MARCH MELANGE.

Stray Bits of News Gathered From All Sources.

A lovely maid is fair to see When grace and wit bedeck her, And while we ponder o'er the thought, In comes the bill collector.

Our thanks are due Senator Jno. H. Mitchell for public documents.

Now is a good time for a spring cleanup of the lawn and unoccupied lots.

Business will now pick up rapidly, the dull season having come to an end.

A great many property owners are setting out ornamental, fruit and shade trees in the burnt district.

The ground is in better condition than it has been for several years. The prospect for wheat was never better.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Sun Publishing Co., is called at the Court house March 4th, to determine on the future management of the paper.

Services in the Scandinavian language will be held tonight in the German Lutheran church on Ninth street, at 7:30 p. m., by Rev. A. O. Dolven, from Portland.

Some of the alleys between First and Second street are in a filthy condition, and should receive the attention of the city council. Foul alleys are a prolific cause of disease.

Third street will be one of the prettiest of the city. The improvements in the East End comprise some handsome residences and considerable attention has been paid to tree planting.

Richard Powers, of Mosier, came up today in company with Sheriff Ward. He will have a hearing this afternoon before Justice Schutz for assault and battery on the person of Wm Deitschmiller.

N. E. Bentson, while standing on the top of a bank below which the steam shovel was working, went down with a sudden cave off the bank, yesterday, receiving injuries about the face. He arrived today and will be patched up.

The recent diamond excitement in Owyhee county has resulted in the development of valuable opal mines. A great many fine specimens are being found, and one is shown that is estimated to be worth $200. A town called Opaline has been founded.

There are a number of boys in town from 10 to 14 years old, who break windows in unoccupied houses whenever they have an opportunity. Douglas Dufur, while away for a week some time ago, lost about $10 worth of window glass. An example should be made of the next one caught at this kind of work.

Mr. C. F. Davis, editor of the Bloomfield, Iowa, Farmer, says: "I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all sufferers with colds and croup. I have used it in my family for the past two years and have found it the best I ever used for the purposes for which it was intended. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists."

Ideals.

Ideals, "a romance of realism," by Charles Grissen, has just been issued from the press, a copy of which was received at this office yesterday. The author has endeavored to modernize, for the service of his work, the mythology of the ancients and interweave it with the events of today, but the union is not happily wrought and jars on the readers. The descriptions of scenery are on the whole good, though imaginative. The plot cannot be said to be a brilliant conception, and the occasional attempts at humor are a failure. The conclusion reached is that, while the author is gifted, and evidently has the requisite knowledge demanded for a book of this class, he would have won greater laurels had he written a philosophical essay, of which the preface of "Ideals" gives rich promise.

Whist Party.

The Union Whist Club held its weekly meeting last evening, and entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Hostetler, the time passed very pleasantly. Twenty-five hands were played, the first prize being won by Mrs. L. E. Crowe, Mrs. C. E. Bayard capturing the booby. The prizes were very handsome. Those present were Mr and Mrs C E Bayard, Mrs Hostetler, "Miss Jessie" Hostetler Miss Rowland, Mr and Mrs Crossen, Mr and Mrs W Lord, Mr and Mrs Hobson, Judge and Mrs Blakeley, Mr and Mrs Houghton, Mr and Mrs Glenn, Mrs W H Wilson, Judge and Mrs Bennett, Judge and Mrs Bradshaw, Mr and Mrs Morgan, Senator and Mrs Hilton, Mr and Mrs Crowe, Dr and Mrs Rinehart, Mr and Mrs Beall, Dr H Logan, Messrs E Hostetler and L Ainsworth.

Institute at Dufur.

There will be a local institute for teachers, parents, school officers and all interested in educational work, held at Dufur Friday and Saturday, March 10th and 11th, both day and evening. Dufur people are proverbial for hospitality, good music and good cheer, so come everybody and enjoy a pleasant and profitable meeting as heretofore. The entertainment for one evening will be furnished by the pupils of the Dufur public school. The programme of exercises will be published next week.

