The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

Entered at the Postoffice at The Dalles, Oregon, as second-class matter.

Weather Forecast.

Official forecast for twenty-four hours ending at 5 p. m. tomorrow

Monday and Tuesday rain or snow slightly cooler.

MONDAY, FEB. 27, 1893

FEBRUARY FANCIES.

Crispy Sayings and Doings of Local and General Import.

If an S and an I and an O and a U, With an X at the end spells "SU," And an E and a Y and an E spell "I," Pray what is the speller to do?

Demorest contest tomorrow night.

Salem has a paid fire department.

Merchants are receiving their spring stock of goods.

Of 700 bills introduced in the last legislature 203 passed.

See those beautiful samples of photos.

Eggs are rapidly declining in price.

A snow storm of considerable severity is reported between Pendleton and Arlington.

A lot of Bob White quails have been brought from the east and turned loose in Yamhill county.

"Good morning, have you taken a bath?" will be the proper salutation the coming summer.

We learn that gardening has commenced by some, although the ground is too wet in most places.

Saltmarshes shipped two carloads, one of sheep and one of cattle, to Chas. Butler, Port Townsend, yesterday.

According to the provisions of Senator Weatherford's school bill, The Dalles may now be entitled to a high school.

This morning's passenger train arrived about 8 o'clock. The train was delayed in the Blue mountains by snow.

We originate, others imitate; we lead, others follow; our ads. are original; no chestnuts around Herria, gallery over the postoffice.

Mr. W. H. VanBiber, the veteran milkman, living three miles from town, has not missed a trip to town (Sundays included) for over twenty-five years.

Crinolines are coming. A dressmaker in The Dalles announces that she will make up a lot of them at once. The press is mighty, but is powerless to prevent earthquakes or fashions.

The Columbian half dollar, which can only be purchased for one dollar, is being extensively counterfeited. Fifty cents worth of silver can be placed in the coin, yet leave a larger profit than was possible in any other counterfeit.

All quiet at the recorder's office today. A sheep herder, who had imbibed too freely of the ardent, was put in the cooler last night, but no charge was made against him. His face had been decorated with colored inks by some practical joker, so that it resembled a crazy quilt.

A party from Tennessee, consisting of O. E. Campbell, R. F. Campbell, Philip Looney, M. Pearson, H. Looney and Hugh Looney, arrived yesterday, and proceeded in a four-horse rig this morning to Cherry creek, in the neighborhood of Burnt ranch. They propose to engage extensively in the sheep business.

I. I. Burget has finished the census enumeration of school children. His report shows the present number to be 914 as against 865 last year, an increase of 49, or about 5 1/2 per cent.

Senator Dodson will very likely become a back number in Baker county politics. His vote against the portage railroad bill was against the interest of his constituency, and was too plain a case.—La Grande Chronicle.

A Pomona man had a house for sale for three years at $1,800, and never had so much as a nibble at the property. He constructed a lawn about the house, and did some painting, at a total expense of $31. The place looked so much improved that the effect was magical. He sold the house ten days ago for $2,050. He says that little lawn added the extra price to the property.

The Medal Contest.

Another Demorest medal contest takes place tomorrow night at the court house. These entertainments are of a high class and are awakening widespread interest all over the country. They should receive substantial encouragement, as they are proving to be a great educator and the end in view is purely charitable. The receipts will be used for the benefit of the free reading room of The Dalles, an institution which lessens dissipation and crime by removing in a measure temptation, substituting for cards and drink healthful literature. The programme will be published tomorrow.

Remarkable, Indeed.

We published recently the remarkable literary announcement of an edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica, for $20.00, the genuine, illustrated, large type, cloth bound work. A sample volume can now be seen at this office; it is certainly the most astonishing bargain ever offered in the book world. We propose to order a set, and if any of our friends want to join us they can do so, and save a little in trouble and expense. See the advertisement elsewhere and come in and see the book. There is an installment plan for securing the work on payment of only five cents a day, or $1.00 every twenty days.

