A Bowery Scene.

"Here you are now, warm your hands - only a penny - warm your hands, everybody - nice warm fire here for a penny." The cry was a little out of the ordinary, even on the Bowery.

A youngster of say twelve years, of no telling what nationality, had inaugurated a unique business venture. It consisted of a big iron pail filled with live coals, arranged to conveniently toast one's cold fingers by, and the young inventor charged "a penny a warm."

"Isn't this something new, Jimmy?" inquired the reporter, after having paid the required fee.

"Yaas, I gep. Dis is my first night at de racket, and dey ain't much in it. I only got in seventeen cents since 3 o'clock. Ain't many as catches onto it at first."

"Is it your own scheme?" "Yaas. Ye see Gippy, the chestnut roaster on the corner here, is allays been sore on de chumps wot stop and warm der dukes at his fire, so I got an outfit and now Gippy sends 'em all over here to me. 'But dey ain't much in it.' - New York World.

Extravagance in Smoking.

Nestor Gianclis is a bright young Greek who some years ago moved to Cairo and engaged a small army of dark skinned men, women and children to make cigarettes for Americans to smoke.

Mr. Gianclis is said to be the best judge of tobacco in the world. Last year 2,500,000 of his cigarettes passed through the Boston custom house and during one month 150,000 have been entered there. These cigarettes pay a duty of four dollars a pound and are sold at five cents apiece or forty cents for a box of ten cigarettes.

By actual experiment it costs one-half a cent a minute to smoke an Egyptian cigarette, which makes them probably the most expensive thing in the smoking line. - Boston Herald.

Boston Gets an Egyptian Antiqu.

The red granite column from the remains of the temple at the site of the Biblical Hanes, in Egypt, procured by the Rev. Dr. W. C. Winslow, of the Egypt exploration fund, from the excavations, has just arrived at the Museum of Fine Arts. The capital is an exquisite palm leaf design, and the total weight is from six to seven tons. Only the British museum has so fine a column among its treasures. - Boston Advertiser.

Manning and Simeoni.

It is worth noting as a curious coincidence that Cardinals Manning and Simeoni were called to the cardinalate on the same day in 1875 and died on the same day in 1893. Furthermore, the last official letter written by Cardinal Manning a few days before his death was addressed to Cardinal Simeoni, the late prefect of the propaganda. - Pall Mall Gazette.

Liked His Books.

Physicians and sufferers from the grip may find a useful hint in the announcement that at a recent reception given to Rudyard Kipling, in Melbourne, a sweet young thing approached the author with this flattering remark: "Oh, Mr. Kipling, I feel so proud to have met you. When I had the influenza, your books were the only things that did me any good." - Exchange.

Coins Under a Glacier.

About 1887 a horseshoe was found under the ice of the glacier Theodul, in Switzerland, which led geologists to the idea that this pass, 3,823 meters high, was formerly not imbedded in ice. This has been further confirmed by a recent find of coins bearing the likenesses of Augustus and Diocletian. - Popular Science News.

An ingenious mail box has been offered for the approval of the government. It is operated by a timeclock, which automatically displays a card announcing when the next collection will be made. It also stamps upon each letter as it drops in the very minute when it was placed in the box.

A woman in Asbury Park, N. J., is said to be in a dangerous condition through being poisoned by inhaling smoke from a cook stove filled with green wood. It is thought that the wood in the stove was covered with some poisonous fungus.

THE DALLES,

Wasco County, Oregon,

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