Proposals for Bids.

Sealed bids will be received at the office of Crandall & Burget until noon March 20th, 1893, for the superstructure of a proposed dwelling to be built for W. L. Bradshaw on the northeast corner of Washington and Fourth streets, The Dalles, Or., according to the plans and specifications prepared by C. J. Crandall.

Bids will also be received at the same time and place for the mason work of the above mentioned building. Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of Crandall & Burget.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Now Try This.

It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a cough, cold, or any trouble with throat, chest or lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to give relief, or money will be paid back. Sufferers from la grippe found it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and thorough recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense, and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. Trial bottles free at Snipes & Kinerly's drug store. Large size 50c and $1.

MOSIER MUSINGS.

The Peach Crop Will Be Short—Mosier's Four Hundred.

From our Regular Correspondent.] Our thrifty immigrant is making a furious charge on both stump and tree as well as stool grubs.

Mrs. J. D. Mosier, arrived home from a visit with friends and relatives in the western part of the state on last Wednesday's train.

The Hardwick bridge gang, which had been here for about two weeks' repairing trestles near by, was taken to Rowena on Monday.

Snow is fast disappearing on the surrounding foot hills. Much stock has been turned out to graze and is looking remarkably well.

Another Mosierite was made extremely happy this week, being the recipient of a fine baby boy. Geo. Judy is the lucky father and feels he has a prize well worth possessing.

School clerk Mosier has finished taking the enumeration of school children in this district. The result is seventy-five, as compared with forty-three of last year, a very flattering increase.

Miss Dollie Mosier, Mesdames Brown and La Piere, and Messrs. Davenport Ireland, Hardwick, Lynch, Deitzmiller, Lewis and several other of our citizens were at The Dalles this week, either on pleasure or business bent.

Upon investigation of the peach orchards in this vicinity, it is found that the severity of the past winter has killed nearly all of the fruit buds. The peach crop will consequently be short.

Probably the immigrant (from the prairie states) has the greatest amount of profanity in store, when trying to extract a stool grub, of anybody in this section. Trying to do the matter justice is a trying ordeal. We would say, use kind and persuasive words, boys, they will be just as effective.

The sale of the Shepherd place by Administrator Lynch in front of the court house on February 22d, took a number of our citizens to the county seat. Rev. Frank Ireland was the fortunate purchaser, getting forty-eight acres of as good land as we have at $5 per acre.

Every community has its "four hundred," Mosier's consisting of about twenty-five individuals, who met at the residence of A. Prather on Friday evening last, the occasion being a ball. The cock crowed lustily, announcing Saturday's dawn, before the gay revelers stopped tip-toeing "grand right and left" and promenaded to their respective homes, feeling highly pleased and well entertained. Trifles Light as Air.

Highlanders have the habit of interjecting the personal pronoun "he" where not required. They will say, for example, "The king he has come," instead of "The king has come." This habit got a worthy Scotch minister into trouble. He began his sermon as follows: "My friends, you will find the subject of discourse this afternoon in the first epistle general of the apostle Peter, chapter 5 and verse 8, in the following words: 'The devil he goeth about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.' Now, my friends, with your leave, we will divide the subject of our text into four heads: Firstly, we shall endeavor to ascertain 'Who the devil he was.' Secondly, 'Where the devil he was going.' Thirdly, 'Who the devil he was seeking.' And lastly, 'What the devil he was roaring about.'"

THE DALLES MARKETS.

THURSDAY, March 2.—The clearing weather and the bright sunshine has had a fine effect in drying up the roads, and putting new life into business circles during the past week, in which there is a marked improvement. Large stocks of merchandise are being received daily by our merchants who anticipate a very active trade for the year. While former prices have been maintained up to the present, advances in staple dry goods are probable in the near future, especially so, as to cottons, which will be dearer than they have been for years. Woolen fabrics, and clothing will continue at their minimum rates, as raw wool is exceedingly low and the supply is large in reserve.

