What Is "Trotty?" I ask for information. I have been reading lately a very clever novel about English artist life and English smart society. Twice over in the story a smart young woman is made to describe certain articles of costume in a bride's trousseau as "quite too awfully trotty for words." I have never to my knowiedge heard the phrase "trotty" used in that sense. Is it an epithet of London amart society? If so, what is its sup-posed derivation? Is it imported from America, as most of our slang phrases lately are? Any information on this point kindly supplied will be rewarded with the best thanks of this writer, who feels a considerable interest in slang

A Four-Yea r-Old Philosophe Among the many anecdotes relating to the late Rev. Thomas Hill, D. D., is one told by himself. Dr. Hill and his wife awoke quite early one morning and regarded with interest a crib which contained a precocious child of less than four years. Presently the child turned her face up to the ceiling and soliloquized: "Oh, how much easier it is for a person to think than to act. Now. with a dog it is right the other way."-Boston Traveller.

"Why does that old gentleman carry up that loaf of bread every day?" on one occasion inquired the conductor. The value of the loaf of bread was probably not far from $50,000.—Lewiston Journal.

The Convict's Baby. Early yesterday morning a knock was heard at the big door of the Fulton county jail. Jailer Miller opened the door and a ragged man came in. There was a haggard look on the fellow's face. It was Jim Wesson, the moonshiner, who escaped from the Fulton county jail a week ago to go home to see his sick baby. "I'm sorry, Mr. Miller," he said in a broken voice. "I hope you and Cap'n Morrow don't care, but I heard the baby"- He stopped a moment until his lip quit quivering so, and went on: "I heard the baby was sick, and I thought about wife watchin of it at home, and I just had to go. I was sorry, an I wrote you I'd come back. Au I done it. They done buried the baby, an I come back, an I hope you ain't mad."

Captain Miller did not—could not utter a word of reproach. "I'm glad you have come back, Jim," he said.-Atlanta Constitution.

DALLES. THE

Wasco County, The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles. The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cas-cades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year. ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
