MARCH MELANGE.

Stray Bits of News Gathered From All Sources.

We welcome now the sunshine, it seems so warm and nice; A few months hence we'll all be A-bellowing for the ice.

City council meets tonight.

An epidemic of mumps is reported in Independence, Or.

Gov. McGraw has appointed Geo. B. Allen senator for Washington.

The D. P. & A. N. Co's. boats are now making daily trips to Portland.

Surveyors are at work on the new railroad line from Columbus down to Crates Point.

The Dalles has already taken steps, says THE CHRONICLE, to show why it is the proper place for the insane asylum of Eastern Oregon. Our vote will go for The Dalles.—West Side.

The announcement of Pease & Mays in today's CHRONICLE should have appeared yesterday. They are inaugurating Saturday special sales, and hereafter readers may keep posted as to what they will be by observing THE CHRONICLE.

Mr. Dixon, an old citizen of Washington county and a resident of Forest Grove, has been at work for a score of years on an air ship. He has so far perfected his machine that it is exhibited to friends, and the Hillsboro Independent is promised a description of it for next week's issue.

H. S. Mercer, of Independence, says the West Side, has invented a machine for making gas, which he claims is absolutely safe, very inexpensive and will burn without smoke. He thinks he has a fortune in the invention and intends patenting it at once. He has a small model at work, which is a success.

Mrs. Hill-Terry.

Sarah Althea Hill-Terry, the "Rose of Sharon," whose beauty and cleverness once dazzled the whole country, whose name was a household word, whose every word was flashed across the continent, is now a hopeless, raving, aping, screaming maniac in the Stockton insane asylum in California, with thoughts about her ankles to restrain her from kicking her unfortunate mates to death. Physically, Mrs. Terry is about the same now as she was during the period after the assassination of Judge Terry. Her face is somewhat thinner and harder than it was then, but she is strong and hearty. She has changed so little in appearance that any one would recognize her instantly in a crowd. Her hair, which, by the way, has not changed the slightest in color, is quite long, reaching almost to the waist. Mrs. Terry wore a gingham wrapper, apparently fresh from the wash. Her face and hands, contrary to what might be expected from the reports that have been circulated, were as clean as the queen's.

Koshland Bros. Fail.

Koshland Bros., dealers in wool, hides and furs, the largest and oldest wholesale house on the Pacific coast, failed yesterday at Portland. The firm was one of more than twenty years' standing. The wholesale house, at 10 North Front street, and the entire warehouse holdings are now in the possession of the Bank of British Columbia, their only creditors.

Last evening Mr. Koshland made the following statement in regard to the failure: "My business is a total wreck. The trouble has been coming on for the past year. Everything in our line has been on the downward tendency. We had a big stock of goods on hand which was sold at a loss. We were deeply in debt to the Bank of British Columbia, and as we could not hold up any longer we simply turned over to them our entire business, which will be sufficient to satisfy their claims. The bank is our only creditor, and outside of it we don't owe any man a dollar. Our losses in the fire at Boston a year ago were pretty large, and that hastened the precipitation of the trouble."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Dan French has returned from Salem.

Mrs. Smith French arrived from Portland yesterday.

Robt. Rand, Hood River's popular hotel man is in the city today.

Rev. O. D. Taylor returned today from Portland, where he has been for the past week.

C. L. Phillips and family have returned to The Dalles, where they will hereafter reside.

Mr. J. J. Woolery, of lower 15-Mile, made this office a pleasant call today. He says they can take more rain if it will come and then not be complaining.

Taking Testimony.

Messrs. M. Mackenzie and M. Bohan, of Grant, were in the city yesterday for the purpose of testifying in the case of D. M. Osborne and Co. vs. Mackenzie & Somers, which is now pending. Attorneys Story and Riddell were busied all last evening in reducing their testimony to writing, to be used before the circuit court, at its next session at Moro.

Notice to Taxpayers.

All taxes not paid by the first Monday in April, which are now due, will be turned over to the county court.

The Telephone Line.

The county court has granted the franchise to The Dalles and Wamic Telephone line, incorporated by the Gordon company, on Feb. 23, 1893, in preference to the Roland Co. incorporated on March 8, 1893. The Gordon Co. propose to offer one half of the capital stock of their company to the people of the country traversed at par. This is certainly a generous proposition, and shows a good spirit. It is a well known fact that the telephone lines in operation in Eastern Oregon pay a dividend on the investment of over 100 per cent. per annum.

