To Our Friends and Patrons.

WE HAVE rather neglected our Advertising of late, not because we had nothing to sell; but we had nothing especially new to offer, and preferred to wait until we could say something of interest. We are, and have been for some time, busily engaged in placing our orders for Spring and Summer Goods and feel justified in announcing that we shall have the FINEST ASSORTMENT and the BEST GOODS in all our lines that has ever been seen in The Dalles. We have secured some genuine novelties in the Dry Goods Department, and the ladies will certainly consult their best interests by deferring their purchases until after their arrival, of which we shall give you due notice. Keep both eyes on this space and we will certainly surprise you, not only with the goods, but the prices at which we shall sell them. We mean business and propose to have your patronage, if LOW PRICES and the BEST GOODS will accomplish it. Yours Respectfully,

PEASE & MAYS.

JOYFUL NEWS.

The Bill to Extend the Time for Entering Forfeited Railway Lands Finally Passed Congress.

The following dispatch to Hon. E. B. Dufur, from Hon. Binger Hermann will be joyfully received:

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Have just secured the passage of senate bill extending the time to all possessors of forfeited railroad lands to January next (1894). President Harrison will approve the bill on Monday. Accept congratulations. Please circulate the information. BINGER HERMANN.

Score another victory for THE CHRONICLE, which has left not one stone unturned in urging this measure. Thanks to all who put a shoulder to the wheel. "The Gods help those who help themselves." Don't it!

Messrs. J. G. and I. N. Day, contractors for the completion of the cascade canal and locks, are in the city today accompanied by their secretary Mr. Nelson Wilson. The gentlemen are well pleased with the outlook. They are prepared to go to work any day on their contract, and say they expect to be able to do so within a month, and will push it to speedy completion. Several of The Dalles citizens called upon the visitors at The Umatilla today, and a representative of THE CHRONICLE obtained from Messrs. Day their views of the magnitude of the work they have in hand and the possible empire it is to develop. It seems strange to them that a work of such National importance as that of opening the Columbia should be so long delayed.

Master Herman Stelling, a 7-year old lad attending the public school, met with a painful accident while coasting, at recess yesterday afternoon. He had started down the hill on his sled, ahead of Orin Bagley, who was on another sled, just as the bell tapped to call the pupils into the school house. In his effort to save time and be prompt to report in the school room, Herman rolled off his sled, and stopped. As he did so Orin ran upon him with sled No. 2 with such force as to break his leg in two places between the knee and the ankle. Dr. Rinehart was quickly called and dressed the leg, and the boy was reported as resting easy last night.

Rev. and Mrs. Curtis gave a very pleasant reception at the Congregational church last night. The new church was thrown open, and refreshment tables were set in the vestry and study, very pretty with the dainty china and snowy linen, and very tempting with the toothsome viands they contained. The whole effect was very pleasing, and the pastor and Mrs. Curtis exerted themselves to make things pleasant for those present. It was a very nice affair and enjoyed by those present.

Hon. Al Lyle returned from Portland this morning, where he has been for treatment of his eyes. He returns much improved, but is far from being cured yet.
The usual services will be held at Academy hall tomorrow. Rev. J. C. Baker officiating in the absence of the pastor, Rev. O. D. Taylor, who is quite sick in Portland.
Service at the M. E. Church, Sunday Jan. 22d, morning and evening, the pastor conducting, to which all are invited. The revival meetings which are daily growing in interest, will continue during next week.

"Bird" Social.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. J. T. Peters entertained a number of her friends in a delightful manner. The invitation cards bore the word "whist," but Mrs. Peters was too well versed in the peculiarity (the dear creatures have but one) of her sex to expect that admonition to be heeded. The pleasant parlors were rendered still more attractive by the artistically arranged decorations of evergreens. When the guests were assembled each was presented with a score card daintily decorated by the hostess, and bearing an appropriate quotation. The time passed rapidly until half of the designated number of games had been marked for or against, when a delicious luncheon was served, after which all returned with renewed vigor to the contest. At the close of the hard fought battle Mrs. Rinehart proudly bore away the reward of the conquering hero-in-e. It was so very pretty that a chorus of "Oh's" and "Oh's" greeted the removal of the wrappings that had concealed it from longing eyes; however Mrs. Crandall professed herself more than satisfied with the dainty "consolation" offered her as a substitute for the good luck borne away on the wings of the birds that had been fitting through the parlors all the afternoon. January twentieth will long be remembered by the guests, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Phelps, Mrs. Schenck, Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Lord, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Houghton, Mrs. Beall, Mrs. Eshelman, Mrs. Garretson, Mrs. Hilton, Mrs. B. S. Huntington, Mrs. Pease, Mrs. Hobson, Mrs. Rinehart, Mrs. H. S. Wilson, Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Bradshaw, Mrs. Crowe, Mrs. MacLeod, Mrs. Lochhead, Mrs. Fish, Mrs. Blakeley, Mrs. Hostettler, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Crandall, Mrs. Bronson, and Mrs. Glenn; as one of the pleasantest days of '93.

