NOTICE.
All Dalles City warrants registered prior to May 1, 1891, will be paid if presented at my office. Interest ceases from and after this date. Notice is hereby given that said city council is about to proceed to order and construct a sewer of eight inch terra cotta pipe through block 9 in Laughlin's addition to Dalles city, beginning at the center of Jefferson street opposite the east end of the alley through the center of said block and thence westerly following the center of said alley and continuing to intersect the sewer in Laughlin street, and that the cost of such sewer will be assessed against the property directly benefited thereby as by the charter provided. Dated this 7th day of January, 1893.

The Quickest Way to Cure a Cold.
Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. The first symptoms of a cold is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. This cough is soon followed by watery ex-pectoration and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double doses every hour.
That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in many cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced

THE VILLARD HAND.

If he is Not in it Himself He Proposes to Know Who The Man is.

WHY MORRISON HAS BEEN LEFT OUT

A Very Shallow Court Story Circulated About Senator Dolph.

FURTHER CHATS ABOUT CLARKSON.

Mount Rainier to be Finally Sacrificed Where is Allen and His Seattle Chums?

A Washington special says the probabilities are that William R. Morrison will be bowed out of the coming cabinet by Henry Villard. Morrison told a friend that he had hoped to have been secretary of the interior, but that Villard was working against him because he felt that the land questions coming before the interior department, in which the Northern Pacific was concerned, would be decided inimical to that road.
Morrison says there is no doubt that Villard is trying to control the interior department.

Some of the Eastern papers are declaring that the reason why Senator Dolph condemned the action of the president, in appointing Judge Jackson, was because he himself wanted the place.
This story is almost too absurd to deny.
The senator recognizes that the appointments on the supreme bench are almost invariably made from the circuits where the vacancies occur. He may have had hopes that could succeed Justice Field, as he comes from the ninth circuit, but he never expected that a Pacific coast man would be thought of in connection with the Southern circuit.

There has been a great deal of talk occasioned in Washington by the vicious attack on President Harrison by James S. Clarkson. The latter says the defeat last fall was due solely to the personal opposition to Harrison, his appointments, his manner of treating leading republicans and the general chilly manner he had for everybody. Harrison's cabinet appointments are severely condemned and the whole tenor of the interview is to make it appear that the president and he alone is responsible for the disaster. Clarkson has always been bitter against the president since he was refused a place in the cabinet.

Representatives Wilson and Doolittle, with Senator Squire, have agreed upon a name for the reservation around Mount Rainier, which will probably settle the Rainier-Tacoma difficulty.
The reservation will be called the Cascade Forestry reserve. The proclamation is all ready to be issued so soon as the secretary is informed that the delegation has agreed on a name.

Senator Dolph hopes that his Siletz Indian bill, has passed the senate, may get through the house, although such bills are often defeated in that body.

NOW FOR A BIG THAW.

The Backbone of Winter Has Been Broken.

Raining in Seattle; raining in Jacksonville. "Fair weather, with fresh south winds and a nearly stationary temperature," was the cheerful prognostication sent out by the weather bureau at 8 o'clock Sunday night. It referred to Portland alone. In Oregon generally there will be fair weather. Slight changes of temperature will be felt in the northern and eastern sections, and the mercury will rise in the southwestern portion. Brisk westerly winds will prevail. The same conditions are predicted for Washington, with the exception that a smart westerly breeze is scheduled for the western section, and a southern zephyr for the eastern part of the state.

A rising barometer throughout two states was the basis of the forecast.
Rain fell in some places, and with the change came a rise in the mercury. It was lowest at Walla Walla, where reliable thermometers registered 14 degrees above zero, and highest at Portland, where it indicated 24 degrees above.

The storm was central in northwestern Washington yesterday, and moving in a northeasterly direction. The weather observer said there was a high area of barometric pressure in the storm's wake. Snow fell at Portland, Roseburg and Port Angeles. At Roseburg it melted quickly. Portland enjoyed a southwest wind, which attained a velocity of 24 miles an hour during the morning, but in the afternoon and evening it veered around to the south and settled down to 15 miles. There were heavy winds off the coast of Oregon and Washington.

THE FIREMEN'S BALL.
A Jolly Good Time With All—and Boreas Defied.

Armory hall was never more jovially filled than last night, the occasion being the annual ball of Jackson Engine company, which eclipsed all former attempts of The Dalles fire department to enter to the wishes of the mass of its friends.
Armory hall is the largest assembly room we have in The Dalles, and is capable of seating 1,000 people comfortably, but there were many more than that number present last evening to enjoy the masquerade ball of the firemen.

The department had arranged prizes for the best sustained characters, ladies and gents, and a committee was appointed from the guests as follows to make the awards: Messrs. H. J. Maier, R. E. Williams, D. C. Ireland, Mrs.
Chas. Hilton, Mrs. J. T. Peters and Mrs. S. Klein. The committee had very arduous duties to perform. The floor was filled with masqueraders in various costumes, and where all did so well "invidious comparison became odious;" but they must award four prizes between seventy-six consecutive contestants. How to do it and avoid censure was the immortal question.
However, they met, consulted, and finally took chances by deciding that the first prize be awarded to the "Highland Lassie," which proved to be Miss Mande Mowery. The second lady was Miss Lizzie Ulrich, who represented Pocahontas.

