THE WARRING CHURCHMEN.

Dispatches inform us that a Chicago paper yesterday published a lengthy article showing that Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul has preferred formal charges against the Most Rev. M. A. Corrigan, who is accused of having engaged in an unlawful conspiracy to weaken or undo the effect of the pope's decisions in respect to church matters in America and of having recourse to methods unbecoming a prelate of the Roman Catholic church, and designed to discredit and disgrace Archbishop Ireland and Monsignore Satolli, the papal legate in America. These charges, duly formulated, are now on their way to Rome, where they will be presented to the highest tribunal in the Roman Catholic church. That tribunal has power to pass upon the accusation and to fix the punishment of the accused if they are sustained. The decision will be eagerly awaited for each of the prelates has been considered as an object of the pope's favorable regard in respect to the new American cardinalate, which will be conferred at the approaching jubilee. The difference between the two archbishops are of long standing, and each has a large following among the hierarchy, priesthood and laity of the church in America and all these are likely to be affected by the decision.

It is said that the documents prepared by Archbishop Ireland indicate the existence of a conspiracy, of which the archiepiscopal residence in New York is the center, and which extends in numerous ramifications throughout America into France and Italy, and even to the shadow of St. Peter's itself. Soon after the conference of archbishops at New York in October, mutterings against the findings of the pope on the school question began to be heard, coupled with criticisms of Archbishop Ireland and Monsignore Satolli. The secular press began to teem with letters, containing statements and insinuations, disagreeably affecting both these prelates. When Dr. McGlynn was restored a few days ago, matters reached a climax, and the most undesired criticisms appeared. Letters expressing the same sentiments appeared simultaneously in widely separated cities, with remarkable coincidence, and it became apparent that Archbishop Ireland and Monsignore Satolli were the targets of a skillful and far-reaching propaganda. In this connection it is announced that Dr. Edward McGlynn will go to Rome, and the statement is authoritative, and bears out the announcement made at the time his suspension was removed by Monsignore Satolli.

Failures through a car famine are reported from Kansas city because of the utter impossibility of the railways to meet demands upon them for traffic. The greatest car shortage in the history of the west has developed there. The Missouri Pacific alone is short 2,000 cars to fill actual orders, and is positively refusing all freight for shipment except regular warehouse merchandise. The Santa Fe is short 2,000 cars on Chicago business and as many more on the western division, and all cars loaded with grain to the elevators are ordered to return empty in order to move some of the business now standing in the warehouses. The Memphis, too, is short 500 cars, and the Chicago Great Western is refusing business for the same reason. The Burlington in every branch is cramped so that it can move but little grain. The grain dealers are suffering, and failures may be expected through the famine.

Some material changes need to be made in the election laws of Oregon, one of which will be printing of the ballots in the state printing office. Some members have made application to State Printer Baker for estimates on the cost of the arrangements. Mr. Baker has looked up the expenses of Marion county for that purpose, and figures that at the same ratio the counties of the state must have paid $11,600 for the printing of their Australian ballots last June. He finds that the expense of having the tickets printed at his office, not including the paper, for a voting population of 80,000 will not exceed $2,500; this to include four sample and four official ballots for each voter, as provided by law.

Unfavorable symptoms were noted in the case of Mr. Blaine Saturday night. Dr. Johnson visited him about 9:30 o'clock and found that he had undergone an unfavorable change, and was weaker than he has been for several days. In reply to an inquiry he said that at present he was unable to tell the extent of the set-back, but he scarcely anticipated a change of great seriousness.
