LOCAL BREVITIES.

Coming. Mr. Wood Gilman, one of the great cattle men of Eastern Oregon, is in the city, and is stopping at the Messrs. Franch's.

Miss Cassie Wiley will return to Monmouth this evening, having spent her vacation in the city with her parents and friends.

Mr. Ed. Hostetler of Concordia, Kansas, arrived last Friday evening, and is visiting his brother Mr. Jesse Hostetler in this city.

Hon. Polk Mays, a member of the legislature from Walowa is in the city visiting his parents, during the holidays.

The ice is reported good for skating today, and every one who can get away from business is enjoying the rare sport. This is the first skating of the season.

Mrs. Covington has disposed of her fruit farm on the bank of the Columbia above The Dalles. Winans Bros. are the purchasers, and the price paid was $10,000.

A surprise party met last evening at the home of Miss Lizzie Farmer. A very pleasant evening was passed, games and other recreations kept the time well employed.

Hon. T. R. Coon of Hood River, was in the city yesterday interviewing tax payers and others on subjects likely to come before the assembly which is to meet in Salem next week.

Carpets and furniture at reduced rates at Crandall & Burget's, next door to Floyd & Show's drug store.

The German school of Rev. A. Horn will commence again on Wednesday, Jan. 4th, at 3:45 p. m., just after closing of the public schools. Will you work with two pounds, think of using more than one language.

Mr. C. M. Donaldson of Baker City made us a very pleasant call last eve just as we were going to press. Mr. Donaldson is one of east Oregon's most prominent men, having filled very important positions since his residence in our state.

Crandall & Burget are now settled in their new store in the Michelbach brick on Union street, next door to Floyd & Show's. Call around.

Mr. M. M. Sherr, formerly jeweler for Mr. S. L. Young of this city, died at Delaware, Ohio, Dec. 9th. Mr. Sherr resided here for about two years, and his many friends and acquaintances will be exceedingly grieved to learn of his demise.

You can carpet your rooms at about your own price by calling on Crandall & Burget, at the new store on Union street.

The Umattilla county Farmers Alliance passed a set of resolutions last week endorsing THE CHRONICLE in its move for a jute sack factory in the penitentiary; and also that the state should build a portage railway around the Columbia river obstruction at the dalles.

Senator Steiwer of Fossil, is in the city today on his way to Salem.

Messrs. Guy Willis, Russell Sewall and Dan Malarky returned to Portland today.

The populist members from Coos county are the first to put in an appearance at Salem.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Jameson has returned to the city, having spent the holidays in Portland.

Call at Joles Bros. and make arrangements for the celebrated Warner's butter for the winter months.

Mr. J. F. Miller, a merchant of Prineville has been in the city for a few days past, shipping a heavy stock of goods to his store.

It is said that a scheme is on foot to create a new county out of a part of Gilliam, Umattilla, and Morrow counties.

Inspectors Macdermitt and Edwards were in the city, came up to inspect the trading steamer Inland Star, owned by Mr. Kennedy.

Still another new county is heard from. Some of the people of Gilliam county are striving to create a new county and make Arlington a county seat.

A floating ice berg struck the cable of the Rockland ferry with such force yesterday as to part the cable. It is comparatively a new cable, just put in last fall.

Mr. Parish, of The Dalles and Prineville Stage company, has returned from his second trip over the line. He reports the roads very much improved the past few days.

Bob Palmer informed the Herald that he and two other men put up over ten tons of ice on the Meadow Lawn farm last week. Ten tons of ice in Antelope next July will bring quite a handsome figure. It is in the freight saved where the money comes.

The ladies of The Dalles have recently organized a Glee Club, which is doing some good work in musical circles. The club met last evening at the residence of Mrs. C. J. Crandall. The Dalles people may look for some rare treats in the near future.

The first 2-cent Columbus stamp to make its appearance in THE CHRONICLE office, came from the Oregonian office yesterday, as postage on a letter to the editor. This year will see the Columbian ideas sprung on the dear public as thick as snow flakes in a blizzard.

Judge Bradshaw held an adjourned term of the circuit court yesterday. Motions were decided in the cases of Gibbons, Macallister & Co. vs. A. A. Bonney & Bro. and Knapp Burrell & Co. vs. W. H. Neaback et al. The suit of A. J. Moses vs. J. Thomas et al to open a judgment was argued and submitted. The court adjourned until Thursday.

Among the most notable of the holiday festivities is the ball of the Gesang Verein, given at Wingate's hall New Year's eve. The hall was filled to overflowing with the society and their friends, and until a late hour the merry dances held them enthralled. All will remember the evening as one of the most enjoyable of the season.

Mr. Isenberg of Hood River, was in the city yesterday. That report about him working for the democratic ticket on election day proves the truthfulness of the old saying that a lie travels faster than the truth. The correction of the joke has not yet reached the east, but the original yarn has gone around the globe twice.

Mr. R. Bonlan, of Mayrlich Bros. & Co., San Francisco, passed up the road last night on his first outing for 1893. He paid The Dalles a pleasant visit yesterday.

Secretary Sargent, of the State Horticultural society, gave us the following recipe to protect fruit trees from the ravages of rabbits: For a bucket full mix a thin white wash, into which put three hands full of sulphur, one pound of salt, half a pint of gas tar, mix with earth to a paste, and apply to the tree. It is a sure preventive, and will not injure the tree.

Capt. Geo. Flavel, a pioneer of Oregon whose home has been in Astoria for over 40 consecutive years, is reported to be lying at the point of death. He is 70 years of age, and his sickness is of such a serious nature that the hope of recovery is almost impossible.

