MARCH MELANGE.

Stray Bits of News Gathered From All Sources.

An angular maiden named Ann Fell in love with an architect man, But they had a big row,
And she's suing him now,
For he used her for making a plan.

The Diamond flour mills started up today.

The spring run of salmon will soon commence.

Mr. Stone is placing two fish wheels, one on each side of the river, below the city.

No more free enlarged pictures at Herrin's gallery after March 15. Now or never.

It is reported that a horse was on the streets yesterday suffering from glanders.
The case should be investigated by the proper officer.

The house and furniture of A. H.
Jewett, White Salmon, burned day before yesterday. The property was insured for two-thirds of its value.

Vol. 1 No. 1 of the Monmouth Weekly Record is before us. It is full of spicy local and ought to please the people of that vicinity very much.

The petition before Judge Blakeley's court for a saloon at 8-Mile was laid on the table. This means in court what laying in the waste basket means with a newspaper.

Fish wheel men generally are getting in readiness for the season's catch. The last two years have been rather light, but it is hoped that this season will witness a large increase.

Smallpox appears to be spreading, and it would be well for our physicians to provide themselves with vaccine for all who may want to prevent the danger of catching the disease.

Hogs are up and silver is down. According to the gold-bug logic, hogs should be made the sole standard of money value and silver wiped out.
Then sausages would be made a legal tender and the use of dog meat declared counterfeiting.—Telegram.

The Union whist club was entertained last night by Mr. and Mrs. F. Houghton at Fraternity Hall. A delightful banquet was served after the games of the evening. Mrs. H. S. Wilson won the head prize, a silver crumb tray, and Mrs. Judge Bradshaw the booby, a silver bonbonniere box.

Sam Thurman has 4,000 feet of lumber on the beach and proposes to construct a fish wheel which will be put in above.
The situation is considered a good one, notwithstanding the fact, as learned from the Indians, that it will not be good for several years to come, because one of their number died without making his peace with God.

kidney trouble. It is guaranteed to Thrown From a Horse.

Miss Lillian Reavis met with an accident yesterday which resulted very seriously, and might have been fatal.
The young lady secured a horse at Richmond's stable and rode out in the country to engage the Fulton school. Returning the horse shied and threw her off, her arm being held in some manner by the bridle. She remounted, and at first did not suppose she was hurt badly, but was compelled to get off several times in the four miles to town because of severe pain. When she arrived at the stable she was in a dazed condition and Mr. Richmond sent for her mother and brother, who upon arriving, drove her home, where she lay for three hours in a swoon. This morning she complained of internal pains, but how badly she is hurt cannot yet be ascertained.

Compromise Effected.

J. R. McIntyre and W. D. Stewart have settled their cases for false imprisonment against Wells, Fargo & Co. and M. C. Sullivan. Mr. McIntyre recently obtained a verdict for $7,000 against Wells, Fargo & Co. Application for a new trial was made by the company, and the judge decided that unless Mr.
McIntyre agreed to accept half the amount of the verdict he would grant a new trial. Correspondence between the lawyers on both sides followed, and Wells, Fargo & Co. offered to give Mc-Intyre $3,625, which he has accepted.
The company then offered a settlement with Mr. Stewart for a like amount.
This ends the suit.

The Oldest Mason.

Wm. Gardner, of Portland, died yesterday in Portland. D. Solis Cohen, master of the A. F. and A. M. there, received word in the morning that an aged mason was dying in the southern portion of the city, and desired to make himself known to his brethren before his death, but before he arrived, Gardner had died. He proved to be the oldest Mason in the United States, having been made a Mason in Scotland in 1816, when just 21 years of age, being 97 at the time of his death. He was also a Royal Arch Mason of over 70 years' standing.

A Depredation Claim.

