AN ALASKA HATCHERY

President Harrison Fixes Salmon Fishing in the North.

THE BIGGEST FISH STORY OUT

Actually Crowding One Another Out of the Water in Alaska.

TO PRESERVE SAME AS BUFFALO!

Senator Jones Is Worried Nearly to Death—Severe Storm in Moscow—President's Christmas.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 25.—The president has issued a proclamation reserving for timber and fish culture purposes the Island of Afognak, Alaska, and its adjacent rocks and territorial waters, including the Sea Lion rocks and Sea Otter Island. This reservation is one of the most important yet made. Salmon and trout crowd the Afognak river during the breeding season, so much so as to actually press some out on the shore, and there is no doubt that by preserving the river it will become a breeding place for all the other waters of Alaska and the different rivers of the United States in the future. If it had been left to the depredations already committed upon it, the fish there, as they have elsewhere in the United States, would become utterly exterminated. There is a prospect that the sea otter may also be preserved there, and it may be other sea animals. This is a beginning of a series of reservations in this direction that will preserve the fish and animals of the sea, as have been preserved the deer, elk, buffalo and other animals of the United States in the National park.

Translating His Monetary Speech. BRUSSELS, Dec. 25.—Senator Jones still remains at the Hotel Bellevue overseeing the translation into French of his last speech before the monetary conference, bestowing great care on the work. The Belgian secretaries have nearly worried him to death by their constant altering of the text. The senator's wife and beautiful daughter are much lionized in society.

In Church all Night. MOSCOW, Idaho, Dec. 25.—One of the most violent storms prevailed in Moscow last night, doing considerable damage. The churches were having the Christmas trees. So violent was the storm that people had to remain in the churches till morning. The Rev. Mr. Campbell was thrown to the ground, breaking his collar bone.

Christmas at the White House. WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—President Harrison and his household spent a quiet Christmas, the former remaining within doors until 4 p. m., when, accompanied by Mrs. Dimmick, he took a brief stroll. The family dined at 9 o'clock, as usual.

Quiet Christmas for Cleveland. NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—President-elect and Mrs. Cleveland, celebrated Christmas in the orthodox fashion. In the morning they attended the Central Presbyterian church, and in the afternoon received a few callers.

Way Below Zero. ST. PAUL, Dec. 25.—A cold wave in the Northwest sent the thermometer down as follows, below zero:
St. Paul, 10; St. Vincent, 22
Fergus Falls, 25; Duluth, 13
Winnipeg, 22; La Crosse, 12
Moorhead, 24; Bemarck, 16

The wave wave is not accompanied by any snow, and though the wind is keen, it is not high.

Blizzard Threatens a Blockade. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 25.—Kansas, Oklahoma and the west generally is experiencing a genuine Christmas blizzard today, which threatens not only to blockade railroad travel, but also to do great damage to stock on the ranges south of Kansas if it continues for many hours.

Coldest in Three Years. CHICAGO, Dec. 25.—Today was the coldest in the last three years, the thermometer registering 4 deg. below at 9 o'clock this evening.

Four Degrees Below. MILWAUKEE, Dec. 25.—A cold wave chased the mercury down to 4 deg. below zero today.

Frigid St. Louis. ST. LOUIS, Dec. 25.—The thermometer is down to 1 deg. below zero.

MATTERS OF RELIGION.

Satelli Is Much Pleased—Rev. Dr. McGlinn Reinstated.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—Regarding the press dispatches to the effect that there is dissatisfaction among the American bishops, owing to Monsignore Satelli's presence in America, and that the feeling at Rome has been dampened by the reports of the New York conference, the legate says his private advices are directly to the contrary, and that the vatican has made known its determination to uphold its legate against all opposition. Referring to the report that President Harrison was more favorable to diplomatic relations between the vatican and United States, Monsignore Satelli said tonight that the only foundation for such a story was the fact that President Harrison had received the legate merely as the papal representative at the dedication of the world's fair.

Rev. Dr. McGlinn the newly rehabilitated priest received a spontaneous ovation when he made his appearance upon the platform at Cooper union in New York Sunday evening. An immense crowd greeted him. In the course of his address Dr. McGlinn said: "As I have said before, I was not born to be an agitator, I was born to be a preacher, to soothe sorrows and to bless the pathway of my fellow-men. Those of you who know me best know that it was never my wish to lose those altars. [Loud applause.] But when I came on the platform to speak as a citizen, as man to man, whether that platform was the tail of a cart or the head of a barrel. [Laughter.] I was still a priest of Christ and still considered myself worthy to preach the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. Today will long be memorable to me. I have again today stood before the altar so dear to me and have offered up there holy incense of communion.