Book Party.

On Saturday evening Miss Irene Adams entertained her immediate friends and relatives at her home with a delightful book party. Some of the representations were very unique, for instance, The Black Beauty, Adam Bede, Very Hard Cash, My Novel, Dante, Twice Told Tales, Catalogue, Bread and Cheese, and Kisses. A prize for the one guessing the most books, a dainty piece of decorated china, was won by Mrs. W. Lord, after which a delicious lunch was served. Every one agreed that such an enjoyable evening would not occur twice in a life time.

Guaranteed Cure.

We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a cough, cold or any lung, throat or chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at Snipes and Kinnersly's drug store. Large size 50c and $1.00.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Grant Mays, of Antelope, arrived yesterday.

Ray Logan returned to Portland this morning.

Miss Grace Riddell left for Portland yesterday.

T. T. Driver, of Wamic, is in town for a few days.

Truman Butler, pursuer of the Regulator, is reported quite ill.

W. C. Alloway went to Pendleton Saturday night and returned today.

Mr. James Parrish is very ill with pneumonia, at his residence in Thompson's addition.

A. S. Macallister is expected to arrive from his ranch, where he has been wintering with his family.

Miss Cassie Wiley returned last night to Monmouth, where she will resume her duties in the school there.

V. C. Brock, cashier of the Sherman county bank, and wife arrived in The Dalles Saturday, returning today.

J. C. Garland, J. B. Carrant, Linus Darland and M. A. Darland, prominent citizens of Goldendale, were in the city today.

Mr. A. G. Johnston who has been attending the legislature at Salem, returned to his home in this city Saturday on the 1:05 passenger.

Mr. Saltman of Burnt Ranch, is in town. Stock doing well in that vicinity. Eight thousand head of sheep were fed at his place this winter, the loss only amounting to some twenty or twenty-five.

Dr. Doane returned from a trip to Wasco Saturday. He learned on inquiry that the prospect for grain this year is first-class, the apprehensions of the farmers as to its being hurt during the winter proving needless. The roads are dusty, on account of the recent chinooks.

The Asylum.

THE DALLES, Or., Feb. 27, 1893.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:

On the 23d inst. you referred to Mr. Irvine's place on Chenoweth creek as being the proper place to locate the insane asylum for Eastern Oregon. Having seen most of Eastern Oregon, I certainly agree with you as to its being just the place to locate it, and so will every one else that is well acquainted with Oregon east of the Cascade mountains; and as for a healthful climate, convenience, pure water and location, there certainly is no place in the district with all these advantages. Then why should we not take steps at once to secure the location of the asylum at this place? As this matter is of great importance, I would like to have the expression of the people at large, and as soon as possible take the necessary steps to complete arrangements for its construction. Come, set your shoulder to the wheel and give us a lift.

EASTERN OREGON.

A Cat Ranch.

Cats are in demand in Willowa county. A Prairie creek farmer went to Joseph the other day and gathered up every cat he could find in the town, irrespective of age, color, sex or general nativity. He explained to the wondering spectators of his collection that the squirrels are beginning to appear, and that a herd of cats on a ranch is a better investment than poison in the determined war that has to be made on Willowa county's pests. What a pity it is, after all, that Jim Wardner didn't establish that cat ranch over on Puget Sound!

Sank in a Quicksand.

A French coastguardman named Mainville met his death in a remarkable manner on the Mediterranean coast, near the mouth of Ande. He was going his rounds with a comrade when the latter, who was a few steps behind, saw Mainville sink suddenly into some quicksands. He went down so rapidly that he was unable to seize a stick held out to him, and in a few minutes had disappeared completely from sight.

The other man ran for assistance, but it was found impossible to find even the man's body, as the sea, which was very rough, was throwing up sand in large quantities on the spot.—St. James' Gazette.

A Battlefield Relic.

