The Quickest Way to Cure a Cold.
Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. The first symptoms of a cold is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by watery expectation, and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double dose every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in many cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

A FEARFUL ACCIDENT
Four Persons Killed and a Number Injured.
CAUSED BY A RUNAWAY CAR
It Was a Dreadful Dash Down a Sharp Grade.
MOTORMAN LOST ALL CONTROL
The Worst Street Car Casualty that Has Ever Occurred in the Metropolis.
PORTLAND, Feb. 14.—A terrible accident occurred on the City & Suburban street railway line in Upper Albina about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, in which three persons were almost instantly killed, and a number of others seriously injured.
As car No. 46 was coming down the descent on McMillan street, the motorman lost control of the car, and it plunged with headlong speed down as far as Larabee street, when it left the track and went over on its left side with tremendous concussion.
The car was crowded almost to suffocation with about 45 passengers aboard, among whom were 20 young people who constituted the graduating class of the Williams-avenue grammar school. The car left the track at the turn corner of McMillan and Larabee street, and by the time that point was reached the momentum of the car was so great that on leaving the track it was simply dashed to pieces. In a twinkling the lives of two men and a child were crushed out, and 25 passengers, boys, girls and women, sustained injuries ranging from a mere scratch to broken limbs and internal injuries.
NAMES OF THE DEAD.
Those who were killed outright are: J. O. Dennis, a carpenter, aged 70 years.
Bertram Dennis, son of J. O. Dennis, aged 8 years.
One man, not yet identified, about 50 years of age, dressed as a laborer.
James Menefee, a painter, was probably fatally injured.
THE INJURED PEOPLE.
The names of the injured people are as follows:
Altha Brimigan, head badly cut.
Claude Scoffins, leg broken, and other injuries.
William Riggins, head badly cut.
James Finn, head cut.
Mrs. A. Davis, of Woodlawn, wrist broken and head badly cut.
Mrs. Carleton, leg broken and cut badly by broken glass.
Miss Sullivan, assistant principal of the Williams-avenue school, arm broken.
Miss Corey, serious bruises.
Mr. Ross, internal injuries and head cut badly; his son, fractured wrist.
Poor Old De Lesseps.
PARIS, Feb. 15.—Charles de Lesseps remained all day yesterday with his father Ferdinand at Leichesnaga. The aged De Lesseps recognized and embraced his son. He is still ignorant of the judgment that had doomed them both to imprisonment. Charles managed to restrain his tears and assumed a cheerful aspect in order that his father might not suspect the truth. Charles introduced the detectives, whose prisoner he was, as friends that had accompanied him from Paris, and Ferdinand received them in as much of his old debonaire fashion as his decrepit condition and weakened faculties would permit. They all chatted together, and when dinner time came Ferdinand invited the visitors to dine, a privilege of which they would have availed themselves whether invited or not. Ferdinand's mind still lingered on the possibilities of the Panama canal, and now and then he spoke optimistically about the revival of the enterprise and the eventual union under French auspices of the waters of the Atlantic and Pacific. Charles listened mutely to his father's utterances on the subject, the remarks being of an erratic character which indicated that the intellect of the veteran diplomatist and engineer had lost its ancient strength.

Back From Ellensburg.
Heppner Gazette.
Wes Marlatt, Pell Simison, Frank Hale and Chas Elder returned Friday from Ellensburg where they had been called as witnesses in the case, State of Washington vs. Tom Kimsey, charged with bank robbery. The jury hung in Tom's case, five standing for acquittal and seven for conviction. It is confidently expected that at his next trial he will be released. The boys bring word over that Hale has been given a new trial. Some startling developments are looked for soon, which will result in the immediate release of Hale and Kimsey, and the capture and conviction of the guilty parties. Had it not been for prejudice, Hale and Kimsey would have been released long ago.
Mr. Albert Favorite, of Arkansas City, Kan., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me with a hacking cough which I thought I never would get rid of. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some fourteen years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I got through with one bottle my cough had left me, and I have not suffered with a cough or cold since. I have recommended it to others, and all speak well of it." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

An Indian's Pack.
A squaw was observed this morning trying to pack about 200 pounds on her back—a sack of flour, one of sugar, and a heavy sack of some other commodity, to the onlookers unknown. She first arranged them so that, by stooping, they would recline on her back, then, to adjust the pack more firmly, she got down on all fours. In attempting to rise the first time she toppled over sideways, like a cart suddenly deprived of a wheel. The next time she exercised more care, and, succeeding in getting an upright position, walked bravely off.

Sledgehammer Lawmaking.
TOPEKA, Feb. 15.—A riot is imminent between the republicans and populists in the hall of the house of representatives. There seems no way to avoid a dangerous clash. When the republicans went to the hall this morning they found the doors barred by the populists. After a short consultation, the republicans resolved to force an entrance. Sledgehammers were brought into play against one of the side entrances, with such good effect that the doors were soon demolished and the republicans quickly filed into the hall. Had the populists been in session a conflict would surely have resulted, but fortunately the populist house adjourned yesterday till 1 o'clock this afternoon. As soon as the populists learned what had been done, Governor Lewelling was notified.
The governor promptly called out the militia and instructed them to proceed to the hall to eject the republicans from the floor and the soldiers started on their mission.
The republicans, learning of the governor's action, held a hurried consultation as to the course to pursue. No definite plan was decided on, but individual republicans are trying to induce the Santa Fe railroad to call out their shopmen to oppose the militia. The other industries known to be in sympathy with the republicans were asked to furnish men for the same purpose.
Mentime the populists were not idle. Company C. of the local militia, responded promptly to the call, having been notified by adjutant-General Artz last night to be in readiness. They marched to the capitol grounds and took up their position awaiting orders. Orders were also telegraphed to Holton and Marion for companies D and G, which are now reported on their way on a special car. In the hall of the house the republicans are making a show of doing business. Great enthusiasm and loud cheers were evoked by the presentation to Speaker Douglas of the sledgehammer with which an entrance was effected into the hall, and which Douglas subsequently used in place of the gavel to call the house to order. There were 24 assistant sergeants-at-arms in the house when the republicans forced their way in, but they did nothing to prevent it, except to warn the republicans that they were destroying state property, and would be held accountable for it.
When the republicans took possession of the house they ejected the populist sergeant-at-arms. They say they propose to hold possession, and sent out for dinner.
The governor has ordered out four companies of infantry and two batteries of artillery, and 75 men, chiefly farmers, have been taken to the arsenal, uniformed, armed and sent to the capitol grounds. An Oakland company also arrived and took a position on the grounds.
The republicans then mailed, barred and propped every door leading to the hall.
The populists decided to freeze the republicans out. The janitor shut off the steam from the hall. The populists also have undertaken to starve out the republicans. The men sent for lunch for them cannot get past the militia lines. The house, therefore, is in a state of siege. A militia company has been stationed near the arsenal with guards posted. Two cannon run out of the arsenal were loaded with shot, and everything looks decidedly warlike. The militia has full control of the situation, and every move of the populist house depends on the governor. Col. Hughes, of the Third regiment, a republican, has been relieved from duty because he refused to obey the adjutant-general.
Mr. C. F. Davis, editor of the Bloomfield, Iowa, Farmer, says: "I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all sufferers with colds and croup. I have used it in my family for the past two years and have found it the best I ever used for the purposes for which it was intended. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists."
Old papers, suitable for carpets or shelves, will be exchanged for clean rags at this office.