Pleasant Ridge Letter.

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE.
PLEASANT RIDGE, Or., Jan. 20.—I have not seen anything in your excellent paper of late from our section, and as you have requested correspondence from all parts of the county, I avail myself of the offered courtesy and give you a few items.

We are having our share of the winter as it is being passed around. The snow is about one foot deep on a level, which is acceptable to the fullest extent. It means wealth for the farmer in large harvests, and that is just what we want.

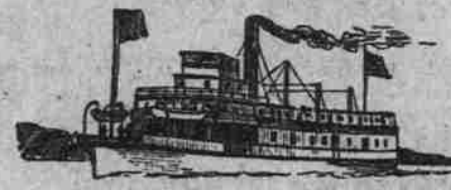

Rev. E. Baker has been holding revival meetings in this neighborhood of late and preached his last sermon last Sunday. They were very well attended and were productive of an unusual amount of interest, eighteen being converted, of which number fourteen united with the Methodist church. Every person on the ridge belongs to some church, except one man, who is from Kansas. He says he will try California in the spring.

The health of the neighborhood is excellent, and our people are putting in time to good advantage in making preparations for active work next summer on the farm.

We like your position on the jute bag question. The state might just as well as not make all the grain sacks the farmer needs with labor of the convicts in the penitentiary. Mr. Downing says that about one half of the convicts are employed at present, which probably means on contract. The other half could be employed in the manufacturing of sacks, if the state would put in machinery for that purpose.
More anon. MARK.

THE DALLES, - OREGON

WE WILL HAVE A JUTE MILL.

The Committee of the Assembly Sent to Walla Walla Will Return Convinced. Will Recommend Building.

THE CHRONICLE is much pleased to record the fact that there is great hope now that our Oregon farmers are to reap some benefits from convict labor at Salem. A dispatch from Walla Walla says:

"The Oregon legislative committee, consisting of Senators J. K. Weatherford of Linn, and F. A. Bancroft of Multnomah, and Representatives H. F. Gulixson of Multnomah, J. W. Hobbs of Yamhill, and B. D. Daly of Lake, arrived from Salem this morning and visited the penitentiary. They made a full investigation of the workings of the jute mill, and were favorably impressed with the institution. They will make an exhaustive report, with the recommendation that a similar institution on a larger scale be established in connection with the Oregon penitentiary."

Tiger for THE CHRONICLE. "The Gods help those who help themselves." Don't it?

J. A. Gulliford bid in his property at sheriff sale today as plaintiff in the suit of Gulliford vs. Hanna.

Mr. W. J. Luder of Salt Springs, is in the city today. Referring to the proposed new county of Stockman, he says the scheme is regarded in the light of a fraud by many of his neighbors. There is but one sentiment on this question of county division by fair-minded people, and that is a sentiment of opposition.

Wm. Hall, of Colorado Springs has duplicated the act of Wm. Bethune at Mitchell. Hall struck a rich gold mine in his back yard. He was digging a vault, and when down three feet struck a six-inch vein of mineral. A sample of it produced an ounce of silver and three-twentieths of an ounce of gold. Bethune was digging a well, when he struck a ledge of almost pure gold six inches thick.

The Union Pacific have decided to retaliate against those roads that recently withdrew from their interchange of passenger business. The Union Pacific circular just issued applies to all classes of tickets. In the matter of the inland transportation rates, which was under discussion at St. Paul a few days ago, Mr. Campbell says it would be useless to name any of the figures that are being discussed, as there is no certainty that they will be adopted, but twenty per cent. less to the interior than to terminals, on the class rates, is about the basis. Many of the commodities now carried in what is known as the transcontinental terminal tariff will be wiped out and transferred to the class rates, wherever the latter may be less than the former.

If you have not paid your school tax for 1892 you will save costs by paying at once. Time is up. This means you.

Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him. Edw. Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. Let's reason together.

Here's a firm, one of the largest the country over, the world over; it has grown, step by step, through the years to greatness, and it sells patent medicines!—ugh! "That's enough!"—Wait a little. This firm pays the newspapers good money (expensive work, this advertising!) to tell the people that they have faith in what they sell, so much faith that if they can't benefit or cure they don't want your money. Their guarantee is not indefinite and relative, but definite and absolute—if the medicine doesn't help your money is "on call." Suppose every sick man and every feeble woman tried these medicines and found them worthless, who would be the loser, you or they? The medicines are Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," for blood diseases, and his "Favorite Prescription," for woman's peculiar ills. If they help toward health, they cost $1.00 a bottle each! If they don't, they cost nothing!
