The Quickest Way to Cure a Cold.

Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. The first symptoms of a cold is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by watery expectoration and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double does every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in many cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Three Small Trees.

Kaempfer is quoted as describing a trio of trees he saw in a box 1½ inches broad, 4 inches long and 3 inches deep, for which the owner asked the traveler the modest sum of $500. The three denizens of the box were a bamboo, a monthly blooming plum tree and a blue leafed pine, all perfectly formed and seemingly enjoying their dwarfed existence.—St. Louis Republic.

Mamma—Why, what for?

Little Dot—Susie Stuckup has a new doll 'at shuts its eyes an cries "Wah, wah!" I'm doin to betend the baby is a doll and let her hear him yell. Then I dess she'll stop puttin on airs.—Good Hasn't Been Shaved Since Appomattox.

"Have a shave, sir?" said the new barber.

"What?"

"Have a shave, sir?" he repeated.

"No, sir; haven't shaved since 1860."

The men in the chairs snickered and moved their heads to get a glance of the old gentleman as he clinched onto the bootblack's perch. The o. g. was not a bit reluctant to talk.

"No, sir; haven't shaved since 1860," he went on. "Swore I wouldn't if Lee was whipped."

The old gentleman was the pioneer physician, Dr. I. M. Ridge, and he declared he would wear his long beard to the grave.—Kansas City Times.

Two of a Kind.

A sturdy eight-year-old with the craft of a Talleyrand, informed his mother upon his return from school that "Will Brown and another fellow got a licking at school today." And Tommy's mamma might never have been the wiser had not Tommy's sister burst into the room soon after and announced, "Oh, mamma, Tommy and Will Brown got whipped at school today."—Chicago News.

Queer Effect of the Moon.

There is a lady now living in Alleghany who suffers intense pain in the head whenever the light of the full moon falls upon her. At these times she does not venture out at night, but shuts herself up in a dark room. There are many such cases on record.—

No Excuse for Late Hours.

There would seem to be no excuse for the late hours which society prescribes for its ceremonies. Late evening parties for children are admitted to be injurious. But we are all children or ought to be, so far as the laws of health are concerned. We do not, as many think, by age earn a right to violate the laws of health. Nature takes pay for it in one way or another.

One difficulty at the foundation of our social life is that we do not admit amusements as necessary to our lives. We do not set apart time for them, but insist, if forced into them by fashion, upon taking them out of time that ought to be given to rest of mind and body. The day must all be given to business, up to its latest available hour, and then we take from hours that should be given to sleep time for social duties.—New York Ledger.

Glacier Ice.

Glacier ice is not like the solid blue ice on the surface of the water, but consists of granules joined together by an intricate network of capillary water filled fissures. In exposed sections and upon the surface of the ice can be observed "veined" or "banded" structure veins of a denser blue color alternating with those of a lighter shade containing air bubbles. The cause of this peculiar structure has been the subject of much theorizing among investigators, but hitherto the greatest authorities consider that the explanation of the phenomenon is yet wanting.—Goldthwaite's Geographical Magazine.

THE DALLES,
Wasco County, - - - Oregon,

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
