The President Withdraws the Hawaiian Treaty.

NO EXPLANATION IS YET GIVEN.

It is Understood the Present Treaty Does Not Suit Him—First Batch of Appointments.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Cleveland's first executive communication to the senate came this afternoon, and proved a surprise not only to republicans, but to many democrats. In his communication Cleveland withdrew the treaty with Hawaii sent to the senate a few weeks ago by Harrison. The message was short, simply requesting the senate to transmit to the executive the proposed treaty with Hawaii. The message was received without comment on the floor of the senate. The republican senators regard this action in a line with the course pursued by Cleveland in withdrawing the Nicaraguan treaty sent to the senate by Arthur in the closing days of his administration. The democratic senators look upon the act from twofold points of view, some taking the ground that it shows Cleveland is against annexation or American domination of any sort in the Hawaiian islands, while others hold he will send in another treaty more to his liking.

It is understood the reason for the withdrawal is because he is opposed to the treaty in its present form. Whether or not he will favor the making of another treaty, and whether it will be an annexation treaty or not, cannot be said on authority at this time, but a gentleman who has talked with the president on the subject said this afternoon that another treaty would be made. It is intimated the president will suggest either by message or personally to the senators that a committee be appointed to visit the Hawaiian islands this year during the interval between the adjournment of the special session of the senate and the reconvening of the next congress. Cleveland heretofore has been quite solicitous on this point and made inquiries as to whether or not resolutions providing for such a commission had gone through. He had apparently been under the impression that it had been adopted. He learned it had not been, but that the senate had authority alone to provide for such a commission, probably to consist of senators, and that the contingent fund of the senate could be drawn on for the purpose.

Lucky Democrats.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The president has sent the following nominations to the senate:

Josiah Quincy, of Massachusetts, assistant secretary of state.

Robert A. Maxwell, of New York, fourth assistant postmaster-general.

Isaac P. Gray, of Indiana, minister to Mexico.

Patrick A. Collins, of Massachusetts, consul-general to London.

F. P. Gale, of New Mexico, receiver of public moneys at Roswell, N. M.

The Financial Question.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Secretary Carlisle this morning authorized the statement that he would exercise all the power and discretion invested in him to uphold the credit of the government and maintain the parity of gold and silver. This statement was made to brush away rumors about what he contemplated doing as to maintaining the gold reserve intact, as to issuing bonds or as to paying United States treasury notes in silver when free gold is exhausted, etc.

The example of the Denver banks in offering the treasury $1,000,000 in gold has been followed by the Chicago bankers, who today offered $500,000. It is believed that bankers of other cities will do likewise. There is a feeling of relief as to gold balances, unless the exports Saturday are unusually heavy, of which no information is yet received. The treasury will have ample to supply the demand.

There is no danger of a financial panic. The new administration will not issue any bonds. It has been decided that the $100,000,000 reserve fund can be used to meet any demands made upon the United States treasury. This is in direct conflict to the opinion so often expressed by former secretaries of the treasury and is rather startling. The basis of the action is a decision of Solicitor-General Aldrich, who declares that there is nothing in existing laws to prevent the use of the gold reserve. Ex-Archbishop-General Miller is understood to have concurred in this opinion.

Free Gold on Hand.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The treasury today received gold at several points. In New York a gain was made of $100,000, while at New Orleans it received $20,000 in exchange for a like amount of silver certificates. No intimation has yet been received that any gold will be exported Saturday from New York, and at the present rate of exchange it is not thought any will be taken out of the country. The treasury has more than $3,000,000 in free gold, and in the usual conditions of trade this is likely to be increased rather than decreased. It was quite plainly intimated in the treasury department today that, as between the issue of bonds and the use of a portion of the $100,000,000 gold reserve, if necessary to maintain the parity of gold and silver, Secretary Carlisle will resort to the latter plan, but he does not anticipate the necessity will arise to do so.

A Canadian Sensation.

MONTREAL, March 9.—A pamphlet entitled "Clerical Ruin," which promises to create a great sensation in the religious world, has been made public. It contains a terribly scathing arraignment of the Roman Catholic clergy of the Dominion. The work is from the pens of a number of well-known French-Canadian writers, among whom is Sanvalle, formerly of La Patrie, and Filtraut, of the Canada Review. One of the articles is devoted to the Jesuits; another, and very sensational one, to "Mysticism and Chastity," in which due reference is made to the late clerical scandals.

A Curious Blunder.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The board of lady managers of the world's fair has had straightened out a curious blunder in the sundry civil bill by which all the money intended for the payment of awards was appropriated for the use of the woman's board instead of the executive committee on awards. The ladies have agreed to pay this money to the proper authorities without regard to the terms of the bill. The mistake was due to an error of the engrossing clerk.

The Panama Trial.

PARIS, March 9.—Interest in the Panama trial is increasing, and the greatest curiosity is shown as to coming developments. It is reported that the frankness with which Charles De Lesseps told his story has caused surprise. There is some consternation in certain high circles, and considerable anxiety is felt in the same quarters as to the subsequent testimony. The approaches to the Palais de Justice as well as the courtroom were thronged this morning. The general opinion is that the defendants all wore a more confident air than on the previous day, and that they seemed to feel that their unreserved acknowledgment had made a favorable impression on the community. Presiding Judge Desjardins proceeded to interrogate Marius Fontaine. The latter stated he was a member of the board of management of the Panama Canal Company when the transactions with Baihut occurred. Acting under the direction of Charles de Lesseps, he visited Blondin. He found Baihut there, Baihut said: "The money in question will be used in promoting the interests of the company." Charles de Lesseps thereupon proceeded to discuss with Blondin the question of the 1,000,000 francs claimed by Baihut. The matter was eventually settled at Fontaine's residence. In reply to the presiding judge, Fontaine continued: "Some of the drafts payable to bearer were issued to pay for advertising, others to satisfy the robbers who waylaid us like footpads."

This closed the interrogation of Fontaine for the time being. Next followed the great sensation of the day. Baihut was called. He showed a disposition at first to throw the blame upon Blondin, who acted as a go-between in the negotiations. Baihut said: "I acted at the instigation of Blondin, to whom I gave 7,500,000 francs. I have wished to restore the money I received, but I feared thereby to accuse myself." Up to this moment Baihut had spoken clearly, and with apparent self-control. He broke down, and with a pitiful expression of sorrow and despair exclaimed in a broken voice: "I acknowledge having been led astray. I am guilty. My words express the grief and repentance I feel. I do not yet understand how I could have fallen so low. I ask the pardon of my country, whose good name I have perhaps sullied." There was a decided stir in the courtroom when Baihut began his pitiful avowal of guilt, and this was increased to a sensation as he closed.

Sunday Opening Fight.

CHICAGO, March 9.—The endeavor to secure the opening of the world's fair Sunday will be transferred from the state courts to those of the United States. An attempt will be made to have the United States supreme court issue an injunction against restraining the opening of the gates. To do this the suit will have to be brought on behalf of the state and Attorney Maloney has given his consent. The grounds of complaint will be that the corporation is an Illinois one, and congress has no power to make the obnoxious restriction.
