the tables were ornamented in true metropolitan style. Steward Cooper really outdid himself in the display and ornamentation of the center table, upon which was a sturgeon, mutton-head, beef-head, fat turkey dressed, and ornamental cakes, pies, etc., all artistically arranged, and very much admired.

Pioneer Bakery.

Having again reopened this popular bakery and employed the services of a first class baker, I am prepared to furnish the public with the very best of bread, pies and cakes on short notice. Next door to Chrisman & Corson, Cor. Washington and Second streets, The Dalles, Or. Geo. Ruch.

The Bergfeld Case.

The following jury was empaneled on Wednesday, to try the case of the state vs. Bergfeld. Tim. Mahew, H. Egbert, Thos. Harper, J. W. Wallace, Robert Lowe, F. Blythe, Charles Cramer, D. W. Hologate, L. E. Ferguson, T. E. Wickens, W. J. Harriman, and John Murphy.

After the jury was impaneled court adjourned until this morning at which time the examination of witnesses began on the part of the prosecution.

The following witnesses have been examined today up to the hour of going to press with this edition: Dr. O. C. Hollister, Jos. Nitschke, Jerome Lauer, N. M. Eastwood, A. S. Bennett, Dr. O. D. Doane, Dr. Rinehart, Dr. Logan.

Nothing in the nature of new evidence from that reported in THE CHRONICLE at the time of the preliminary examination has so far been adduced.

The court room is crowded with spectators, many ladies watching the progress of the trial with interest.

Social Party.

Last evening a party of young people had a very pleasant time at the residence of J. E. Barnett. Games of all kinds, interspersed with supper and laughter, mostly the latter; were the sources of enjoyment of which there was no lack. There were present Misses Grace and Hattie Glenn, Georgia Sampson, Grace and Lillie Kelley, Nettie Fredden, Julia and Clara Nickelson, Hilda Beck, Edith Randall, Pearl Joles, Lizzie, Bernie and Martha Schooling, Grace and Bertha Willerton, Emma Williams, Delia Michelbach, Effie Adams, Susie Chase, Beulah Gilgard, May and Edna Barnett and Masters Victor Sampson, Dayton Taylor, Harry Fredden, Neddie Baldwin, Earl Sanders, George Ruch, Frank and Gay Chase, Rowland Wiley, George Rice and Archie Barnett. All repaired home at a seasonable hour and in a happy frame of mind, though probably somewhat tired of limb.

COSTUME PARTY.

Thanksgiving Eve Suitably Observed at The Academy.

Wednesday evening the pupils of Wasco Independent Academy entertained their friends in the art studio, appearing in costume, and masks. The following characters were represented:

Georgia Sampson, Kate Greenaway; Pearl Butler, Grecian costume; Homer Angell, Clown; Freas Saunders, Clown; Eric Heppner, Alsatian girl; Daisie Alloway, Flower girl; Myrtle Michell, Old Mother Hubbard; Maybel Biddell, Japanese girl; Maybel Mack, Chrysanthemum; Burnside Taylor, Topsy; Daton Taylor, Milk maid; Miss Aque, and Miss Holcomb, Nobody's chilluns; Forrest Fisher, Colored base ball player; William Fredden, Gentleman of the 14th century; Fred Snipes, African lude; Walter Johns, Candle seller; May Schler, Night; Anna Taylor, Astrologer; Ethel Baker, Priscilla; Julia Hill, Topsy; Laura Thompson, Butterfly; Willie Cossen, Grover Cleveland; Neddie Baldwin, The Press; Bertie Baldwin, Soldier; Jake McCown, School girl; Willie Fields, Brownie; Clara Davis, Pearl Williams, Maie Beall, Bessie French, Gypsies; Beulah Patterson, Cleopatra; Harry Kelly, Shylock; Aimee Newman, Evelyn Newman, Annie Williams, Macbeth's witches; James Maloney, Gypsy; Charles Clarke, Sweet Sixteen; Emma Bonney, Gypsy mother; George Dufur, Gypsy.