In staple groceries, some changes have taken place, for instance coffee has advanced 1/4 a cent per pound, with an indication of another advance soon.

Canned goods are dearer, also dried fruits are in better inquiry, and have turned dearer on a shorter market.

All kinds of beans are reported as having advanced 1/4 to 3/8 of a cent per pound. The rice supply is fair and the market quotations are unchanged.

Sugars remain steady, without any evidence of fluctuating market for the near future.

The meat market is feverish and for the past month a steady advance has been noted for hams and bacon and lard. Yesterday an advance was made on all kinds of hog meats and lard. One of our prominent dealers said yesterday owing to the shortage of the hog product in the east we must expect still higher prices for all meats during the year.

In farm products the market is in better supply than a few weeks ago. Eggs are freely offered and the market is almost lifeless; 18 cents per dozen is all that is offered today, and a sharp decline will follow daily. The Portland market is overstocked and is flat.

Fresh butter is plentiful at 35 to 50 cents per roll. Packed butter in brine may be quoted at 28 to 35 cents per roll with few buyers.

Potatoes and onions are in fair stock, and have not suffered any decline in prices. A 1 potatoes for table use $1.35 per sack and $1.25 for ordinary.

Mill feed, and also baled hay, has not undergone any change from former quotations.

Portland market is depressed in the breadstuff line. Salem flour declined yesterday to $3.90 per barrel, and other brands to $3.00.

There is no change in the cereal markets. European markets are dull and have no apparent coloring of promise for an immediate improvement, but for lower quotations.

Wool is quoted low, 10 to 16 for Eastern Oregon wools, and 13 to 15 for valley.

The Asylum.

The contention about the insane asylum among Eastern Oregon papers would remind one of the quarrel between the boys in an old tale about the stars and the firmament, one boy supposing the stars represented cattle and were his, and the other claiming the sky as a pasture ground. The question arising where the kine would graze led to a quarrel resulting in a bitter fight. The insane asylum row is just as profitless. Gov. Penneyer, Secretary McBride and Treasurer Metsham will decide the point and will compare impartially all the claims of each. We do not believe it will be located in a sparsely-settled district, or where good water and natural scenery are wanting. The Irvine place on Chenoweth better fills all requirements than any that has yet been proposed, and it is quite probable that this will be the place selected, provided it can be secured reasonably.

There's a good deal of guarantee business in the store keeping of today. It's too excessive. Or too reluctant. Half the time it means nothing. Words—only words.

This offer to refund the money, or to pay a reward, is made under the hope that you won't want your money back, and that you won't claim the reward. Of course.

So, whoever is honest in making it, and works—not on his own reputation alone, but through the local dealer, whom you know, must have something he has faith in back of the guarantee. The business wouldn't stand a year without it.

What is lacking is confidence. Back of that, what is lacking is that clear honesty which is above the "average practice."

Dr. Pierce's medicines are guaranteed to accomplish what they are intended to do, and their makers give the money back if the result isn't apparent.

Doesn't it strike you that a medicine which the makers have so much confidence in, is the medicine for you.

Joles Bros. have 60 varieties of fresh garden and field seeds on hand in bulk, and can supply all demands.

An Estray Bay Mare. Came to my place last fall a bay mare about five years old, with small white spot on right side, also white spot on left hip, star in the forehead, with some dim brand on left shoulder, weight about eight hundred pounds. Owner can have the same by proving property and paying costs. V. J. KELLY, 15-Mile creek.

A Wonderful Opportunity. Closed This Week.

The surprising opportunity of securing the great Encyclopedia Britannica, elsewhere presented, closes, so far as this paper is concerned, with this week. Our arrangement with the publisher was for four weeks only, and this is the last of the four. It is the great genuine Encyclopedia Britannica, over 20,500 pages, 10,000 illustrations and 100 maps, in good cloth binding, all for $20.00, and even that payable (with $1.00 extra) in installments of $1.00 every twenty days. We are ordering the work ourselves; you can join us, if you please, and save some trouble and expense. It costs nothing to see a sample at this office.
