

To Our Friends and Patrons.

WE HAVE rather neglected our Advertising of late, not because we had nothing to sell; but we had nothing especially new to offer, and preferred to wait until we could say something of interest. We are, and have been for some time, busily engaged in placing our orders for Spring and Summer Goods and feel justified in announcing that we shall have the FINEST ASSORTMENT and the BEST GOODS in all our lines that has ever been seen in The Dalles. We have secured some genuine novelties in the Dry Goods Department, and the ladies will certainly consult their best interests by deferring their purchases until after their arrival, of which we shall give you due notice. Keep both eyes on this space and we will certainly surprise you, not only with the goods, but the prices at which we shall sell them. We mean business and propose to have your patronage, if LOW PRICES and the BEST GOODS will accomplish it. Yours Respectfully,

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A committee of ladies of The Dalles have had seventy-six sacks of flour turned over to them from the fire relief committee of 1891, to be distributed wherever they may decide, to relieve any cases of want found in the city. "The poor ye always have," and in The Dalles it is a matter of congratulation that our devoted and charitably inclined ladies have found means to render assistance in several instances where aid was needed.

Mr. Fred Drews and others, who have recently made a valuable discovery of minerals within thirty miles of The Dalles, have cause to be happy over the results of assays made by a Denver assayer. Five specimens of the rock were sent to Denver. One of those showed $115 to the ton silver, and $16 gold, total $131 to the ton. Another shows a value of $300 to the ton. We congratulate the lucky prospectors, and hope that all their anticipations may be fulfilled. It will be another big thing for The Dalles.

Senator Fulton is generally about right on most matters of public importance, but his ideas of reform in the manner proposed yesterday "to obviate the necessity for absolutely repealing" the deduction for indebtedness clause, in the Oregon tax laws is "too thin" to fit the miter where public opinion may be expected to join the proposition. According to the Oregonian's report Mr. Fulton's idea seems to be just what the people who do pay taxes now complain about, and on the other hand, would just suit that class of citizens who do not now pay taxes; simply avoiding payments by their own "certificates" of indebtedness. We would not do Senator Fulton an injustice, yet must say that in his proposition we can see no relief from the evils complained of. The only remedy to honest taxpaying citizens lays in the proposition to wholly wipe the indebtedness clause from the statutes.

The Union whist club was entertained last evening by Mrs. Dr. Eschelman at Fraternity hall, about forty guests being present. Twenty-five hands were played, resulting in a tie between Mr. W. Lord and Mr. W. H. Hobson. This necessitated a deciding game to secure the prize. Mr. Lord chose Mrs. Schenck to assist him, while Mr. Hobson selected Mrs. Rinehart. Trumps told, and skill availed Mr. Lord nothing, for Mr. Hobson carried off the prize, an elegant painting. Mr. Hostetler secured the booby. The club will be entertained next week by Mr. and Mrs. Fish. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. Lord, Dr. and Mrs. Rinehart, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fish, Senator and Mrs. Hilton, Judge and Mrs. Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Hostetler, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lochhead, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Judge and Mrs. A. S. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. A. MacLeod, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bayard, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Houghton, Judge and Mrs. G. C. Blakeley, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Schenck, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wilson, Mrs. W. S. Myers, Mrs. H. Glenn, Mrs. H. M. Beall, Mrs. G. C. Eschelman, Miss Anna Fulton, Dr. E. Logan, Martin Donnell, Edw. Hostetler, H. H. Riddell.

Capt. H. C. Coe, of Hood River called at this office yesterday.

Mr. W. S. Cram of Portland, arrived on the noon train today for a short stay. Everybody in Hood River valley didn't sign the petition for the new county of Cascade.

A Tucker correspondent writes us that it has been very cold there, and the snow still hangs on. Mrs. Ira F. Powers, who has been visiting in the city for the past week, returns to Portland on the afternoon train.

