DETECTIVES SCORED.

Sheriff Wilcox of Gilliam County Publishes a Statement.

FALSE AND ABSURD RUMORS.

Circumstances of the Arrest Detailed—
The Hobo Stories.

SHERIFF WILCOX VERY EMPHATIC.

He Gives the So-Called Detective Sullivan a Broadside in Answer to Gross Imputation.

CONDON, Or., Nov. 29.—The Portland papers are making a big blow about the arrest of two Gilliam county citizens, Cal Hale and George Zachary, who were arrested in Gilliam county on November 24th, charged with robbing the Roslyn bank September 24th last. From the ridiculous misrepresentations of the affair by the hobo detectives to the Portland papers, one would conclude that the greater portion of the citizens of this county are composed of thieves, robbers and cut-throats. The aforesaid hobo detectives either wanted a good deal of unearned credit, or must have been gloriously drunk when they gave such a report. It is true that a posse numbering twenty-six in all arrived in the quiet, little town of Fossil on the night of November 23d, armed to the teeth with Winchester rifles, shotguns, pistols, etc., to arrest the above-named Cal Hale and George Zachary, entailing an expense of hundreds of dollars; when any officer in the county could have made the arrest alone, and saved the disgrace that the shrewd Thiel detective and officers from adjoining counties have brought upon themselves by joining this cowardly mob.

According to the Portland papers, these notorious robbers and desperadoes, who are even more desperate than the James boys and Dalton gang, have their headquarters in Gilliam county. Should these men prove themselves innocent, of which there seems but little doubt by some of the most responsible people of the county, Sullivan with his men and officers who accompanied him to arrest these harmless citizens certainly ought to feel like crawling into their holes and pulling the holes in after them. The Oregonian's statement concerning the capture is utterly false throughout. A crowd numbering ten persons left Fossil on the morning of the 24th about three a. m. for Cal Hale's place on Thirty-mile, about eight miles distant. When within 100 yards of the house the crowd halted. They insisted upon my making the arrest, which I gladly consented to do; and, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Banks, I approached the door and rapped twice before any response came from within. Cal Hale then came to the door in his night-clothes. I stepped inside and told him he was wanted. Banks then followed and read the warrant to him. While Cal was dressing preparatory for the trip below, the balance of the mob sneaked down to the house after they became satisfied that there was no danger. Every move the mob made only proved their bitter ignorance and inexperience at such work.

As to George Zachary's arrest, Sullivan and his brave men thought they were surrounding him at his home on West Fork, and were somewhat surprised to learn from a brother that George was at Antelope, forty miles away, quietly spending Thanksgiving at that place. The brother accompanied deputy Sheriff Haley to Antelope, where the officer promptly placed the "desperate bandit" under arrest. The officer was sleepy, so he told George to be on hand next morning, and he went to bed, not even appointing a man to be on guard to look after the "famous robber whose criminal record has been excelled only by the James boys and Dalton gang." Next morning they came on to Fossil and then to Arlington, where the Oregonian said a large crowd of other "desperadoes and robbers congregated to release the outlaws."

This statement is so false and absurd as to make comment unnecessary. From Arlington these "famous outlaws and thieves," together with Tom Kinsey, who had in the meantime been arrested at Heppner, were piloted by the entire mob to Portland, where its papers say they were confined in steel cells, and are "the toughest-looking criminals that were ever within the walls of the Multnomah county jails," etc. The Portland papers also say that "even the very names of those outlaws in Gilliam county strike terror to the hearts of all respectable citizens" and a hundred other equally as ridiculous and absurd misrepresentations. Of course, no one blames the papers for the blundering, false statements so much as they do the unreliable hobos who gave them the information.

I might add that the next time "Detective" Sullivan wants a man from this county, any of the officers here can place him under arrest and deliver him to Roslyn or any other place, armed with the proper authority. The whole proceeding is the most cowardly and disgraceful piece of work ever perpetrated upon the people of this state. I do not say it boastfully, but I have never yet failed to make an arrest, and also have never yet failed to get my man. I was informed by "Detective" Sullivan that the reason I was not informed sooner, or the matter left with me, was for the reason that he heard that these "outlaws," cut-throats and thieves had elected me to office and that I could not be depended upon; that I "stood in" with the gang," etc. I leave this to the citizens of this county to judge as to the veracity of the absurd report. Their assertion that the object in bringing such an army to make the arrest was that "the gang of robbers and outlaws would not permit any of its members to be arrested" is too ridiculous to warrant a denial.

