To Our Friends and Patrons.

WE HAVE rather neglected our Advertising of late, not because we had nothing to sell; but we had nothing especially new to offer, and preferred to wait until we could say something of interest. We are, and have been for some time, busily engaged in placing our orders for Spring and Summer Goods and feel justified in announcing that we shall have the FINEST ASSORTMENT and the BEST GOODS in all our lines that has ever been seen in The Dalles. We have secured some genuine novelties in the Dry Goods Department, and the ladies will certainly consult their best interests by deferring their purchases until after their arrival, of which we shall give you due notice. Keep both eyes on this space and we will certainly surprise you, not only with the goods, but the prices at which we shall sell them. We mean business and propose to have your patronage, if LOW PRICES and the BEST GOODS will accomplish it. Yours Respectfully,

PEASE & MAYS.

 "Go Ask Papa," she softly said
 When I implored that we should wed,
 Ah! human tongue can never tell
 How much I worshiped Isabel:—
 On hope of her my soul had fed.
 And tho' I'd hoped for "yes" instead,
 Her words did not inspire dread:
 I did not know my funeral knell
 Was "ask Papa."
 And when I found that he was dead,
 And learned the kind of life he led,
 I knew she meant—alas too well!
 What men would mean by "Go to H—!"
 When she smiled and softly said
 "Go ask Papa."

THOROUGHLY BAD.
W. F. Brown Arraigned in Portland on Numerous Charges.
 W. F. Brown, who made a record in The Dalles last year as a phenomenal liar, telling among other things, that Malcolm Moody had advanced large sums for free ferrage, to the extent that that gentleman was compelled to publicly announce that he was not subscribing a dollar for that purpose, is just now in trouble in Portland.
 Deputy Sinnott left Portland for Grants after Brown on the train that was blockaded at Latourelle, and was forced to remain in the blockade unable to proceed to Grants for several days. In the meantime Brown was located and watched to prevent his leaving. He made the attempt, but did not get farther than The Dalles, where he remained a day or so, and then returned to Grants to await the opening of the road. Before he started on his second attempt to leave, Deputy Sinnott had him in hand, and placed where he will not have any opportunity to appropriate the property of others.
 The proving of all the charges against Brown will show him to be an unconscionable rascal. He was taken to Portland from Grant's station, Sherman county, Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Sinnott to answer to a charge of embezzlement. In this complaint it was alleged that in 1890, while traveling for D. M. Osborn & Co., he rendered a false bill of expenses and fraudulently obtained $105 from the firm. He heard of a warrant being issued for his arrest and "skipped out." It was only last week that he was located at Grants, where he was buying wheat for Balfour, Guthrie & Co.
 But with this arrest Brown's troubles only begun. Yesterday George Good, one of the proprietors of the Perkins hotel, made a complaint charging Brown with obtaining money under false pretenses. He claims that Brown called at the house on the 30th of last month and, desiring to borrow $40, gave a check on The Dalles National bank and secured the money. When the check was sent on for payment, it was returned with the statement that Brown had no money in the bank. Charles F. Sliter had a similar experience with Brown, and is out $30 on account of cashing a fraudulent check. Brown was arraigned Monday on all three charges, and was to have had a hearing in the Portland courts yesterday.

D. S. Allison Expected to Arrive With Deputy Phirman.
CHARGED WITH POCKETING MONEY
 Belonging to W. H. Sharp, Realized From the Sale of 800 Bushels of Wheat.

This afternoon's train is expected to bring Deputy Sheriff Phirman with one D. S. Allison, for whom the grand jury have just found a true bill for swindling. Last fall Allison was entrusted by W. H. Sharp, of 5-Mile, to store in Moody's warehouse 800 bushels of wheat, awaiting further orders. Allison sold it immediately, realizing something like $400 and skipped with the booty to Kansas. In the meantime Mr. Sharp has been corresponding, learned of Allison's whereabouts, and procured a warrant for his arrest, with the result as stated in the opening paragraph.
 It has since been learned that Allison is an old criminal and that Silverstone, Murphy & Brody, a Portland firm, have a grievance against him. Those who knew Allison here were greatly surprised to learn that he was an old criminal, as he had no bad habits, and moved in the best society. It will doubtless be news to some, also, that he has a wife and children east, as he represented himself as a single man while here.

NARROW ESCAPE.
Gas Lauer and a Mail Carrier Precipitated into the Columbia.
 Gus Lauer and the Goldendale and Hartland mail carrier crossed the Columbia on the ice about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They provided themselves with a long board each, in case the ice should not hold them up, and to this precaution they owe their lives. There were a number watching them from the bank who knew the dangerous condition of the river and when about half way across they were seen to fall through. Lauer did not go in very deep, but the mail carrier went in up to his arm pits. As he did so the board came down flatwise, and to this he tenaciously hung, succeeding by the now useful plank in getting across. They were watched until they got to the opposite shore and lost to sight after gaining the top of the steep bank.

 The death of the 18-year-old daughter of A. C. Russell has created a profound sensation. Russell, the father, Ed. Russell, brother, and Mrs. Russell mother. All were held without bail.
