He Reckoned He Would Run.

One of the most interesting characters in American history is General Zachary Taylor, "Old Rough and Ready," hero of Buena Vista, father-in-law of Jefferson Davis and twelfth president of the United States. We all recollect how Daniel Webster sneered at him, before he was nominated, as a "backwoods colonel," and refused to let his friends put him on the ticket for vice president with Taylor for first place, thereby missing his last and, as the sequel showed, best chance of becoming president. Millard Fillmore, of New York, took the despised second place and thereby had nearly three years in the White House.

General Sherman used to tell an amusing little story of Taylor anent his nomination for the presidency. At that time General Taylor was stationed at New Orleans. He was a Kentuckian and the Kentuckians were very properly proud of him. One day shortly before the convention met at Baltimore he was approached at New Orleans by an old Kentucky friend, who said:

"General, we want you to run for president."

"Who wants me to run?" asked General Taylor seriously.

"Why, we do—all your old neighbors."

"Well, then, if that's the case," replied the old hero, without changing the expression of his face, "I reckon I'll have to run."—Detroit Free Press.

Bees Carry Toilet Cases.

The tongue of the hive bee is a most elaborate structure, admirably fitted for helping to pump up nectar. The wax producing organs of the bee are certain glands on the underside of the abdomen which are surmounted by thin plates, on which the wax is deposited in flakes like miniature fish scales. It is taken from these plates by a pair of shears or cutters, admirably adapted for the purpose and formed between two joints of the hind legs.

It is passed to the mouth, where it is chewed and rendered plastic by the jaws. The hind legs have many beautiful structures and modifications fitted for gathering pollen and cleansing the bee, while on the front legs there is a regular comb and brush, admirably adapted for cleaning the attennæ or feelers, which are very delicate and important sense organs.—Boston Transcript.

The Quickest Way to Cure a Cold.

Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. The first symptoms of a cold is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by watery expectoration and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double does every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in many cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Electricity in a Grist Mill.

The announcement comes from St. Paul that electricity is to be tried as the motive power in a large flour mill to be erected in that city, and, though its introduction by a concern may not revolutionize the business as is predicted, or at any rate very soon, it cannot fail to be an important innovation if it proves a success. A practical miller of thirty years' experience is said to be behind the scheme for its employment, declaring after thirteen months of experimenting with the electric current, that he is thoroughly convinced of its cheapness and its practicability.—Providence Journal.

Master Johnny Takes a Wife.

At Ohoopee Sunday, Master Johnny Bazemore, aged fourteen years, and Miss Emma Lynn, aged thirteen years, were united in marriage at the residence of one of the bride's relatives. They are of good families and are thought well of by all who know them. They live with the father of the bride. Cor. Atlanta Constitution.

The imperial Russian ukase prohibiting the exportation of wheat from Russia has thrown 35,000 men out of employment in and near Odessa, and has driven a large amount of shipping from the Black sea.

The police of Cincinnati found a man a few days ago who had not been out of his bedroom for ten years. When asked why he had remained there so long he said it was because he wanted to.

"In the know" is fashionable slang that is later and somewhat more elegant if slang has degrees of elegance, or any at all, for that matter than "in the swim."

The dividends paid by the various mining companies last year were greatly in excess of those of the year before, and indicate increased labor in this industry

THE DALLES,
Wasco County, - - - Oregon,

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