The letter is signed W. L. Wilcox, sheriff of Gilliam county.

Money Paid to the Newspapers.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—A Paris correspondent gives a list of sums of money paid the newspapers by the Panama Canal company, as prepared by Rissignol, former auditor in bankruptcy, as follows: La Petit Journal, 300,000 francs; Telegraphie, 120,000 francs; Jezienski, director of the Telegraphie, 120,000 francs; Le Matin, 50,000 francs; Le Gaiolois, 150,000 francs; Meyer, director of Le Gaiolois, 30,000 francs; Radical, 100,000 francs; Senator Magnier, director of L'Evenement, 50,000 francs; Patinote, director of the Journal des Debats, 40,000 francs. The last named denies having received any money. The other papers make no reference to the exposure.

In Favor of Annexation.

STIMSON, Ontario, Dec. 2.—The annexationists made a demonstration here tonight that opened the eyes of the federation leaders. Nearly 1,000 voters gathered in the opera house and listened to speeches in favor of annexation. Then a vote was taken, which resulted—for annexation, 428; independence, 92; remain as we are, 21. At the close of the meeting some one raised the stars and stripes, which were applauded uproariously, while a display of the union jack brought forth a storm of hisses.

Pleaded Guilty to Forgery.

STOLEN BY GYPSIES.

Search Still Being Made for Little Alma

Gladys Miller.

TAKEN FROM HER UNION CO. HOME

A Tramp Train Wrecker has Been Captured in California.

WRECKED TRAINS FOR REVENGE

Intended to Wreck the Overland and Then Loot the Wounded—
Other News.

The sheriffs, police, constables and city marshals of the entire northwest are keeping a careful lookout for a little girl named Alma Gladys Miller, who was stolen from her home in Summerville, Union county, Or., September 23d, presumably by a straying band of gypsies. I. W. Miller, the father of the child, has sent circulars out to every detective agency and all the general authorities have been notified to search for the child. Alma Gladys Miller is 6½ years of age; has light-brown closely shingled hair, hazel eyes, and is three feet nine or ten inches tall. Among other distinguishing features are: A small scar on the back of her head, a small scar on the nose, which is visible when the little girl is either laughing or playing, and she has also a scar on her left hip caused by a burn.

On the day of Alma's disappearance a traveling circus of small dimensions, managed by a crowd of gypsies, gave a show at Summerville, and Alma went, with a lot of other children, to see it. As she was a very bright child, the attention of the gypsies was naturally directed toward her, so when they started to leave they had no trouble to induce the little girl to take a ride in a red wagon, brass mounted, with gaudy pictures painted all over the bed. The gypsies numbered 15 people, four men, three women and eight children.

From Summerville the band went to Moscow, Idaho, to which point the anxious father traced them; but at that point Alma was transferred to another band of gypsies, who were traced to Pataha, Wash., some time later. Since then no trace of the party has been secured, but it is believed the original band will attempt to recover possession of the child at an early date. Sheriff Ward is in receipt of a circular dated November 30, and will have all his deputies keep close watch on any gypsies who may visit this locality.

A Train-Wrecker Captured.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—A tramp giving the name of F. R. Warner has been arrested on suspicion of having caused the wreck of the overland train on the Santa Fe road near Monrovia a few days ago. Railroad detectives expect to make other arrests soon. They claim that Warner placed a rock on the track in revenge for having been put off a freight train, and that he and his accomplices intended to wreck the overland and then loot the wounded. Warner afterwards confessed that he had attempted to wreck the train, and says he did it out of revenge for having been put off a freight train. Detectives will not make any more arrests.

A Crashed Hat.

NEW YORK EX. Just after election, Mrs. Henry Villard gave a little dinner party in celebration of the victory and in honor of Mrs. Cleveland. The guests were the wives of a number of Mr. Cleveland's most prominent supporters in New York. Caterer Sherry, when asked to furnish the ice and to get up something very nice, replied, "My dear madam, just leave that to me and you shall be entirely satisfied." When the ice was brought to the table guests and hostess were convulsed with laughter. The ice was in the form of grand-father's hat, and it was a crushed hat at that.
