LOCAL BRIEFINGS.

H. M. Cooper of John Day in the city. A fine lot of furniture going very low at Crandall & Burget's new store.

Mr. Chas. Schermerhorn of Portland, in the city and will remain several days. Mr. Chas. Allison has cut and put up 9 tons of ice in the Stadleman ice house.

Mr. Albert Roberts reports five inches snow on the ridge in the Big Bend of Des Chutes. Dr. Siddall left for Portland this morning, to be absent about a week.

The Umatilla register today notes visitors to The Dalles from New York, Louis, San Francisco and, as of old, Portland-on-Wallamet. If you have not paid your school tax for 1892 you will save costs by paying at once. Time is up. This means you.

Mr. Ed. Mays has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to leave for California on the evening train, to resume his studies in the Berkeley University.

Yesterday the air was filled with falling flakes of frost because of the fog in the upper current of atmosphere. This morning the pines on Klickitat hills are frosted white to their extreme tips, and the old Sol, but he showed himself only nine o'clock, and caused many of the frosty appearances of winter to disappear before the shades of evening.

Hon. J. N. Brown, representative from Morrow county, passed through the city today. He is looking up the sentiment of his constituency in the Inland Empire, and upon calling at Tax Collector's office was pleased to find in print much of that sentiment which he enforces. THE CHRONICLE stands abreast of the times, and the people are proud of the record it is making in their interests.

Mayor Mays was too timid to start out the city with a sleigh last Monday morning, the Chinook winds, and has been hanging about the country ever since in a buckboard. He returned to the city this evening, satisfied that he has had a good sleigh ride, but he was on the safe side, where the snow is so uncertain it is in the Inland Empire.

Now that the legislature is talking of raising county offices salaries, it is to be hoped that, should they fail to make a change from fees to salary, they will fall to take off the additional 33 1/2 per cent, which is now allowed to county officers east of the Cascade mountains. There is no reason why an officer should be any more for services rendered in one county and many others east of the mountains, than is paid in the counties of the Willamette valley.

Miss Lizzie Fitzgerald is in from Des Chutes on a visit to her father, Mr. E. P. Fitzgerald.

Harmon Lodge No. 501, I. O. G. T., have changed their place of meetings to Fraternity hall, Monday evening of each week.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Jameson, came up on the noon train, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Mabel Powers, who is the guest of the Misses Michell. Rev. T. F. Campbell, a former president of the Monmouth Normal school died a few days since and was buried in the Monmouth cemetery yesterday.

The temperature at The Dalles at eight a. m. today, registered 13° above zero. The lowest point reached during the night was 8° above. The sky was clear during all the night.

Senate bill No. 7, introduced by Senator Steiwer of Gilliam, for the protection of stockraisers, covers every point and is of great merit. It will meet with the universal approbation of the stockmen in the state and we hope will pass without any objection and become a law.

The Y. B. coasting club did a "smashing" business last evening. Two streets, Washington and Union, were used; and several sleds were broken up by dashing into one another. Several hair breadths 'escapes' are mentioned, but no report has reached us of any broken limbs.

Bad roads in Multnomah county mired a stolen horse when the thief took the saddle and bridle and escaped to Portland. Sheriff Ganong, who started in pursuit of the thief, found the horse, and in endeavoring to rescue it, got his cart mired and broken down. He secured the horse, but he is disgusted with the roads.

In closing the comments on the asylum scandal, the Oregonian today says: If Superintendent Rowland desires to avail himself of any benefit that may accrue to his management of the asylum, from the carefully-worded report of the investigating board, he will do well to take the gentle hint in this connection with which the board supplemented its findings in the premises.

Mr. Jas. Gray of Wapinitia, called and paid his respects to this office today. Mr. Gray informs us the winter, with the snow, is very acceptable, and before the last storm the ground was wet down deep. Stock is doing well, and the health of the neighborhood was never better. Last October he had the misfortune to lose his house and contents by fire, and as it happened, for once, he carried an insurance on his house in the Bankers and Merchant Insurance Company of Albany, and got his money, which came just in time to set him on his feet again in good shape for the winter.

Capt. J. W. Lewis, register in the U. S. land office in this city, who has been so very near to death's door recently that once his life was given up, having gained so fast in health as to be able to walk down town, has attempted for a week past to resume his duties in the office, but today has been compelled to relinquish the work, and his physician advises him positively to cease, if he would save his life. Every citizen in The Dalles, and 99 out of every 100 people in the country, know full well the effort Capt. Lewis has made and is making at this time in behalf of the people most interested, and no one can regret one-half as much as Capt. Lewis regrets his inability to represent each particular case involved. There can be no sacrifice to the settler in this matter.

After the Loaves and Fishes Early.

