The Quickest Way to Cure a Cold.

Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. The first symptoms of a cold is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by watery expectoration and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double dose every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in many cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

NOTICE: SALE OF CITY LOTS.
Notice is hereby given that by authority of Ordinance No. 257, which passed the common council of Dalles city, September 24, 1892, entitled "An ordinance entitled an ordinance to provide for the sale of certain lots belonging to Dalles city," I will, on Saturday next offer for sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, all of the lots and parts of lots situated in Gates Addition to Dalles City, Wasco county, Oregon, not heretofore sold, as previously advertised.

Each of said lots will be sold upon the lot respectively and none of them shall be sold for a less sum than the value thereof as above stated.
One fourth of the price bid on any of said lots shall be paid in cash at the time of sale, and the remainder in two equal payments on or before one and two years from the date of such sale, respectively, with interest on such deferred payments at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, payable annually. Provided that payment may be made in full at the time of such sale at the option of the purchaser.
The sale will begin at the hour of ten o'clock a. m. of said day and will be continued from time to time until all of said lots shall be sold.
Dated this 1st day of November, 1892.
FRANK MENEFEE,
Recorder of Dalles City.

A Clever Collie.

T. Sidney Cooper, the English animal painter, says that he often made valuable studies in Cumberland at places where Scotch drovers halted with their cattle for the night. On such occasions he often had a chance to see illustrations of an animal's intelligence as well as of its physical perfection.

One day when there was a pouring rain a man consented to sit for me at the inn where I was staying. He brought his collie with him and both of them were dripping wet, so he put off his plaid and laid it on the floor by the dog. I made a very successful sketch of the man, but before I had finished it the dog grew fidgety with the wet plaid, and his master said, "Tak' it awa' mon; tak' it awa'!"
The dog took the end of it between his teeth and dragged it out of the room. After I had finished the drover's portrait I asked him if he thought his dog would lie quiet for a time, as I wished to sketch him.
"Oh, yes, mon," he answered, "he'll do anything I say to him. Watch! Watch!" he called, and then "whistled" for him, as the Scotch say.

As the dog did not appear we went together to look for him, and found him sitting before the kitchen fire with the end of the plaid in his mouth, holding it up to dry. I expressed my admiration of his intelligence, and the master replied:
"Ah, he's a canny creature, sir! He knows a many things, does that dog, sir. But come awa', mon; the gentleman wants to mak' your picture."
So we returned to my room, and the handsome collie sat for his portrait.—Chicago News.

Mrs. Astor's Lingerie.
The cedar chests in the Astor mansion which contain the superb underwear of the queenly Mrs. Astor are perfect household ornaments in themselves, with deep engraven gold lockers with the initial "A" wrought in finest carving upon its surface. Inside the chest, neatly folded in webs of choicest linen, are the dainty garments of society's queen. Each week, as they leave the ironing sheet, they are laid within the chests to await the bidding of the owner. Every article of this superb wardrobe is stitched by hand, and no materials but the purest and finest of linens and cambrics are used. They are all elaborately trimmed with lovely point and duchesse laces, and the initial "A" is daintily embroidered on every article.
In the same orderly manner Mrs. Astor arranges her footwear, which is equally as exquisite; only the cedar chests have apartments molded in which each slipper and boot fits perfectly and keeps its shape.
By the way, Mrs. Astor has a very pretty foot for an old lady. Her ankles are small and shapely and her toes are extremely narrow. Her daughters, Mrs. Coleman Drayton and Mrs. Orme Wilson, have neither of them such pretty feet, and they are eternally envying their mother her beautiful feet and adornments.—New York Cor. Pittsburg Dispatch.

Charles Dickens and the Dog.
"Every one remembers Dan Bronsman, the old sexton of St. Patrick's," said Mr. H. A. Preston. "Dan had a little dog, a homely cur, with the most plebeian blood in his veins, but a remarkably clever animal. He would follow the sexton everywhere, and the only way to restrain him was behind closed doors. One night about twenty-three years ago Charles Dickens was a reading in Carroll hall. Dan was on hand to look after the hall, rigged in a dress coat out of deference to the great occasion. He had forgotten the dog, but the dog was on hand.
"In one of his readings the great novelist came to this passage, "Bow-wow-wow," barked the little dog. He gave it a realistic rendering, and almost with his words came a responsive and lifelike echo, 'Bow-wow-wow.' There stood Dan's little yellow cur, directly in front of Chief Justice Chase, and before the great men of the nation, mocking their guest. Dan dragged the dog out, terribly mortified, but Dickens said it was one of the finest compliments he ever received."—Washington Post.

THE DALLES,

Wasco County, - - - Oregon,

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.
It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.
The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

ITS PRODUCTS.
The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

ITS WEALTH.
It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon. Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