Messrs. Winans Bros., who were at work at their fishery on the north side yesterday, crossed the Columbia river on the ice to this side last evening, abreast of Seuferts fishery.

Word comes that Mr. Chittenden, late assistant postmaster at this city, has been troubled with an affliction of the eyes which compels him to abandon his duties in Moscow postoffice. "Raley's Act Passes the Senate," is a head-line in the Oregonian today, which, for unlimited deceptive gall is as pronounced as some of its book advertisements. Bets are no longer decided by the Oregonian.

The announcement that Col. Compton has been pardoned by the president was received by the Walla Walla people with something approaching indifference. Col. Compton's punishment consisted in the verdict of the court, and not in the penalty attached to it. The ice block in the Columbia below this city yesterday has gradually formed up stream until it is now nearly opposite the Baker landing, frozen clear across the stream. The cold blue water above the line which marks the bridge of winter is very inviting for further encroachments, and we may soon be able to walk to the Rockland side.

A Washington dispatch received states that the secretary of war has approved the bonds of Messrs. J. G. and I. N. Day, the contractors for the completion of the cascade canal. On receipt of the official notification, which will be within a few days. They will begin operations within eight or ten days. Messrs. Day Bros. are confident that the great work will be completed within eighteen months.

The election of Judge Martin to the United States senate in Kansas, has thoroughly disgusted Mrs. Lease. It was to her as the last scald which ruined the pot of beans. She declares it is the death blow to the populist party in Kansas, and she has renounced her allegiance to it. Mrs. Diggs, her co-laborer, affirms that in the election of Martin, the populist party of Kansas has committed suicide. But she seems to have a most wonderful hope that from the ashes of the populist party, will arise another party which will carry out the will of the people, in spite of political trickery.

The spare ferry boat, a flat used at a line when the steam ferry boat is laid up, was fastened to stakes on the north side of the Columbia opposite the city for safety last week, but the safety portion of the arrangement was not up to expectation, as the boat is now lodged in the ice near Crates point. She was carried away by a floe of ice on yesterday morning, and as both the Regulator and the steam ferry boat were on the ways undergoing repairs, there was no steam craft available to go to the rescue, she lodged in the pack. It is thought she may be saved by cutting the ice and getting her ashore, but the chances are against her. At present the only way of crossing the Columbia at The Dalles is by small boats.

THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

Uncle Sam's Hand Visible in the Support of the Institution.

CORVALLIS, Or., Jan. 24. [Special.]—People seem to be getting tired of the fog that has been hanging over our section for weeks. Business is quite dull, and laboring men find little to do. The predictions of a few dissatisfied taxpayers, that the work the city council had done on the streets would prove a curse to the town, have not yet come true. A man may walk for blocks along in the middle of Main street and never step in the mud. The O. A. C. is now in a more flourishing condition than it ever was. There are sixty-five more pupils now enrolled than there ever was at one time before. Probably some of your readers are laboring under the impression, that the citizens of our fair state have to bear all the expenses of this great institution. If so, I want to tell them that the state of Oregon bears only a small part of the expenses of the college. Uncle Sam gave Oregon 90,000 acres of land for the purpose of starting and maintaining an agricultural college. 50,000 acres of this land has been sold, and the money, $133,000, has been loaned at interest. For the same purpose the United States government appropriates $18,000 this year, which will be increased $1,000 each year until it reaches $25,000 per year. The government appropriates $15,000 per year for the purpose of maintaining an Agricultural Experiment station. But as the money appropriated by Uncle Sam cannot be used in the construction of buildings, the state has to look after them. The citizens about Corvallis went down in their pockets, built and gave to the state a fine three story brick college building. The state has since erected two dormitories, boarding halls, a two story mechanical building, of brick and has commenced a station building. The present legislature is asked to finish the last named building and thus give the chemist a chance to learn that Eastern Oregon soil is capable of producing something more than "bunchgrass and sagebrush." Also to furnish means for starting a good dairy, building a barn, furnishing much needed machinery for Mechanical hall; to put in a plant for more properly heating and ventilating the college building; to improve things about the greenhouse; and furnish apparatus for teaching electric engineering.

