TWO TRAINS COLLIDE

An Infant Child Killed and Several People Hurt.

THE BRAKEMAN WAS TOO LATE

Twenty People Injured in a Wreck Near Little Rock, on the Iron Mountain Ry.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 1.—The midnight train from New York on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railway collided with the Stonington boat train at Norwood at 5:20 this morning, killing one child and injuring half a dozen passengers. The dead child was nine months old, a son of Andrew Vanich. The injured are: H. M. Salisbury, New York, hand crushed; Miss Hattie Jenkins, Everett, Mass., injured internally; E. Jolly, New York, cut and bruised about the head; B. Meyers, Providence, injured internally; and Andrew Vanich and wife, cut about the face and head. The boat train leaves Stonington at 3 o'clock, and is due in this city at 4:30. Just before reaching Pawtucket the coaches parted, causing a delay of one hour. The train stopped on Pawtucket bridge for repairs, and a brakeman was sent back to flag the New York train, but too late to avert a collision. The New York mail dashed up at a 20-mile gait. The engine crashed into the rear end of the boat train, smashing the carriages into kindling wood. The engine of the latter was wrecked, and the combination car next to it was badly broken up. The fireman and engineer of the New York train remained at their posts and were uninjured. The track was blocked for a couple of hours. The injured were cared for by the citizens of Norwood.

Fifteen or Twenty Injured.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 1.—A south-bound train on the Iron Mountain railroad, which left here this morning at 3 o'clock, was wrecked near Hope, 110 miles from here. The baggage car and two coaches were burned, and a later report says one sleeper was burned.
There are conflicting reports as to the number of people injured. The number of dead and injured reported is all the way from five to twenty. The railway people decline to give out anything in regard to the matter, and it will be several hours before details can be obtained.
The accident occurred about 6:30 this morning. Two coaches and the chair car were burned. Between 15 and 20 persons were injured, none seriously.
J. L. Tullis, editor of the Hope Gazette, is reported in the list.

Republic of San Domingo.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—General Ulises Heureaux is the president of the republic of San Domingo, control of which has just been purchased by a syndicate in the United States. He is intelligent and acts for the best interests of his people. The government was overwhelmingly in debt, owing to a system of smuggling that has decreased the revenues. This will now be stopped, as the government custom officers can only be appointed by consent of the American company. The island has an area of about 20,000 square miles and a population of 350,000. The syndicate is composed of the law firm of Brown & Wells, New York; John W. Taylor, of Newark, N. J.; Postmaster-General Wanamaker, Senator Quay, and others.
Heureaux will continue in the presidency.

Dempsey Refused a New Trial.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 1.—In the criminal court this morning Judge Stowe refused a new trial in the case of Master Workman H. F. Dempsey, recently convicted of complicity in an attempt to poison Homestead non-union workmen.
Sentence was deferred until Saturday in order that attorneys for the defense may have time to prepare their appeal to the supreme court. Beatty, Gallagher and Davidson were remanded to jail in order that sentence may be passed upon all at the same time. Seven participants in the Duquesne riot were today sentenced to the workhouse for terms ranging from two to six months.

Rich Bequest to Harvard.

Boston, March 1.—It was learned from a Harvard professor today that Gordon McKay, the millionaire inventor and manufacturer, is the man who has left between $2,000,000 and $4,000,000 in trust to Harvard university. One of McKay's most intimate friends is a Harvard professor, who is very popular and at the same time very influential in educational circles, and it is probably through his acquaintance that Harvard will get, at Mr. McKay's death, his entire wealth. Mr. McKay formerly lived in Cambridge, and there perfected most of his inventions, such as the McKay sewing machine, the beeling machine, the stitcher and the McKay metallic fastener. Much of his spare time was spent in the study of music, of which he was a great lover, owning a rare collection of old violins. His housekeeper was a Mrs. Treat, whose daughter, Minnie was attending the Washington grammar school. Before the girl was out of her teens and when Mr. McKay was about 60 they were married. Shortly afterward they went to Europe, and when next heard from they had settled in Italy, where they were entertaining in great splendor. Finally they returned to America and had a winter residence in Washington and a summer cottage in Newport, where they were in the social swim for several seasons. Mrs. McKay subsequently secured a divorce, with alimony of about $20,000 a year, and is at present living in Washington. Mr.

