JOHN W. MACKAY SHOT

The California Millionaire Wounded by a Crank.

THE BULLET LODGED IN HIS BACK

His Assailant Then Shot Himself-- Mackay Will Recover, But the Crank Will Die.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—John W. Mackay, the famous capitalist, was shot in the back, while standing in an alley in the rear of the Lick house, at 12:25 this afternoon. His assailant was an old man, whose identity is not yet disclosed. After shooting Mackay, he turned the weapon on himself. It is not thought that Mackay's wound is fatal.

Mackay's assailant was a white-haired man named Dunn, fully 70 years of age. Mackay was standing in the alley in the rear of the Lick house. Dunn fired point blank at Mackay, the bullet entering the latter's back. Dunn then turned the pistol to his own breast and fired, the ball passing just above the heart.

Dunn, it is now stated, had a grievance against Mackay, fancied or otherwise, dating back to mining days, and sought in this manner to kill him. He was removed to the receiving hospital, where it was stated he was dying at 1 o'clock.

The name of the man who shot John W. Mackay was given at the receiving hospital as W. C. Rippey.

The attempt on the life of Mackay was deliberate and premeditated. It was known that he usually appeared on the street in that vicinity soon after the noon hour when in San Francisco, and the old man was there awaiting him. After shooting himself, Rippey exclaimed: "My God, I am satisfied!" and fell on the paved court. When driven to the receiving hospital he was conscious, but could not articulate. From letters found on his person, it was shown that the crime was premeditated, and that he is demented.

He shot himself through the left breast. The bullet went clear through his body and there is no hope of his recovery. In his pocket was found a letter addressed to the Examiner. It was headed:

"FOOD FOR REFLECTION."
"Paid $150,000 for one sapphire to place on the jaded person of his wife, a sum sufficient to have saved at least 500 of his paupers from a suicidal grave. Just think of it. Inscribe it on his tomb."
W. C. RIPPEY"

Wanamaker's Losses.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 24.—John Wanamaker's reported loss of $2,000,000 with the Reading collapse caused a considerable amount of gossip and discussion in this town today. It was known that he held a large block of Reading stock. Mr. Wanamaker himself has declared that all the Reading stock he ever owned is in his strong box today, but it can be said on the best authority that this is not true. Mr. Wanamaker's skirts are clear of the Reading collapse. His stock has been sold and his actual cash loss is inconsiderable. A year ago he purchased at a very favorable price a large block of stock, perhaps 30,000 shares. He held it, and when the coal trust was formed and the money was being wrung from the pockets of the people by the successive advances in the price of coal the superintendent of the Bethany Sunday school saw his Reading holdings rapidly appreciating in value. Every additional 25 cents in the price of a ton of coal made him so much richer. But last December the conviction forced itself on Mr. Wanamaker that President McLeod was trying to make too big a deal on too small a capital. He came here from Washington and consulted with his brokers. McLeod made a personal argument in which he showed that unless hard luck overtook him from two or three sources at once the Reading scheme was bound to go through. Mr. Wanamaker was led to believe that things were coming out all right, and that the stock was going higher, instead of lower. He decided not to close out, and returned to Washington with his Reading securities still in his strong box. Last Saturday Mr. Wanamaker came to Philadelphia in a great hurry. He was not to be deceived about Reading any more. He saw disaster had come upon the ambitious coal monopolists, and in a very quiet way unloaded every share of his Reading stock. Whether he lost or not is not definitely known. He bought when shares were way down, and he closed before the terrific slump that carried many men almost to ruin. It can be said positively that Mr. Wanamaker's loss, if there is any at all, is not over $100,000. Many well-informed financiers here believe that he came out even. One fact, however, is admitted—that had Wanamaker followed his first impulse last December and closed out then, his profits on the Reading investment would have been an even $800,000.

State Appointments.

PORTLAND, Or., Feb. 24.—Governor Pennoyer has appointed Hon. Hartwell Hurlay and M. G. Munley as judges of the newly created circuit courts for this county. In so doing it is generally conceded that his excellency "broke the slate" again, yet the members of the bar of this city give expressions of perfect satisfaction with the selections.

Sarah Althea a Raving Maniac.

STOCKTON, Cal., Feb. 24.—Superintendent Clark, of the state insane asylum, has permitted a newspaper man to see Sarah Althea Terry in the madhouse. He found her a raving maniac and subject to the restraint necessary in such a case, but otherwise kindly treated.

A Mean Youth.

SALEM, Feb. 25.—In the circuit court today George H. Newcome was sentenced to prison for six years for burning his brother's granary. John H. Shive was given three years for forgery.

Mr. Albert Favorite, of Arkansas City, Kan., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me with a hacking cough which I thought I never would get rid of. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some fourteen years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I got through with one bottle my cough had left me, and I have not suffered with a cough or cold since. I have recommended it to others, and all speak well of it." 50-cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

Senator Dolph is still quite ill, and it is doubtful if he will be able to participate in legislative work during the present session.

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good; but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

Mr. C. F. Davis, editor of the Bloomfield, Iowa, Farmer, says: "I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all sufferers with colds and croup. I have used it in my family for the past two years and have found it the best I ever used for the purposes for which it was intended. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists."