The new line will be 35 miles in length, touching at Dufur, Wamic, Kingsley and Tygh Valley. The projectors of the enterprise will commence putting in poles at once and expect to have the line in working operation by the first of June.

The officers are as follows: F. S. Gordon, president; F. M. Driver, Secretary; M. A. Gordon, Louis Dorris and F. M. Driver, board of directors.

Will Examine Our Claims.

The commission appointed to look after the location of the Eastern Oregon insane asylum will arrive in The Dalles on Tuesday and will for the day be the guests of the city. The mayor has appointed the following gentlemen to meet them and show them locations which would be suitable for the institution: Messrs. J. B. Condon, R. F. Gibbons, D. M. French, Emil Schanno, Geo. Liebe and Chas. Schmidt.

The Mignonettes.

Last evening the Mignonette Club paid court to Terpeichore, and managed to put in a very delightful evening. A large number were present who enjoy dancing. The evening was a counterpart of the Friday evenings that have preceded since the organization of the club. There will yet be two parties and then the Mignonette Club will be among the things of the past. Among the members out last evening were Judge and Mrs. G. C. Blakeley, Senator and Mrs. Chas. Hilton, Mr and Mrs L. E. Crowe, Mrs. M. French, Mr and Mrs D. Herrin, Miss VanVleck, Miss Lay, Misses Etta Story, Jennie and Grace Marden, Aimee Newman, Minnie Gosser, Emma Lay, Catherine Martin, Lulu Bird, Dr. Logan, Messrs M. Jameson, H. French, G. Mays, S. Campbell, F. Garrettson, G. Snowden, J. Worsley, F. Faulkner, W. McCrum, J. Montgomery, M. Donnell, J. Hertz, J. C. Coatsworth, H. Lonsdale.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a bilious look, if your stomach be disordered you have a dyspeptic look, and if your kidneys be affected you have a pinched look. Secure your health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative and tonic acts directly on these vital organs. Cures pimples, blotches, boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at Snipes & Kinersly's drugstore, 50c per bottle.

Some orchardists on Snake river estimate that while there will be a full yield of plums, cherries, apples and pears, there will not be more than half a crop of peaches.

CITY COUNCIL TONIGHT.

Special Meeting to Consider Sewers and Probably Board of Health.

A meeting of the city council will be held tonight to consider the matter of the sewer between Laughlin and Jefferson streets.

It is probable, also, that a board of health will be appointed, from the interest manifested at the last regular meeting. In reference to this matter a complaint has been made about privy vaults in the west part of town, which demands some sort of action, as it constitutes a great menace to the health of those who live near them. The ordinance relating to their being connected with sewers is all right, so far as the future is concerned, but the former accumulations of filth are not disposed of in the right manner, being simply covered up, and by the conditions of the ground are insoluble. When warm weather comes, the impurities will be brought to the surface and subject to the inhalation of all in the vicinity. It should be destroyed by chloride of lime and disposed of for good.

THOROUGHLY COMPLETE.

The Dry Goods Store of C. F. Stevens a Credit to the City.

The reporter was today shown through the store of C. F. Stevens on Second street, through the courtesy of the manager, Mr. Stevens. It contains everything conceivable to bewilder the masculine mind, but with the aid of a note book the task was not utterly hopeless.

In one window is attractively displayed a nice line of dress patterns of all shades and textures. Next week this window will be used for a display of laces and embroideries. Next to the window a number of shelves are devoted to the hosiery department, underneath are large drawers filled with laces and embroideries which cannot be exhibited, owing to space. The balance of the shelves for two-thirds the length of the store are filled with new and handsome dress goods all of late design, comprising satines, worsted goods, cloakings, calicos, challies, ginghams, white goods, anything, everything to suit the possible taste of a customer, whether rational or diseased, esthetic or morbid. Beyond are boxes of ladies' muslin and knit underwear.

An entire corner is devoted to ladies', men's and children's shoes. The shoe department comprises shoes, slippers, etc., of all the prominent makers and are of varied styles and prices.

The center of the store is devoted to clothing, and the line is very complete. Among them are the noted Albany woolen goods. In boxes are the famous custom-made suits of Steiner, Strauss & Heiman, leading California clothiers.

The entire west side of the store is devoted to shirts of all grades, gloves, cuffs, collars, handkerchiefs, gents' hose, suspenders, boys' and men's hats, the latter forming a department by itself.

The entire arrangement of the store is convenience exemplified, and the result has been accomplished by tireless perseverance on the part of Mr. Stevens and his efficient clerks. The store has recently been enlarged ten feet, owing to the demand for room.

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good; but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.