Mr. Lark Lamb had quite an experience Saturday hunting coon on Chenoweth creek. He succeeded in treeing one sly fellow in a hollow log, and brought him to light, but it was a nip and tuck catch. The coon had Lamb by the thumb, and Lamb had the coon by the neck. Both were caught. Lamb has his thumb done up, and if not troubled with blood poisoning may come out all right.

Why will Sherman county papers persist in misrepresenting the facts at issue concerning remarks of THE CHRONICLE on the taxes of that county. The valuations were not discussed, hence THE CHRONICLE has never used the expression that the valuation was $400,000 or any other sum "less this year than last." It was a taxpayer of Sherman county who called attention to the fact that his taxes were higher since, than they were before, the creation of the new county.

A Dalles City subscriber who paid his proportion of the tax necessary to pay for the locks at Oregon City, asks why Eastern Oregon is not as worthy of a state appropriation for the improvement of the Columbia as the valley was for the improvement of the Willamette. Any scheme to tax the counties along the river for this improvement, and exempt the balance, would be unfair.

Attention of the traveling public is called to the new advertisement of The Dalles and Prineville Stage Co. in today's issue. Mr. Parrish is again superintendent, and will give good service on the line. He is one of the best stage men on the coast, always getting his stages through regardless of the inclemency of the weather. He will put on new coaches and thoroughly refit the line in a short time, so as to offer the best accommodations to passengers.

We observe that Gov. Pennoyer and Rep. M. A. Miller of Linn county, are figuring out how another fish ladder may be constructed at Willamette falls. One day recently they spent some time over at the great water fall carefully examining its contour and the formation of its bed. They were satisfied from what they saw that for about $5,000 the state could blast an everlasting and serviceable fishway out of the solid rock. They should visit Celilo falls during the run of salmon, and note the way the Royal Chinook Salmon glides up through the water, over a cliff much higher than the falls at Oregon City. The fish appear to halt, after making the ascent, as if to thank the Duke of Celilo, I. H. Taffe, for making it so accessible, and he didn't ask the state for $5,000 to pay for it, either. "Please place that sum to the credit of the dalles state portage." Telegraph the Duke.

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS.

Remarkable Energy and Wonderful Resources Displayed.

We would call attention to the following clipping cut from the Portland Telegram: "The immense amount of capital at the command of the leading Building and Loan Associations is a proof of the popularity of these co-operative savings banks. The promptness with which some of the leading National Associations grant loans on approved security is remarkable. An instance of this promptness was given the other day by the New England National Building, Loan and Investment Association. An application for a loan of $17,950 was made at 3 p. m.; at 5 the loan had been passed upon and approved and property appraised. The next morning at 9 the mortgage for the amount applied for was duly executed and filed for record. What makes this bit of news particularly interesting is that the New England is a home institution. The Telegram was able to secure a glance at the annual report of this association, though it has not yet been published, and we would say that it sets forth a wonderfully prosperous state of affairs." It would be a good thing we should think if one of our citizens received the agency for this company here at home.

We are pleased to hear that a change has taken place in the superintendency of the state portage railway at cascade locks on the 1st of January. The new incumbent is Mr. C. C. Hobert of this city, a thorough gentleman, and a man with an experience in railroading which will qualify him to give the public perfect satisfaction in that position.

Mr. Hubbard was for many years master mechanic of the U. P. R. at The Dalles, in which capacity he never failed to exhibit the type of generalship when it was required of him in the event of any emergency arising, and at the same time not lose sight of the fact that where the spirit of mutual accommodation prevailed, there was the greatest success achieved. We have not the slightest hesitation in saying that if Mr. Hobert had been superintendent of the portage railway the past year a very much better showing might have been made than has been made under the management of Mr. Ryan. We shall now feel that there is some foundation for the hope that the results of the railway investment at Cascade Locks by the state, may be more fully appreciated.

Pendleton has a local organization known as the Columbia Congress. Last night the subject for discussion was "An act to regulate foreign immigration." An important subject for discussion with a full report would be "An act to open the Columbia river and regulate Inland Empire transportation rates."

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, as we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Snipes & Kinerly's druggists.

Rents in Portland. Dispatch. "Great city this," said one stranger to another yesterday; "not a house to be had." "Oh, there are plenty of houses vacant," said the other. "I know," said the first, "but you can't get them; the rent is too high."

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds.—If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at Snipes & Kinerly's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.00.

For Rent.

The only 3-story, fire-proof brick building in the city. For further particulars inquire of Tom Kelly, at The Umattilla house.

The finder of a pair of gold framed eye glasses, will be suitably rewarded on leaving the same at this office.

Lost.

A gold watch charm with a small piece of chain attached, between J. P. McInerney and Leslie Butlers. A reasonable reward will be paid for return of same to Maier & Bentons.

Something is lost when you use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It's Catarrh. The worst cases yield to its mild, soothing, cleansing, and healing properties. No matter how bad your case, or of how long standing, you can be cured. Incurable cases are rare. It's worth $500 to you, if you have one. The manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Remedy are looking for them. They'll pay you that amount in cash, if they can't cure you. It's a plain square offer from a responsible business house, and they mean it. It seems too one-sided, too much of a risk. It would be—with any other medicine behind it. It only goes to prove what's been said: incurable cases are rare—with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Other so-called remedies may palliate for a time; this cures for all time. By its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, it conquers the worst cases. It removes offensive breath, loss or impairment of the sense of taste, smell or hearing, watering or weak eyes, when caused by the violence of Catarrh, as they all frequently are. Remedy sold by druggists, only 50 cents.