Hon. John Myers, an ex-incumbent, Henry Grady of Pendleton, Eugene Forbes, and E. J. Jeffery, want the U. S. Marshalship badly. Mr. C. W. Roby has not had enough, he with Chas. White and John Finley want the post-office, and Henry Blackman of Heppner, thinks he has the inside track for revenue collector. Chairman Murphy declines, with a good deal of dignity, the U. S. attorneyship, although offered him on a gold-plated server, intimating that Judge L. L. McArthur was entitled to it, even if L. B. Cox or F. A. E. Starr were seekers for the coveted prize. Evidently he has his optics on U. S. judgeship. Henry Gray of Portland and Col. John Lane of Roseburg are designated as aspirants for the collectorship of customs of Alaska. The loaves may be few, but the baskets of fishes are many.

We acknowledge the receipt of senate bills 55 and 53 today; the Willis Port of Columbia, and Raley Portage railway. We have not had time to read them today but will give them attention tomorrow.

News has been received that the commissioners treating with the Nez Perces have succeeded in getting a large number of Indians to sign the treaty, and there is now little doubt that the efforts to open the reserve will be successful. It is probable, however, that negotiations will not be completed in time for the present session to take action in the matter.

Gov. Penoyer has telegraphed the chief of engineers for the substance of the report of the board of engineers on the dalles of the Columbia. The board met in New York today, and will have first to agree and then prepare a report. This report, after being submitted to the war department, will be sent to congress before even the senators and members of congress are allowed to know its contents. Consequently Gov. Penoyer will not receive it for several days.

The East Oregonian says the tax levy this year in Marion county will be 20 mills. In Umatilla it will be at least this much, if not more, probably 23 mills, owing to the state tax being 10 mills. A few years ago the state tax was only from four to five mills. State expenses are increasing yearly, owing to the extravagance of boards and commissions and the loose expenditures of the legislature. The taxpayers of this county, as well as those of other counties, can place the blame for high taxation where it belongs, on the state lawmakers now in session at Salem.

The decision of the Circuit court in the rate case of the Oregon railway commission against the S. P. Co., has been affirmed by the Supreme court in a decision handed down Monday. The referee, Hon. Wm. Holmes of Salem, Judge Boise of the Circuit court, and now the three able and learned judges of the supreme court all agree that the rates made by the commission were just and reasonable, and the commission had power to make them. They all agree that the commission under the Gear law can cut down the rates of any company when it finds them too high. The judicial powers of our state are also agreed act that the present commission did not in an arbitrary or incompetent manner in the reduction of freights ordered on the Southern Pacific lines. The Southern Pacific must adopt state rates or retire from business in Oregon.

SOUND CITIES ACTIVE.

Business Active, Splendid Weather, Promising Future.

SEATTLE, Jan. 20.—[Special.]—The weather on Puget sound has been finer during the last two weeks than has been known for several years at this season. Steamboat trade on the sound has greatly increased and the wholesale merchants in every line are greatly encouraged on account of the increased sales during the last year over any previous year. Building is being actively pushed forward, and the outlook is that many fine structures will be erected during the coming spring. Yeeler block and the Dexter Horton bank building, are now nearing completion, both being very handsome structures. The people of Seattle are greatly rejoiced over the completion of the Great Northern railway, which adds one more railway to the list of those coming to Seattle, making a total number now of railroads running into Seattle, of seven, with the prospects of a few more at an early date.

Brook Trout Counting.

Hon. George T. Myers, one of the representatives from Multnomah county, is informed by Frank N. Clark, superintendent Michigan stations United States fish commission, that Carleton H. Bean, assistant in charge of division of fish culture, United States fish commission, Washington, D. C., is about to ship to him 20,000 brook trout eggs. These eggs, upon their arrival in Oregon, will be taken to the government hatchery at Clackamas, where they will be hatched. And then at the proper season the young fish will be sent all over the state, to places wherever application has been made. Be sure they are not black bass, pouts, carp or sun fish, smuggled upon us, before the distribution. Oregon can stand brook trout, but wants none of the other varieties.

Blaine's Condition.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—It was said at Blaine's house that he did not rest as well last night as usual of late, but became easy toward morning. Dr. Johnson visited him about 11 o'clock this morning and remained half an hour. He said the patient had improved since yesterday and was stronger and brighter.

Wednesday evening last this city was the coldest place in Oregon or Washington west of Helena, Mont., and the temperature was only 18° above zero. This may be considered a very unusual phenomenon in atmospheric conditions, and probably never occurred before. The Dalles is but 116 feet above sea level, and only 125 miles inland, direct from the coast.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him. Edwd. Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store.

Let's reason together. Here's a firm, one of the largest the country over, the world over; it has grown, step by step, through the years to greatness, and it sells patent medicines!—ugh! 'That's enough!'—Wait a little. This firm pays the newspapers good money (expensive work, this advertising!) to tell the people that they have faith in what they sell, so much faith that if they can't benefit or cure they don't want your money. Their guarantee is not indefinite and relative, but definite and absolute—if the medicine doesn't help your money is "on call." Suppose every sick man and every feeble woman tried these medicines and found them worthless, who would be the loser, you or they? The medicines are Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," for blood diseases, and his "Favorite Prescription," for woman's peculiar ills. If they help toward health, they cost $1.00 a bottle each! If they don't, they cost nothing!