Monsignore Satelli is much gratified by the general expressions of pleasure with which the restoration of Dr. McGlinn has been received throughout the country. He deplores the fact, however, that in some quarters efforts are made to fan into a blaze the embers of the old controversy, and hopes they will cease, as the past is forgiven and should be forgotten. To recall it is cruelty to him and disrespect to the authority.

Additional Locals.

A. T. Wheeler and wife of Portland, who have been on a five months visit east, were with the snow bound passengers at The Dalles from Christmas morning until yesterday. They left Mishawaka and South Bend on the 20th, and had a perfect picnic across the country. No delays until The Dalles was reached.

Mr. E. Jacobsen was severely injured yesterday by falling through the awning in front of his store. He was engaged in shoveling snow off the roof, which was pitched on to the awning. After quite a pile had accumulated he left the roof to shovel snow off the awning into the street. To reach the awning he jumped from the fire wall above, but when he struck the awning he didn't stop, he kept right on through to the sidewalk a distance in all of about 20 feet, and was badly bruised by the plunge.

Takes 1,000 people to buy Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, at 50 cents a bottle, to make up $500. One failure of cure would take the profit from 4,000 sales. Its makers profess to cure "cold in the head," and even chronic catarrh, and if they fail they pay $500 for their overconfidence.

Not in newspaper words but in hard cash! Think of what confidence it takes to put that in the papers—and mean it. Its makers believe in the remedy. Isn't it worth a trial? Isn't any trial preferable to catarrh?

After all, the mild agencies are the best. Perhaps they work more slowly, but they work more surely. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are an active agency but quiet and mild. They're sugar-coated, easy to take, never shock nor derange the system and half their power is the mild way in which their work is done. Smallest, cheapest, easiest to take. One a dose. Twenty-five cents a vial. Of all druggists.

CLEVELAND VS. CRISP

Don Dickinson Chosen to Open Negotiations For Truce.

A HIGH OLD TIME IS EXPECTED

"The Fool Friends" of Cleveland Provoking Hostilities Between Them.

CRISP TAKES A DEFINITE STAND

There Will Probably Be No Extra Session, But Crisp Will Probably Be the Speaker.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The democratic leaders are endeavoring to arrange all differences that may exist or may arise between Cleveland and Crisp. Some of the men who were so violently opposed to Crisp a year ago, and who are known as radical Cleveland men, now seem to be endeavoring to bring these men together, in the hope that difficulties may be avoided. Don M. Dickinson is one of the men who is acting as a go-between at present. There have been no open hostilities between the speaker and the president-elect as yet, but the fool friends of Cleveland have tried to provoke them. Crisp responded indirectly by declaring for an immediate extra session, and the fact that he has the power to bring it about has brought the conservative Clevelandites to their senses. The result will probably be a conference between Crisp and Cleveland, in which the speaker will agree to form a ways and means committee satisfactory to Cleveland, and the president-elect will agree to call off the opposition to Crisp's re-election. The result of the conference will be shown in the attitude of the respective factions within a few days after it has been held.

Shot a Pinkerton.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—Steffano Albertine early Christmas morning saw two men in the store of his employer and at once began to shoot, with the result of lodging a bullet in the skull of Lieutenant Clarke, of the Pinkerton agency. Albertine discovered his mistake and gave up his pistol, and, as he says, was immediately hammered almost into insensibility by the men to whom he surrendered and by police officers who came in later. The officers say that Albertine was a thief and began shooting when placed under arrest, but Albertine's employer says he is not a thief and should have killed the Pinkerton men, who forced their way into the building.

Want to Come In.

Review. The desire for annexation to the United States is growing rapidly in Canada. In a sentimental sense Canada is absolutely loyal to England, yet all her interests lead with her to obliterate the border line that now separates her from the United States. Nothing but a customs union with her colonies could have alleviated the situation, but this has been deferred so long that, as Lord Salisbury confessed, it is hopeless now to attempt it. Unless the democracy give Canada free trade Canada will surely drift rapidly into the mood of annexation.

Like Old Times.

Butte Miner. It sounds like old times in Kansas to read that the populists are organizing militia companies in that state. Shot guns in former days were not an unknown quantity in Kansas politics, but it was hardly thought that the system would be revived. The plan is that any member who votes against the party ticket shall be court-martialed, yet upon the subject of the punishment to be meted out to the offender the informer maintains a discreet silence.