H. H. Wheeler, of Wheeler, Grant county, Or., is in the city, and will have a hearing before O. P. Hubbard, the U. S. commissioner on Indian depreda-tion and spoliation claims. Mr. Hubbard arrived this morning. The loss alleged is 85 head of horses taken by the Indians in 1866, at which time Mr.
Wheeler was also shot. One of his witnesses, also here, is Mr. John Morgan, of Heppner, a sheep man. At the time of the depredation he was a stage driver.

ing shrubs and vines, hedge plants, etc.,

A Pleasing Effect.

The store of Pease & Mays now presents a most attractive appearance. A large shipment of new goods has just arrived and the public will be given every opportunity to inspect them through the display at the store and the published announcements in the newspapers.
The three large show windows, dressed by Mr. S. P. Briggs, are as handsome as they can be. In one is displayed "laces", ranging from the more costly, through all the intermediate grades, of varying colors and widths, draped in handsome folds, and well calculated to inspire the envy of possession by all who may observe them. In the center window is shown the dress goods, new patterns of imported satens and cloakings, etc.
The corner window is devoted to gent's furnishing goods. The shelves are well filled with the new goods. A line of handkerchiefs on a wire above are reserved for Saturday's special sale. Above the shelves and for the entire length of the store are draped chenille table covers, and the rear of the store is separated by portieres reaching from the ceiling. The combined effect is very handsome, the store as a whole presenting a metropolitan appearance in accord with our importance as a trading center.

Apportionment by Counties.

The Tax Levy.

The state has made a levy of 7 mills for public buildings and public works, the university of Oregon and the Oregon National guards. Secretary McBride says this levy is just 1 mill larger than the tax levy of January 6, 1890, although it carries about one-half the appropriations for the jute mill, the Eastern Oregon insane asylum and all the other new buildings and improvements authorized by the recent legislature. This also carries the $125,000 appropriations for the purchase of the Northwestern foundry plant and the exhibit at the world's fair, and the further sum of about $130,000 for the debts and deficiencies of 1891 and 1892. He says that considering these unusual items the levy for current expenses shows that the appropriation bill for the maintenance of our public institutions was quite economical.

Homes at the World's Fair.

There is no reason why anyone should be deterred from visiting the world's fair by reason of possible inconvenience and uncertainty attending the securing of satisfactory hotel accommodations.

The Northern Pacific railroad will in due time publish low excursion rates to Chicago and return for this occasion, while its double daily passenger train service, including through sleeping cars of both classes (standard and tourist) to Chicago, will as usual be at the head of the list in every particular.

To help you in fixing in advance upon your place of residence while attending the world's fair, we have placed in the hands of our agent at your station a book compiled by perfectly trustworthy parties, called "Homes for Visitors to the World's Fair." This little book, which you can purchase for fifty cents, contains a list of about 9,000 private families who will accommodate visitors in Chicago during the time of the fair, viz: May 1st to October 30th; gives their names and addresses, and number of rooms each will have to spare. The book also gives a list of the hotels and their locations; has twelve full-page large-scale maps, each representing a section of the city, so that with this information before him the intending visitor himself can, at leisure, select the quarter of the city in which he would prefer to stop, corresponding in advance with one or more families in that locality with regard to rates and the accommodations desired.

CHAS. S. FEE, N. P. R. R.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cts. Sold by Snipes & Kinerly.

"Golden Medical Discovery" cures those diseases which come from blood impurities—scrofula, and skin diseases, sores and swellings.

But does it? It's put up by the thousands of gallons, and sold to hundreds of thousands. Can it cure as well as though it had been compounded just for you?

Its makers say that thousands of people who have had Tetter and Salt-rheum, Eczema and Erysipelas, Carbuncles and Sore Eyes, Thick Neck and Enlarged Glands, are well today because they used it.

Suppose that this is so. Suppose that a quick-witted man was far-seeing enough to know that to cleanse the blood was to cleanse the life. Suppose that by many experiments, and after many failures, he discovered this golden key to health and that his faith in it for you is so strong that you can go to your druggist, buy a bottle, and if it doesn't help you, you can get your money returned—cheerfully. Will you try it?

The remedy to have faith in, is the remedy the makers themselves have faith in.