After the masks were taken off singing, tableaux, and charades were given, the whole concluding with chocolate and refreshments. It was a very pleasant evening to all invited guests.

Wedding Bells.

Married at Tangent, Oregon, Nov. 17th 1892, at the residence of the brides sister Mrs. Mary Churchill, Frank B. Stevens, of Condon, Oregon, and Miss Lillian Rohrer, of Mt. Vernon, Ill. Rev. Lee officiating.

The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, and at the appointed hour for the bride and groom to make their appearance, the mellow light streamed out on a scene of beauty. The guests were a happy party of relatives from different localities, who appreciated the importance of the occasion also the delicacies of the wedding feast so lavishly spread. Handsome and valuable presents formally presented by relatives of both parties. The bride has for years held a position in the foremost ranks among the prominent educators, both in her old home in Illinois, and in Eastern Oregon. The groom is well and favorably known as a successful stock raiser in Eastern Oregon. Both parties have a large circle of friends who unite in sending after them kind wishes for their prosperity and happiness. May they live without a discord to break the sweet music of domestic happiness, and their lives be attuned to harmony and usefulness.

Bad Place For a Henery.

It is given up by all the best authorities that a hen is the most provoking animal that exists; and certainly Dick Power, the gentlemanly station agent, post-master and merchant at Mosier is willing to bear added witness to that truth. For two years he has been justly proud of a band of fine leghorn chickens, but his varied experience in the time named has so discouraged him that he has almost decided to abandon poultry raising. Many have been killed by the cars, killed by passing tramps, and occasionally, perhaps, been mulched by friendly train hands. But lately they have taken to riding away on freight cars, having flown up in search of grain, and falling, through either perversity or terror to fly down again when the train is in motion. On one occasion recently it made Dick so mad to see his stock passing majestically by that he quickly got his shot gun and pursued the fleeing train, killing five of them, and bringing them home in triumphal glory.

The Only Hope.

Inter Mountain. There is not a man in Montana outside the Warm Springs insane asylum, who believes that the democratic party with both houses of congress and the presidency, will ever pass a free coinage bill. The only hope for silver lies in the international conference, which is a republican idea.

Lost or Stolen.

"Cap," an Irish setter (large dog with yellow hair) Wednesday; collar on neck marked "Thos. Harlan, La Grande," if not removed. Any information as to his whereabouts please leave at Cannonville office. MILTON HARLAN.

The Quickest Way to Cure a Cold.

Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. The first symptoms of a cold is a dry, load cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by watery expectoration and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double doses every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in many cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

The Parting of the Ways.

Wilkins and Watkins were college chums and close friends. They had been hard students and had taken little out-door exercise. When they shook hands and said good-bye at the end of their college career, they were in impaired health. Both had dyspepsia, liver troubles and troublesome coughs.

Wilkins had plenty of money, and decided to travel for his health. Watkins was poor. "I must go to work for my living," said he, "but I'll try the remedy that Robinson talks so much about - Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

In less than two years Wilkins came home in his coffin. Watkins, now in the prime of life, is a bank president, rich and respected, and weighs 200 pounds. "The 'Golden Medical Discovery' saved my life at a critical time," he often says. "Oh, if poor Wilkins had only tried it!" For weak lungs, spitting of blood, all lingering coughs, and consumption in its early stages, it is an unequalled remedy.

American Cholera.

From the DAILY REVEILLE, Whatcom, Wash.] "T. C. Burnett, the democratic candidate for sheriff, was taken violently ill at Clearbrook. He had all the symptoms of Asiatic cholera, and for an hour or two it was feared he would die. They finally gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which revived him until a physician arrived." That is precisely what the manufacturers of that medicine recommend for cholera. Send for a physician but give their medicine until the physician arrives. If cholera become prevalent in this country next summer this preparation will be in great demand because it can always be depended upon. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