The "first gentleman" had to be decided between four celebrities: John Hampshire, Fletcher Faulkner, Ed Williams and Malcolm Jameson. Jameson walked away with the laurels by drawing the longest straw. Young Ulrich, who carried the hod, walked away with prize No. 2. The prizes were awarded, and the committee is justly deserving of commendation. "If you don't believe it put yourself in dare places."

It was almost impossible to get a correct list of the participants, but through the indefatigable perseverance of Mr.
W. E. Garretson we are able to state that Julius Ulrich represented the hod carrier perfectly; Emma Jacobsen was the fisherman's daughter, within one of the prize; Simple Simon was W. Roth, and he got a vote of thanks for his perfect felicity. Ben Ulrich was a superb barber, but he lacked a shop. President Harrison, represented by Charlie Frazier, got away with him on that score. Miss Ulrich sustained the character of Pocahontas admirably, but the Scotch Lassie took all eyes, and as such Miss Mowery took the first prize. It would be impossible to enumerate all the possible first prize characters present. The committee regret very much that sex prevented awarding a "special" by the electrical effort of Mr. Harry Lonsdale, whose character would be difficult to describe. Miss Smith as a Japanese warrior, is worthy of special mention. Wenda Skibbe, in her charming costume of a gypsy, was up to the idea in perfection, and if any one "wished a fortune" told, Wenda was there to tell it. Mrs. Dr. Snedaker represented D. C. Herrin's gallery, and if your photo was not attached to her costume "it's your own fault."

We intended to give the name and costume of each one, but when we found the list in Mr. Sandrock's private memorandum, we had to give it up.

The Sherman Act.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—In the senate today Hill made a motion to take up the bill repealing the Sherman act. The motion was rejected by a vote of 42 to 23. Senators Dolph and Mitchell voted with the majority against taking up the bill. The yeas vote was made up of 12 democrats and 11 republicans, and the nays of 22 democrats, 17 republicans and three populists.

AN ISLAND DESTROYED

Inhabitants of Zante Panic Stricken by a Recent Earthquake.

POOR MORTALS LOST REASON.

One of The Modern Devastations of Athens Visited Upon Them.

SHIP'S SLOW TO FURNISH RELIEF.

The Worst Earthquake That People Have Experienced During the Present Century.

ATHENS, Feb. 6.—It is an undisputed fact that the earthquake during the past two or three days is the worst that has done damage on the island in modern times. The shocks experienced last night did enormous damage; in fact the whole island is devastated. To add to the terror of the inhabitants a most terrific thunderstorm prevailed at the time of the shocks. The people were panic-stricken, and so great was the fear inspired that many persons entirely lost their reason and now are hopelessly crazy. An unfortunate feature of the situation is the fact that last night's shocks destroyed the bread ovens in Zante, rendering it impossible for a greater portion of the inhabitants to procure the most necessary articles of food.

The minister of the interior has arrived at Zante and will do everything in his power to relieve the distress. King George will start for Zante on Saturday.
A British warship and three vessels belonging to the Greek navy arrived at the island today with supplies, tents, provisions and medicines.

FOURTEEN MILES OF FEAR.

A Ride Back-End Foremost Over a Strange Railroad Track by Night.

"Funny, isn't it, what daredevil acts railroad men will often do?" asked a little traveling man of a few friends as he dropped into one of the Grand Pacific rotunda chairs.

"Yes, something like trying to run two trains on the same track or trying to see whether the rails or a man's leg is the hardest," suggested a fellow drummer.

"No, I mean in the ordinary course of business. The other day I started for Washington and I had a premonition that the trip was not to be of the best, for on the way to the depot I purchased a pocket comb of a street vender, who gave me a quarter too much change.
We got as far as Auburn Junction and it was awful dark, when the station agent informed us that there was a wreck between us and Defiance, O.
Later he said there were two wrecks and that three men had been killed. The debris was piled so high upon the tracks that it would take the wreckers hours to clear them. I saw our conductor and engineer in close conversation.

"Suddenly the conductor said, 'Bill, there is nothing left us but to turn around' on the Wabash tracks to Defiance."

"But the Wabash has no operator here to give us orders," answered the engineer.

A Four-Year-Old Philosopher.
Among the many anecdotes relating to the late Rev. Thomas Hill, D. D., is one told by himself. Dr. Hill and his wife awoke quite early one morning and regarded with interest a crib which contained a precocious child of less than four years. Presently the child turned her face up to the ceiling and soliloquized: "Oh, how much easier it is for a person to think than to act. Now, with a dog it is right the other way."— Boston Traveller.

Not a Five Cent Loan.
While treasurer of the Maine Central Mr. Linscott always made his own bank deposits, taking the immense amounts in bills wrapped in a newspaper under his arm as he rode up town on a street car.

"Why does that old gentleman carry up that loaf of bread every day?" on one occasion inquired the conductor.

The value of the loaf of bread was probably not far from $50,000.—Lewis.
