

To Our Friends and Patrons.

WE HAVE rather neglected our Advertising of late, not because we had nothing to sell; but we had nothing especially new to offer, and preferred to wait until we could say something of interest. We are, and have been for some time, busily engaged in placing our orders for Spring and Summer Goods and feel justified in announcing that we shall have the FINEST ASSORTMENT and the BEST GOODS in all our lines that has ever been seen in The Dalles. We have secured some genuine novelties in the Dry Goods Department, and the ladies will certainly consult their best interests by deferring their purchases until after their arrival, of which we shall give you due notice. Keep both eyes on this space and we will certainly surprise you, not only with the goods, but the prices at which we shall sell them. We mean business and propose to have your patronage, if LOW PRICES and the BEST GOODS will accomplish it. Yours Respectfully,

FEBRUARY FANCIES.

Crispy Sayings and Doings of Local and General Import.

It costs about $105,000 per year to run the asylum at Salem.

St. Valentine's day. Today is also known in church circles as Shrove Tuesday.

Lumber arrived yesterday for the propelling wheel of the Regulator, which is to be enlarged.

FOUND—A roary. Owner can have same upon application at this office and paying for this notice.

Capt Johnson, of the Western Queen, says he will cross on the free bridge today for the last time, as it is getting too rotten to be safe.

The name of the queen of the Sandwich islands is best pronounced (lee-lew-illany) by any of our church pipe organs during a tender passage.

Bacteria may be transmitted through newspapers. Don't borrow of your neighbor, as it may be the death of yourself and family. Subscribe.

The ice is now rapidly going off the river, and the delayed chinook which arrived yesterday, fast faded the immaculate beauty of the snow on the ground.

The case of Jonathan Morrison vs. estate of Wm. McAtee on appeal from the circuit court of this county was affirmed by the supreme court yesterday.

The members of Harmon lodge, I. O. G. T., wish to tender their sincere thanks to all those who so kindly assisted in the entertainment last evening, Feb. 13th.

The Klickitat Leader, which came to our office yesterday, devoted one whole side to an illustrated picture of the snow in that locality. It didn't show the "scratch of a pen."

We are in receipt of a communication eulogizing the several great men who have lately departed, and greatly regret that our limited space precludes us from publishing it, which is quite lengthy.

Mr. H. Horn, in Thompson's addition, has dug his well ten feet deeper. It is now 48 feet deep. At that depth he struck a large volume of water which soon filled the well up ten feet, and has now plenty of water for irrigation. He has his place all set out in choice fruits and berries, and will soon have a place second to none around The Dalles.

Fire at Tygh Valley.

Frank Swift's house burned, with all its contents, at Tygh Valley last Thursday, while himself and family were attending a party. Cause, a defective flue.

Mr. A. Gehres of The Dalles Soda Works, will leave in the morning for San Francisco, Cal., where he will purchase additional apparatus for his Soda factory, of the latest improvement, and his customers can look for a superior article in his line on his return. GOOD TEMPLARS.

Their Entertainment Last Night at Fraternity Hall.

THE NEWLY-ELECTED OFFICERS

A Substantial as Well as Delectable Lunch Served by the Fair Entertainers.

Pursuant to invitation of the numerous host of Good Templars in this city, Fraternity hall was taxed to its full seating capacity last evening, the occasion being an entertainment for the friends of the Templars and well-wishers of the order. A programme of unusual excellence was presented, as follows:

PROGRAMME.

- Recitation—"The Dutchman's Serenade." Archie Barnett.
- Recitation—"Why I'm Working for Temperance." Gracie Willerton.
- Duet—"Give My Mother's Picture from the Sale." Misses Retta and Myrtle Stone.
- Recitation—"Prohibition Battle Call." Fannie Cheesman.
- Recitation—"The Roller Skates." Lillie Frazer.
- Recitation—"My Wandering Boy." Miss Jennie Russell.
- Solo—"The Orphan Boy." Mr. Harry Esping.
- Recitation—"Little Miss Tucket." Winnie Frazer.
- Duet—"Father is Drinking Again." Misses Retta and Myrtle Stone.

