In a late interview ex-President Harrison briefly outlined his plans. Immediately upon his arrival at Indianapolis in company with Assistant General Passenger Agent Boyd, of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Mr. Harrison will go duck hunting on the Kankakee river. After this recreation the ex-president will remain quietly at his home in Indianapolis, securing a much-needed rest. Mr. Harrison's engagement with the Leland Stanford university in California, he says, will require only about one month of his time out of each year. During this term he will deliver lectures on international law and jurisprudence. During next winter the ex-president will devote his time to writing a book. This book, Mr. Harrison says, will relate specially to a number of important matters connected with his administration that the public have not fully understood. They are he says, of such a nature that notwithstanding their importance, they will not become a matter of history, and it is his intention, by this means, to make clear certain things of which the public is now in ignorance on account of a misapprehension of what these subjects were. Mr. Harrison did not at this time, care to indicate what they were. At 6 o'clock the party returned to their train, where they remained, and at 10 o'clock that night the journey to Indianapolis was resumed.

The following message was forwarded by cable yesterday to President Cleveland by the Chilean executive from Santiago: The government of Chili and the Chilean people, recognizing your political attitude in the past, consider that your re-election as chief magistrate of the United States is a pledge that your government will preserve the tranquility and well being of all nations upon the American continent. On this day, upon which you assume the high functions of your office, I, as president of the republic of Chili, and in the name of the Chilean nation, as well as in my own personal capacity, assure you of our sincere regard for you and your people. Permit me to express the hope that your aims and motives will produce the best result for the people of the United States.

The young lady who was heir apparent to the Hawaiian throne does not seem to take a broad view of things. She thinks she ought to be seated on the Hawaiian throne because she has been educated to expect it. She has so little political sense that she has placed herself in charge of a British merchant connected with the Hawaiian islands trade, who is said to be a strong supporter of British interests on the islands. The little school girl does not seem to understand that the principal object of annexing the islands is to prevent the government from falling under British influences.—Ex.

Colonel Johnstone, former editor of the Phoenix, Arizona, Gazette, and William Condon, an experienced prospector, report the discovery of the ruins of an old Aztec city different from any before discovered. Among the many hieroglyphics are drawing of men, and on a novel shaped stone is a serpent, cross and anchor. Around these ruins is a stone wall or fortification in a good state of preservation. The place indicates that it once contained at least 50,000 inhabitants. It is singular that these ruins were not discovered long ago, but the country in the vicinity is mountainous and has been but little prospected.

Gresham's appointment has precedent. History is always repeating itself. When Lincoln formed his cabinet he took into it Stanton as secretary of war, who had been in Buchanan's cabinet. Furthermore, he also had as members of his council two democrats, Montgomery Blair and Gideon Wells. And, what is more, Gresham voted for Cleveland, but none of these men are known to have voted for Lincoln.

The search for the treasures of Atahualpa, the great Inca, said to be hidden in the Llangante mountains, now being prosecuted with great energy, is more than likely to be speedily brought to a successful issue. Some of the more important of the long lost traces of the route indicated by Valverde, the celebrated Jesuit historian and antiquarian, have been discovered.

Fustian! This girl has no throne. "Pretty Kalaulani" has no more right to talk about "my" throne and "my" nation and "my" flag than pretty Sally Walker or pretty Polly-wants-a-cracker. The day has gone by on this hemisphere when thrones and nations were the personal property of any human being.—Louisville Courier-Journal, dem

"Golden Medical Discovery" cures those diseases which come from blood impurities—scrofula, and skin diseases, sores and swellings.

But does it? It's put up by the thousands of gallons, and sold to hundreds of thousands. Can it cure as well as though it had been compounded just for you?

Its makers say that thousands of people who have had Tetter and Salt-rheum, Eczema and Erysipelas, Carbuncles and Sore Eyes, Thick Neck and Enlarged Glands, are well today because they used it.

Suppose that this is so. Suppose that a quick-witted man was far-seeing enough to know that to cleanse the blood was to cleanse the life. Suppose that by many experiments, and after many failures, he discovered this golden key to health, and that his faith in it for you is so strong that you can go to your druggist, buy a bottle, and if it doesn't help you, you can get your money returned—cheerfully. Will you try it?

The remedy to have faith in, is the remedy the makers themselves have faith in.

Specimen Cases.—S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him. Edwd Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store.

It's a sign that you need help, when pimples, blotches, and eruptions begin to appear. Your blood needs looking after. You'll have graver matters than pimples to deal with, if you neglect it. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery prevents and cures all diseases and disorders caused by impure blood. It invigorates the liver, purifies the blood, and promotes all the bodily functions. For all forms of scrofulous, skin and scalp disease, and even Consumption (which is really lung-scrofula) in all its earlier stages, it is a certain remedy. It's the only one that's guaranteed, in every case, to benefit or cure, or the money is refunded. It's a matter of confidence in one's medicine.

It is the cheapest blood-purifier sold, through druggists, because you only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more? The "Discovery" acts equally well all the year round.

NOTE THE RESULT OF CREDIT Versus CASH! EXTRACTS FROM THE DAILY PRESS:

Of Interest to Merchants. The suit of A. S. Collins and Mrs. A. S. Collins against H. Herbring of this city, which was to come before the jury yesterday morning, was again postponed. This suit against one of our oldest and best-known dry goods merchants creates considerable comment in commercial circles. It appears that Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Collins obtained under false pretenses and promises at the end of the year 1891, goods to the amount of $50.80 from the defendant; but instead of paying the bill, as agreed, they shortly afterwards left the city by night and moved to California. Last spring Mr. Herbring learned that all their household goods, etc., were in the hands of the sheriff of Wasco county, and consequently placed a second attachment upon the goods held by the sheriff. A portion of these goods were sold last December by the sheriff of Wasco county, as no compromise could be obtained by defendant. And now come the plaintiffs and sue through their attorney, Judge A. S. Bennett, the defendant, for the sum of $175.00. We will watch this suit when it comes before the jury, as we think it is one of great interest to storekeepers. From the Daily Times-Mountaineer of Feb. 24th. Razor-Edged Technicalities. The case of A. S. Collins vs. H. Herbring was on trial in the Circuit Court today, and the jury empaneled were E. W. Trout, Geo. Joles, A. Bettington, Jr., Geo. W. Miller, S. B. Adams, James Harper, W. C. Hansell, John Wood. Argument was had this morning on a motion to non-suit, made by defendant's counsel, which was taken under advisement until afternoon, when the Judge overruled the motion. The facts appear to be that the plaintiff left this city owing Mr.

Herbring, and he attached property for the debt. After the sale of the attached property the defendant attempts to set aside the sale and sue Mr. Herbring for damages, claiming that the proceedings were not technically legal. The razor-edge technicalities of law, we presume, will always remain, but it works great hardships on creditors, in many instances, to be barred from collecting their just claims from the commission of a clerical error or the misinterpretation of a dubious statutory provision. From the Daily Chronicle of Feb. 25th. The suit of A. S. Collins and Mrs. A. S. Collins vs. H. Herbring came to a termination yesterday afternoon, the jury rendering a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs. Mr. Herbring considers his defeat as a fait accompli, and is now more than ever convinced that he has to stick to his old rule and motto—to sell dry goods cheap and for cash only.