A valuable battlefield relic was recently found near the city. It is an eighteen carat gold case watch, manufactured by the Tobias Watch company, Liverpool, the case being No. 3,988. It was plowed up one day last week by Mr. Davis on the old breastworks in Cobb's district, Cobb county. The case is heavy and comparatively unimpaired but the rust has completely eaten the hinges up. The covers were both found, but were separated from the case. It is heavily jeweled and was no doubt a very fine watch. The owner is supposed to have been killed.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Poor They Have Not with Them.

At the union religious meeting at Vanlue Thanksgiving day a collection was taken for the relief of the poor and needy. This money was placed in the hands of a committee of ladies, and now they come forward and report that they can find neither poor nor needy in the village or vicinity, and don't know what to do with the funds.—Cor. Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Curious Orange Tree.

H. H. McClure has produced a curiosity in the shape of an orange tree, which in all probability is not exceeded by anything of its kind in this or any other country. Mr. McClure calls it his "World's Fair Tree," and it bears, if possible, to place it on exhibition at Chicago. The tree is budded with no less than thirty-one different varieties of citrus fruits, including lemons, shadocks and most of the fine varieties of oranges. The buds on the tree are only two years old, yet many of them are fruiting.—Apopka (Fla.) Advertiser.

To win a bet of $1,000, Baron Paul de Side, a young French nobleman, shipped as a common sailor on the Red Star steamer Noordland during her last trip from Antwerp to New York. He says he wouldn't try it again for ten times the sun, as he was very severely worked during the voyage.

Horace Wilkins' Luck.

A pile of lumber fell over on Horace Wilkins of Lashon Mills on Friday, and his fellow workmen thought he was killed, but he was extricated alive and unhurt, though unconscious. His first words on recovering consciousness were, "It's lucky for me that wasn't hard wood."—New York World.

A Large Calla Lily.

Mrs. William Kelley, of Dyer Brook, has a calla lily two years old which is six feet high, with stalks eleven inches in circumference where they leave the earth. If it isn't the largest in Arrostook county, then its owner doesn't know it.—Bangor (Me.) Commercial.

The Chinese generally in this and other cities do not regard the exhibition of their idols in museums with favor, and are annoyed at such a display of the representations of their deities.

A medical man says: "Be careful in your dealings with horseradish. It irritates the stomach far more than spice, and an overdose will bring on an unpleasant sensation for days."

An Estray Bay Mare.

Came to my place last fall a bay mare about five years old, with small white spot on right side, also white spot on left hip, star in the forehead, with some dun brand on left shoulder, weight about eight hundred pounds. Owner can have the same by proving property and paying costs. V. J. KELLY, 16-Mile creek.

There's a good deal of guarantee business in the store keeping of today. It's too excessive. Or too reluctant. Half the time it means nothing. Words—only words.

This offer to refund the money, or to pay a reward, is made under the hope that you won't want your money back, and that you won't claim the reward. Of course.

So, whoever is honest in making it, and works—not on his own reputation alone, but through the local dealer, whom you know, must have something he has faith in back of the guarantee. The business wouldn't stand a year without it.

What is lacking is confidence. Back of that, what is lacking is that clear honesty which is above the "average practice."

Dr. Pierce's medicines are guaranteed to accomplish what they are intended to do, and their makers give the money back if the result isn't apparent.

Doesn't it strike you that a medicine which the makers have so much confidence in, is the medicine for you.

Natural Process for Milling Gold.

A new process of free-milling gold works is in course of construction on the Lake of the Woods, in the province of Ontario. The mill and experimental adjuncts have cost $35,000. It is designed to treat ores by the same method that nature does, only it will perform in 24 hours' work what nature requires ages to accomplish. The parties interested positively refuse to discuss this method in print, pending the practical operation of the mill, which will be commenced in a few days, but Mr. Cowles ventures the opinion that it will revolutionize milling and unlock the gold in the refractory ores of America, thus completely solving the greatest problem that has ever engrossed the attention of miners and the general public. The results of practical experiments will be awaited with deep interest.