SUPPER.

Reading of the Lodge paper, the Temperance Advocate. Delbert Cheesman.

Duet—"The Pearly Gates." Misses Retta and Myrtle Stone.

Every number was well done and heartily applauded.

"The Dutchman's Serenade," by Archie Barnett was in costume and quite mirth-provoking.

The Misses Stone have much native musical talent and give promise, when older, of attaining a high order of merit.

Miss Jennie Russell's selection "The Wandering Boy," was well suited to that lady's versatile powers, and as usual, she delighted the audience.

The lodge paper contained the customary good supply of local bits and was attentively listened to.

A delectable lunch of sandwiches, coffee and cake was an agreeable diversion, and, served by the fair ladies of the order, elicited much favorable comment from the delighted guests.

The newly-elected officers are as follows:

- Mrs. Alice Frazer, W. V. T.
- Levi Christmas, W. P. C. T.

A DISCOVERY.

The Scale Apparently Killed by the Winter's Severity.

I. J. NORMAN'S TREES ARE FREE

The Native Climate for Them Warm—Not Known in the East.

I. J. Norman, who has made the scale an especial object of his attention for the past two years, was most agreeably surprised yesterday to observe his trees, which were badly covered with scale, of a dull brown color. A closer examination showed that it was the scale, and scraping them up on his thumb nail, noticed that they were quite lifeless and of a color strikingly different than the usual reddish-yellow.

Mr. Norman has about forty trees in his enclosure, and all efforts to permanently rid them of the scale were unavailing, though spraying would temporarily check them. They have got so thick that now even the pine trees are covered.

If the destruction has been general it will be the greatest boon that could happen to orchardists in this country. It is known that they are a native of a warmer climate, coming originally from Africa, and thriving in the semi-tropical region of California. In the east, however, where the winters are severe, they are not known, and the conclusion is pretty certain that they cannot survive the cold.

Dancing Party.

It was a gay party that went out to Mr. M. Cushing's commodious farm house, three miles from town, last night. The air was cool and bracing, and the sleighing delightful. The party enjoyed themselves till a late hour in music and dancing, and was pronounced by those present as one of the most successful parties of the season. Those in attendance were: J. H. Blakney and wife, W. H. Young and wife, Henry Teague and wife, Hugh Chrisman and wife, Fred Fisher and wife, Richard Brookhouse and wife, I. J. Norman and wife, Mrs. Klindt, Miss Mollie Klindt, Misses Phirman, Richer, Joles, Teague, Jim Smith, Al and Walter Klindt, Dr. Logan, Robt. Teague, Will Vanbibber, Will Norman, Chas. Corson, Chas. Stone, Bart Stone, Jas. Falmer, Geo. Byers and lady and several others from the country whose names could not be learned.

Ice Going Out.

It is reported that the ice has all moved out from below Memorial Island and is breaking up at that point and is fast clearing out. The whole body of ice is softening rapidly through the influence of the warm weather and from appearances the river will be freed from the blockade in a few days. At this city it begins to show that the channel is getting in its work of clearing.

CHRONICLE. ENCYCLOPEDIA.

Funeral of Mr. E. P. Roberts.

[By an unfortunate oversight, the following was omitted from our columns yesterday.—Ed.]

The funeral of Mr. E. P. Roberts occurred Sunday from the Congregational church. Despite the mass of snow upon the ground, the funeral was one of the largest ever held in The Dalles, many coming from ten miles out in the country to attend the last sad rites of a personage who has been a history-maker of Eastern Oregon. Rev. Curtis gave an epitome of Mr. Robert's life, fitly eulogizing the many virtues of the deceased, and was listened to with marked attention. The remains were interred in Sunset cemetery.

The Ladies Glee club will meet with Miss Jeanette Williams this evening.