McKay is traveling in the Nile with Mrs.
Charles Wood, of Boston. A residence is being erected for him in Aiken, S. C.

To Annex Utah with Nevada.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 1.—Senator Stewart's project to annex Utah with Nevada meets with great favor here so far as it relates to the disappearance of Utah as a territory. Leading men of Wyoming have long cherished a hope that the eastern part of Utah, including Salt Lake City and Ogden, and much orchard, pasture, farming and mineral land, might become a part of Wyoming.
This claim on behalf of this state will be advanced and pressed when Senator Stewart moves with his scheme. Wyoming and Utah are friendly. Most of the immigration to the western part of this state is from the territory, and there are several large Mormon settlements in Wyoming.

Money for McKinley.

CHICAGO, March 1.—In view of the fact that H. H. Kohlsaat, one of the proprietors of the Inter Ocean, is one of the trustees to whom Governor McKinley turned over his property, an editorial in that paper this morning is significant. It says the movement to raise a fund to pay McKinley's debts seems irrepressible; that trustees cannot, as requested by many, open a subscription for the purpose because the governor refuses to allow it, but says it will be perfectly right for his friends to go ahead and send subscriptions to the trustees, with the assurance they will be faithfully applied to the object intended.

McKay Not So Well.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1.—John W.
McKay's condition is not so favorable this morning. The doctors decided the wound was healing too rapidly, so it was reopened. There was found in the wound the beginning of a pus sac which might have caused blood poisoning if undisturbed. The object of reopening the wound was to allow it to granulate from the inside outward.
Ripley's condition is unchanged. He slept well last night, and seemed comfortable this morning. The old man talks considerably, and his appetite is improving.

Presidential Nominations.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The president sent to the senate today the following nominations: Truxton Beale, of California, to be envoy extraordinary and consular general of the United States to Roumania, Servia and Greece; Genio M. Lambertson, of Nebraska, to be arbitrator on the part of the United States under the treaty for the claims commission concluded between the United States and Chili.

Please for Her Throne.

New York, March 1.—The Princess Kiaulani, niece of the deposed queen Liliuokalani, of Hawaii, is here. She arrived today on the steamer Teutonic, which sailed from Liverpool February 22d. The princess is 18 years old. She is a tall, beautiful young woman of sweet face and slender figure. She has the soft brown eyes and dark complexion that mark the Hawaiian beauty.
She had come to the United States, she said, more for the purpose of learning and observing for herself the nature of the people who had been asked to take control of her country than to make a formal petition for her crown. "That," she said, "is rightfully mine, and if the Americans are the noble-minded people I have learned to regard them, they will not be a party to the outrage by which I have lost my birthright." In regard to her views on the serious aspects which the Hawaiian government is likely to assume, the princess referred to her guardian, Mr. Davies, who has prepared a statement, both on his own and her behalf. The statement of Princess Kiaulani is as follows:

"I stand on your shores today, where I thought so soon to receive a royal welcome on my way to my own kingdom.
I come unattended, except by the loving hearts that have come with me over the wintry seas. I hear that commissioners from my land have been for many days asking this nation to take away my little vineyard. They spoke no word to me, and leave me to find out as I can from the rumors of the air that they would leave me without a home or a name or a nation. Seventy years ago, Christian America sent over Christian men and women to give religion and civilization to Hawaii. They gave us the gospel; they made us a nation, and we learned to love and trust America. Today three sons of those missionaries are at your capital asking you to undo their fathers' work. Who sent them and gave them authority to break the constitution which they swore they would uphold?
Today, I, a poor, weak girl, with not one of my people near me, and all these Hawaiian statesmen against me, have strength to stand up for the rights of my people. Even now I can hear their wail in my heart, and it gives me strength and courage and I am strong; strong in the faith of God; strong in the knowledge that I am right; strong in the strength of 70,000,000 of people, who in this free land will hear my cry and will refuse to let their flag cover dishonor to mine."

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength.
Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him. Edwd Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store.

Mr. Albert Favorite, of Arkansas City, Kan., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me with a hacking cough which I thought I never would get rid of. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some fourteen years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again.
When I got through with one bottle my cough had left me, and I have not suffered with a cough or cold since. I have recommended it to others, and all speak well of it." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.
