The Quickest Way to Cure a Cold.

Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. The first symptoms of a cold is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by watery expectorations and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double doses every hour.
That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in many cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

THE WYOMING WAR.

A Disgrace to the Criminal Records of the New State.

NOT EVEN FORMALITY OF A TRIAL.

Legal Proceedings Against the Invaders Finally Quashed.

HONEST CITIZENS PLEAD IN VAIN.

Cattle Barons of Texas and Colorado to Make Another Raid on the Country in the Spring.

Cheyenne, Feb. 4.—[Special.]—About ten days ago the Cheyenne district court witnessed a series of legal proceedings whereby the twenty-three cattlemen captured last April by United States troops got off without the formality of a trial. The cattlemen are not without friends in Wyoming, and the sheriff, after weeks of unavailing effort, was unable to secure the required number of satisfactory jurors. Saturday he came into court and announced that unless some one proffered $800 to cover the expense of securing more veniremen he must cease his efforts. The prosecuting attorney held a conference with prominent citizens and then made a motion to dismiss the trials. Then the cattlemen's attorneys objected, saying that their clients wanted a trial and acquittal. So, to meet the emergency, the jury box was filled from among the bystanders, while the indicted men were rapidly brought up in blocks of four and discharged.
This would never have occurred but for the prisoners should actually have appeared as the prosecutors. They were falsely charged by cattle barons from Texas and Colorado who invaded the country last spring to occupy it as a range for their own cattle to the exclusion by cattle men living there, and having homes there for years. It is to protect the good name of such citizens against such statements as the following, that the press is asked to publish the above. The telegraph report of proceedings ten days ago was in the interest of the cattle barons, and closed as follows: "As it is said that an acquittal would have been returned in any event, popular sentiment being strong in the cattlemen's favor, it is perhaps just as well that the public's time and money were wasted on the formalities of law. Whatever the men may have deserved, they got their decisions with celerity and very little cost in jury fees. But Wyoming would do well to lay in a new supply of citizens from which to replenish her juries. A culprit who escapes justice because there are not enough people in the community to furnish twelve impartial jurors cannot be expected to view the law with uniform respect."

Blaine's Biography.

Mrs. Blaine has requested publication of the following letter. "Public advertisements of many biographies of James G. Blaine, pretending to be authentic and authoritative, compel me to state that no biography or life and works of Mr. Blaine is authorized or approved by myself or by any member of Mr. Blaine's family; that no manuscript of Mr. Blaine or any private letters or papers of Mr.
Blaine or any material for a biography have been given out to any one. If in the future any 'authentic' or 'authorized' biography should be prepared by competent authors it will be authenticated and authorized by myself."

Cogswell's Flash in the Pan.

Heppner Gazette. The Cogswell stock bill should not pass. To divide the taxes on stock that go into another county, is fair, and such a bill would meet the approbation of stockmen. But to have to pay taxes, and an unjust license besides, for the privilege of herding on Uncle Sam's grass is out of reason.
There is a mean as well as two extremes to this question, and the Cogswell bill seems to court one of the last named.
The Gazette hasn't any use for Cogswell or his bill either. He is the tool of railroads, and fought the Raley postage measure to a finish. "Cogs, old boy," you may hear from Eastern Oregon yet.

A Timely Suggestion.

East Oregonian. If you know a senator or a representative who is lukewarm in his support of "an open river" write and gently inform him that he must awake to the occasion and assist in giving the people of Eastern Oregon greater freedom by opening the river. If he does not do so these people will remember him as an enemy in their hour of need.

Senator Wolcott, who is disgusted with the new Columbian postage stamps, should have used a moist sponge.

ABOUT TO SUCCUMB

The Telephone Monopoly on its Last Legs Seemingly.

PRINCIPAL PATENTS EXPIRING

State Laws Regulating Prices Not Contested in Courts.

TIME FOR OREGON TO FIX A LAW

In This Matter of Neglect. Our Law Makers Very Closely Resemble Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—[Special.]—The assembly in Salem ought to take the head of the procession now in a matter of grave importance to all people. The door is open for them to imitate Indiana on the subject of the telephone.
Among attorneys and men in congress who have for years followed the subjects through the courts and the patent office much is said about the anticipated breaking of the telephone monopoly by the early expiration of the principal patents under which it is now operating. The patents on the transmitter and receiver, and also that upon the general idea of transmitting sound by electricity, will expire within twelve months, when, it is stated, the telephone fief will be free to a half-dozen or more patents, and it is expected that tolls will rapidly decline in every state.
In this connection it is noted that congress which is generally so attentive to the interests of the citizens of the District of Columbia, especially when it comes to anything in the direction of home government has never attempted to check the exorbitant telephone rates which are charged in the capital of the nation. A very ordinary service here taxes patrons $100 each a year even where more than one is served by a single wire. In Indiana and several states the legislatures have fixed the maximum telephone charges at $3 a month for a service equal that furnished here, and the law has withstood the tests of the courts, while the service has not deteriorated. In Washington, which is the ward of the economists of congress, the tendency of telephone rates has been constantly upward.
