HOW TO PLEASE THE GIRLS.

Some Plain Talk to Toung Men Who Think Themselves Pretty Poor. From the time you begin to pay attention to any set of girls you want to study to please them, and you want to keep on studying as long as you live. Don't try to get out of it by saying that you haven't much money, and that everything that girls like costs an awful lot. The poorest of you manage to find money enough to keep yourselves on good terms with the boys. You have some habit or indulgence which you spend money to gratify Think the matter ever and make up your mind which you like best—the boys, your own pet gratifi-cations or the girls. If you can't put the girls first you had better drop them. It may be hard to do, but it's easier and less humiliating than to have them drop you. If you haven't much to do'with. do the best you can with what you have. No more will be expected of you than what you can do.

Don't drop into sentimental dismalness because you can't buy an opera box like some city swell, or drive a fast horse like some smart fellow in the country. It is not so much the cost of what you do as the way you do it that the girl will notice and talk about. If you'll be man enough to study a girl's tastes and gentleman enough to think about them real hard, you will find ways of showing what sort of stuff is in you, no matter how poor you are

Usualle girls get up all the parties, and the young men accept such affairs as naturally as if they were meals at home or the boarding house, or something else to which they are entitled, instead of special courtesies, which deserve special recognition. It isn't custom for a young fellow to get up parties on his own account, but he ought to have enough manliness and manners to devise some means of returning the compli-

If he can't do it with his own purse and brains he can get some other fellow and brains he can get some other fellow to belp. Any two or three clever young fellows can find plenty of ways of enter-taining or amusing their entertainers if they will pool their brains and pocket-books. If they're not clever, the best thing they can do is to make themselves so as soon as possible, for they can't ever expect to be "solid" with the girls with-out it.

Don't imagine yourselves generous be-cause you spend time thinking what lovely things you would do for the girls if you only had lots of money. Any fool can do that and yet die as mean as a skinflint. It takes thinking and work and self denial for any one to be gener ous unless he has a great deal money than he knows what to do with, and nobody ever knew a man as rich as that. Besides there are plenty of ways of doing nice things for the girls without spending much money, and you'll find out some of them if only you'll be generous with your time and wits.

If you can afford cigars, or even cigarettes, you can afford to do the proper thing for the girls. One common cigar a day costs as much as two good theater tickets a month. Fewer scarfpins mean more bouquets, and one bouquet will go further toward making you "solid" with a girl than a whole jeweler's case full of

A suit of clothes a little less costly than the one you meant to buy will save you the price of a ride or two for the girl, who will care more for one ride than for all the clothes you may try to show off in. A girl's own clothes are all she can Masonic Block, Corner Third and Court Streets. The Dalles, Oregr. pay attention to, ushabby or fit badly.

No matter what you do, though, for the dear creatures, you must put your generosity into your manners as well as into your doings. Don't act, as a good many young fellows do, as if you were paying a debt when you do anything nice for the girls, for whatever they do for you isn't for pay—it's a gift, and must be returned in the same spirit if must be returned in the same spirit if you wish it to be welcome. Always do a courteous deed as if you were receiving a favor, for that's what it ought to appear to your mind, and that's what it really amounts to if you are the right sort of a fellow. There are some young men who pay their social debts with the air of a man paying a bill, and the girls air of a man paying a bill, and the girls are very quick to catch on to that sort of thing. - Chicago Globe.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here. The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point and America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future. The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find marke here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing wit their products. ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money scattered over and is being used to develop more farming count than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.
