MUCH EXCITEMENT IN HONOLULU

The Stars and Stripes Displayed on Many Buildings, and a General Holiday.

HONOLULU, March 1.—The early part of the present week witnessed scenes of much enthusiasm in Honolulu, and the stars and stripes were probably more generally displayed than at any time in Hawaiian history. The arrival of the steamship China from San Francisco Monday, February 20, followed by that of the Australia February 22, brought intelligence that caused great satisfaction to the provisional government and the American party on the islands. On the first-named date, when it became known that President Harrison and his cabinet had decided upon a favorable course in regard to a disposition of the islands, excited throngs gathered about the mail dock, postoffice and news stands and discussed the information received with much ardor. The prompt action of the administration in the matter was warmly commended by Americans, irrespective of party affiliations, as well as by many of the German residents, and of the more intelligent natives. The scene, however, was nothing like that of February 22, when the Australia brought the news that the message from President Harrison providing for a treaty of annexation of the islands had gone to the senate, and that as far as the American government was concerned the islands were probably part of the United States when the Australia arrived. The day was the anniversary of the birth of Washington, and was being observed as a general holiday. The streets were filled with natives, and others, in their best attire; flags were floating from many buildings and from vessels in the harbor, the whole forming in the bright sunlight a pretty setting for the introduction of the startling effects furnished by the steamer from San Francisco. Colonel Soper, commanding the provisional government forces, was applauded when he expressed himself in favor of a salute of 100 guns in honor of the occasion providing he were given authority therefor.

Marriage or Celibacy?

NEW YORK, March 8.—The archbishop of the country may, it is affirmed, hold a special meeting at the earliest favorable moment to protest against the recent instructions of the propaganda to Bishop O'Farrel in regard to married Greek priests living in his diocese. The question threatens to assume an acute phase, in the opinion of many people. While Oriental Catholics in certain districts are accustomed to seeing married and celebrate clergy living in some sort of harmony, the West has a decided repugnance to it. Ever since the first married priest and family appeared in America, bishops, it is said, have urged the propaganda to bestow some attention to the possible complications of the future. They have not succeeded in exciting the interest of the officials who have charge of American affairs on the subject. It is probable the archbishops will take the matter before Monsignore Satolli and induce him to sustain the former decrees, even to the point of dismissing the married priests.

Politicians Calling on Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The period of perfunctory visiting has passed, and the greater number of politicians who called on the president today were bent on business. Cleveland saw nearly all who came, giving a little time to each. Those in a hurry saw Private Secretary Thurber. He soon had his hands full attending to their wants. One of the earliest callers was Rev. Dr. O'Gorman, assistant rector of the Catholic university of America, who presented Thurber a letter from Archbishop Satolli, papal legate to America, congratulating Cleveland on his accession to the presidency, particularly in the name of his holiness the pope.

Statue in Honor of Blaine.

AUGUSTA, Me., March 8.—A call will appear tomorrow signed by a large number of prominent gentlemen from all parties and every section, including many members of the legislature and the executive departments, for a meeting to be held in the statehouse on Friday evening next, to organize an association for the erection, by popular subscription, of a statue in honor of James G. Blaine.

The Treaty With Canada.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The governor-general transmitted to parliament yesterday the conference at Washington on February 15, 1892, between the Canadian delegates and Mr. Blaine and Secretary Foster. The opposition have accused the government of keeping back these papers designedly. The following portion which relates to reciprocity is the Canadian version: "Mr. Blaine said he could understand why Canada was reluctant to enter into a treaty of unlimited reciprocity, but that no other arrangement would suit the United States, and it must be accomplished by discrimination in favor of the United States and against Great Britain, which was America's great competitor, and that it must be likewise accompanied by the adoption of a uniform tariff for the United States and Canada equal to that of the United States. Unless such points were guarded there would be no security on the one hand from smuggling along a border line of over 3,000 miles, or on the other of maintaining the present protective policy of the United States." Mr. Blaine added: "We would expect to have the Canadians to compete with in manufacturing, but none else." A treaty for natural products alone could not be discussed.

