The Quickest Way to Cure a Cold.

Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. The first symptoms of a cold is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by watery expectoration and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double dose every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in many cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Notice.
To all whom it may concern: By virtue of an order of the common council of Dalles City, made and entered on the 31st day of December, 1892. Notice is hereby given that said city council is about to proceed to order and construct a sewer of eight inch terra cotta pipe through block 9 in Laughlin's addition to Dalles city, beginning at the center of Jefferson street opposite the east end of the alley through the center of said block and thence westerly following the center of said alley and continuing to intersect the sewer in Laughlin street, and that the cost of such sewer will be assessed against the property directly benefited thereby as by the charter provided. Dated this 7th day of January, 1893.

McGRAW ON HIS EAR.

He Takes The Leadership for Allen Into His Own Hands.

WHAT DO YOU PROPOSE TO DO NOW?

Turner's Friends Propose to Combat an Open Enemy at Least.

HE IS THE LEAST CONCERNED.

He Had Done all he Could do Secretly for Allen. Now Let us See What he can Accomplish Openly.

OLYMPIA, Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Gov. McGraw boiled over today. He served a notice tonight upon Spokane and her friends that henceforth he will wage an open fight for Allen. He said it was a fight of King county against the state; that he was a King county man and proposed to stand by King county. "At 3 o'clock this afternoon," he said, "I took personal charge of Mr. Allen's campaign, and propose now to employ all my influence to break the deadlock and elect King county's man."

When ex-Governor McGraw had taken this stand he said: "It has been known all along that Governor McGraw has been secretly doing all in his power to bring about the election of Allen, despite the fact that he has repeatedly proclaimed throughout the state that the dignity of his office forbade his interfering in the contest. His open announcement of his intention to take control of the fight has not materially changed the situation."

Mr. Turner's friends much prefer to combat an open enemy, believing him less dangerous than a secret foe. His announcement of the war cry of King county against the state has become stale and will no longer arouse enthusiasm at Seattle. It has been worked for all it is worth. Friends of Judge Turner have only the friendliest feelings for the people of King county. They are only waging war upon the canal scheme and an unscrupulous ring which seeks to promote private grab at the expense of the rivers and harbors of Washington. This is what is meant by the cry of King county against the state. I am sorry to say that those republicans who had fondly hoped Governor McGraw would use no stepping stones of his dead self to higher things have suffered an early and violent awakening. He seems to be entirely incapable of comprehending that he is governor of the state of Washington. Mr. Turner was in no wise concerned by Mr. McGraw's declaration. Ten minutes after its receipt he joined a merry party of the wives of legislators and went out for a little supper at a restaurant.

Hale Has Been Found Guilty.
ELLENSBURGH, Wash., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—The jury in the Hale case, after being out from four till nearly nine last night, came in with a verdict of guilty. His attorneys immediately gave notice of a motion for a new trial. The verdict has been almost the sole theme of conversation here. The community seemed to be nearly equally divided between those who were surprised at the verdict and those who were not. Witnesses who were brought from Oregon to establish an alibi were most surprised, as they were very hopeful of his acquittal. Hale seemed less concerned than any one in the room, and when the verdict was announced there was not the least change visible in his countenance. The case of Tom A. Kinzie, another of the alleged robbers, was called this morning. A jury was procured soon after noon. There is the same counsel on both sides as in the Hale case, and the witnesses called for the prosecution were the same as at the same stage in Hale's trial. It is not believed this case will occupy more than three days, as only about ten witnesses will appear.

Heppner Gazette. Word was brought in town yesterday morning that T. L. Dorman's wife, who resides over in 8-Mile country, had died Saturday from pneumonia. Mrs. Dorman's illness was of short duration, and when the physician, Dr. Fox, was called, it was too late to do anything for her relief. Mr. and Mrs. Dorman had two daughters who were attending school at Heppner this winter, who did not know of their mother's serious illness until she was dead. The interment occurred yesterday at the Hardman cemetery.

At the Capital.

SALEM, Feb. 8.—In the house the following bills were acted upon today.

Campbell's pilotage bill, passed.

Merritt's bill defining a legal sack of flour to contain forty-nine pounds, passed.

Sheridan's charter bill, passed.

Mays—To protect timber and other property by fire, passed.

Geer—Relating to inclosures, passed.

Ford's precinct assessor bill was re-committed.

The governor will approve the tax bill, but it is said he will veto the Oregon National Guard appropriation of $45,000.

Alley's fish hatchery bill, passed.

Cross' bill changing the boundaries of Multnomah and Clackamas counties, passed.

Cross' bill incorporating Oregon City, passed.

Butler's bill incorporating Fall's City, passed.

Gates' bill for the protection of game and fish, passed.

Raley's bill appropriating $24,000 for Weston Normal school, passed.

Cross' bill incorporating the town of Aurora and Weatherford's bill incorporating the town of Waterloo, passed.

The governor has vetoed the world's fair bill, on the ground that it is unconstitutional and that the state has no right to use the people's money for such purpose.

Matlock's bill for a branch insane asylum in Eastern Oregon was read the second time and referred to the committee on ways and means.

Utson, to repeal the act establishing the board of railroad commissioners, failed to pass, 17 to 24.

A HOLLOW MOUNTAIN.

A Visit of Six Hours Through the Most Wonderful Cave.

RED CLIFF, Colo., Feb. 5.—Brush creek, in Eagle county, has come to the front lately with the discovery of a cave, whose extent will surpass anything yet discovered in the west, and in the United States, except Kentucky's wonder. Six hours of constant travel are necessary to view its grottoes, torrents, domes and mineral veins. Unfathomable depths still remain for future explorings and judging from their openings and the far away rushing of the torrent whose sound comes faintly to the ear, the mysteries unattempted will furnish multitudinous wonders, more gigantic rock halls and more exquisite grottoes. The passages and rooms cover several miles of ground, but are terraced and paralleled in such a manner that they are embraced in one mountain, whose surface does not indicate its empty bosom. Centuries of percolation from the lime surroundings have white-washed the place and in some of the rooms not a loose rock can be found for several hundred feet. The most vivid fancy could not create names for the numerous fantastic formations of clustering stalactites and dragoned cornices which cling or edge the arched roofs of the different chambers. The cave is on Brush creek, one and one-half miles from Pufford.

American Supplement.

Magnificently supplementing the English edition (complete in itself, of course) of the Britannica, especially treating American topics and living biography, we publish as follows:

American Supplement, edited by Howard Crosby, D.D., LL.D., and others, 5 volumes, 3,843 pages, and Index to entire work, 579 pages, the 5 vols. bound in 3 vols., cloth, price $6.00; half Russia, $7.50.

Sample of the Encyclopedia can be seen at the office of this paper, and you can save a little in trouble and cost by joining at once with the editor and some of your neighbors in ordering sets. Call and see it, anyway, which costs nothing.