There are now 273 happy boys and pretty girls in the O. A. C., but there is always room for more. BUNCHGRASS.

THE DALLES MARKETS.

THURSDAY, Jan. 26.—Trade during the past week has been light and a general depression prevails in business circles. In conversation with one of our leading grocery dealers, we learn that there has been a steady falling off of trade all winter and the question was asked why it was so, and the reply was that there was a tight market and no money in circulation; also there was a disposition not to extend credits. However this may be, a general complaint is made of dull times and a limited trade in all branches. Former prices are maintained without any evidences of a change to take place soon. The produce market is undergoing a change in prices. Eggs are in better supply and are quoted down a couple of cents, 28 cents cash and 30 cents per dozen in trade. Butter is a little easier on the market, but there has been no change in price from last week. Vegetables, that is to say turnips, beets, parsnips and carrots, are growing scarce, owing to the frosty weather, and the market is stiffening in accordance with non-arrival of that class. Cullery, cauliflower and cabbage are in fair supply. Potatoes are firmer and prices have advanced somewhat, they are quoted at $1.25 to $1.35 per sack of 100 lbs. according to quality. The receipts of fruit and poultry have been light for the week and prices are firm. In provisions, meats such as hams, and hog products that are cured, are a shade dearer and firm at that. Fresh meats are firm and steady on an unchanged market. The wheat market abroad and on the coast offers no encouragement to holders at present. Prices are fluctuating daily and are truly of an intermittent character. Portland's market is easier, and holders are firm in the face of it, anticipating an advance at an early day. Its quotations are $1.20 to $1.22 1/2 per cental for valley and $1.16 to $1.12 1/2 per cental for Eastern Oregon. Our own market is steady in wheat, oats and barley quotations, and is in good supply.

Raley Bill Defeated

SALEM, Jan. 25.—In the senate this afternoon Mr. Raley's bill for the dalles Portage came up at 2 o'clock, having been made the special order of business for that hour. The bill was defeated by a vote of 17 to 11. Senator Raley, in behalf of the bill, earnestly portrayed the needs of the Inland Empire. Cogswell, of Lake county, who had been selected to lead the opposition, "only smiled good humoredly." Veatch explained that his constituents did not approve of the measure. The vote at the slaughter stands: Yes—Blackman, Denny, Hirsch, Matlock, McAllister, Raley, Smith, Steiwer Willis, Woodard. Mr. President—11. Nays—Alley, Bancroft, Beckley, Butler, Cameron, Cogswell, Croson, Cross, Dodson, Gates, Hays, Huston, Looney, Maxwell, Myers, Vandenberg, Veatch, 17. Absent—McGinn, Weatherford.

The names of those upon whom the doubtful honors of this defeat rests will be found in italics in the above record. Paste it in your hat. Pete Gates is evidently opposed to the improvement of the Yamhill river. He still lives at Lafayette. Dodson is a resident of Baker city, strange as it may appear.

Time Extends to All.

Senator Dolph's own words should settle the matter as to the full and final terms of the extension of time which settlers have to complete entries on forfeited railway lands. In answer to Mr. Sherman, who asked the question: "When does the time expire?" Mr. Dolph had the resolution read again, then said: "The amendment extends the time for a portion of the settlers on the land from September next until the first of January, and for others from February next to the first of January, in either case a part of the year. The object is to give the settlers the advantage of another crop to save their land."

Senator White offered an amendment to limit the action of the bill to the state of Oregon. To this Mr. Dolph consented, and it passed. The same identical measure passed the house, two days afterwards.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a bilious look, if your stomach be disordered you have a dyspeptic look, and if your kidneys be affected you have a pinched look. Secure your health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative and tonic acts directly on these vital organs. Cures pimples, blotches, boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at Snipes & Kinerly's drugstore, 50c per bottle.