Will Vaccinate the Indians.

Dr. R. J. Pilkington, the government physician at the agency, evidently has in prospect a number of sore arms for his charges on the reservation. In view of the presence of smallpox at Portland, Oregon City and other places not far from Pendleton, Walla Walla being also reported as containing cases, the doctor intends to provide an ounce of prevention, and has ordered by telegraph 600 vaccine points from Washington, D. C. When this arrives he will vaccinate the children at the Indian school and all other Indians who desire to take the precaution. Dr. Pilkington has in his possession already a small supply of vaccine.

Treasury Notes for Gold.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Secretary Carlisle has accepted the proposition of the Denver clearing-house to let the government have $1,000,000 in gold for a like amount of treasury notes. He has taken no steps toward issuing bonds, and has not indicated what policy he will pursue.

Will Live in Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—It is reported that Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant, having sold her house in New York, desires to make her future home in Washington. She is especially desirous, if possible, to find a home on LaFayette square, and has made an offer for the Blaine residence, that is now under consideration.

Mothers' Recommendation.

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good; but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

The New Assessment Law.

The following copy of the new law will prove interesting to those who lack information upon the subject in question:

An act to amend sections 2752, and to repeal sections 2730, 2735, 2736, 2737, 2753, 2754, 2755, 2756, 2757, of the Miscellaneous Laws of Oregon as compiled by W. Lair Hill, relating to the assessment of property and the collection of taxes.

Be it enacted by the legislative assembly of the state of Oregon:

Section 1. That section 2752 of Title 3, of Chapter 17 of Hill's Annotated Laws of Oregon be amended to read as follows: Section 2752. The assessor, after qualifying, shall, on the first Monday in March next following, procure from the county clerk a blank assessment roll, and forthwith proceed and assess all taxable property within his county, and shall return to such county clerk, on or before the first Monday in September next following, such assessment roll with a full and complete assessment of such taxable property entered thereon, including a full and precise description of the lands or lots owned by each person therein named on March 1st of each year, at the hour of one o'clock, a. m., which description shall correspond with the plan or plat of any town laid out or recorded, and said lands or town lots shall be valued at their true cash value, taking into consideration the improvements on the land and in the surrounding country, the quality of the soil, its convenience to transportation lines, public roads, mills and other local advantages. No deductions of indebtedness from assessments or taxations shall be allowed in any case. True cash value shall be held and taken to mean the amount such property would sell for at a voluntary sale made in the ordinary course of business.

The county court of any county may, if necessary, extend the time for returning the assessment roll until the first Monday in October following. The terms "real property" and "land" wherever used in the laws of this state, shall for the purpose of assessment and taxation be held to mean and include not only the land itself, whether laid out in town lots or otherwise, with all things contained therein, but also all buildings, structures, improvements, trees and other fixtures of whatever kind thereon, and all rights and privileges belonging or in any wise appertaining thereto. All land shall be assessed and taxed in the county in which the same shall lie, and every person shall be assessed in the county in which he resides, on the first day of March of the year when the assessment shall be made for all real and personal property then owned by him within such county; and unoccupied land, if the owner be unknown, may be assessed as such without inserting the name of any owner.

Section 20. That sections numbered 2730, 2735, 2736, 2737, 2753, 2754, 2755, 2756 and 2757, of the miscellaneous laws of Oregon as compiled by W. Lair Hill, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 30. All acts or laws or parts of acts or laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Section 4. Inasmuch as there is need of immediate action in this matter, this act shall take effect from and after its passage and approval by the Governor. Passed by the house Feb. 1, 1893.

W. P. KEADY,
 Speaker of the house.
 Passed by the Senate February 7, 1893.
 C. W. FULTON,
 President of the senate.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a bilious look, if your stomach be disordered you have a dyspeptic look, and if your kidneys be affected you have a pinched look. Secure your health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative and tonic acts directly on these vital organs. Cures pimples, blotches, boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at Snipes & Kinnersly's drugstore, 50c per bottle.
