GEO. MOREY ON TRIAL

For the Wilful Murder of Gus Barry in Portland.

FALLING WALLS IN CHICAGO, ILL.

A Family Buried in The Ruins--Other

News Notes, Domestic and Foreign.

PORTLAND, Or., March 15.—George Morey was taken to trial this morning for the murder of Gus Barry.

The crime was committed January 14, early in the morning, though Barry did not die till nearly a month ago. The circumstances of the case are about as follows: Barry lived on Clay street near Second, and with him and his wife lived Morey and Annie Wright, Mrs. Barry's sister. Barry and Morey had had words about the latter's conduct with Miss Wright, and consequently each disliked the other with intense bitterness.

On the morning in question, Morey went home under the influence of liquor. Barry and his wife had retired at an early hour, and were asleep when Morey arrived. According to Barry's antemortem statement and the statement of Mrs. Barry to the grand jury, he entered Barry's room and without a word to any one opened fire. Barry was immediately awakened by the report of the weapon, but was not injured. Instantly he jumped out of bed and ran toward the door, when Morey calmly cocked his revolver and fired again. This shot penetrated Barry's back, lodging in the vicinity of his kidneys.

The trial was called at 9:30 o'clock this morning before judge Munley, and the work of securing a jury was immediately begun. Morey was in court neatly dressed, and was attended by his mother, Mrs. Joyce, who is nearly 70 years old, and a very nice-looking old lady. The first body of twelve men were disposed of for cause and by the use of peremptories by 11 o'clock, and the sheriff was instructed to bring in 24 more talesmen.

The fact that the case has been so thoroughly advertised through the local press is largely in the way of the selection of a jury, and as not a single juror had been accepted up to 2 o'clock, the chances are favorable that no testimony will be taken today.

Crushed to Death.

CHICAGO, March 15.—Early this morning fire broke out in the picture frame factory of J. S. Chartier, on May street.

It was soon a roaring mass of flames, and simultaneously the front and one of the side walls fell outward. The bricks of the former struck and severely injured two firemen. The other fell on and crushed the Chartier dwelling next door, burying in the ruins five members of the family, consisting of J. S. Chartier, his wife, two daughters, Lillie and Rose, aged 10 and 12, and a nephew, Stephen. Of these, J. S. Chartier and his daughter, Lillie, were crushed to death, Stephen was severely and perhaps fatally injured, and the other two less seriously hurt. The financial loss is $60,000.

SACRAMENTO GOT LEFT.

Vote Will Be Taken on Moving the State Capital.

SACRAMENTO, March 15.—The California legislature adjourned sine die this morning at 5:48, after an all night session. The people of Sacramento made a last desperate attempt last night before the legislature adjourned to have the vote by which the question of moving the state capitol to San Jose was ### adopted reconsidered.

Sacramento was again defeated by a vote of 43 to 32, and the people will now vote on the question.

A special from Sacramento this morning says: "An open attempt at bribery characterized the closing hours of the legislature, but it was allowed to pass without rebuke, simply because the San Jose people did not care to push their out-and-injured Sacramento victims any harder than they had been. In brief, there was a 'sack' put into the capital fight by the Sacramento people at the very last moment. It was almost in plain sight, too, and a tremendous effort was made to persuade enough men in the assembly to reconsider the resolution adopting the constitutional amendment removing the legislature, but it was too open."

Chicago's Mayor.

CHICAGO, March 15.—Samuel Allerton, a big packer, was nominated for mayor by the republicans this afternoon. He is already the nominee of the people's party. The democratic nominee is ex-Mayor Carter H. Harrison. The threat of defection of the Germans from the democratic party adds interest to the contest, the Germans having been prominent in the movement which gave Illinois to the democrats at the late national election.

Lucky Mrs. Lease.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 15.—Mrs. Mary E. Lease has been elected president of the state board of charities at the request of Governor Lewelling.

The Chinese Exclusion Laws.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—A very dignified delegation was introduced to the president today by Bancroft Davis, recorder of the supreme court. It was composed of four bishops of the Episcopal church; the Right Reverend Faret of Maryland, Potter of New York, Whitaker of Pennsylvania and Hare of South Dakota. The object of the visit was to discuss with Mr. Cleveland the Chinese exclusion law with relation to its bearing on American interests in China. They said a strict enforcement of the law would be apt to endanger the property and lives of Americans. They told the president they came to him, not as the representatives of a church, but as citizens, and they had no suggestions to make, but had simply come to confer with him. The president told them he would do what he could, and the interview terminated.

Carnegie's Mammoth Press.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., March 15.—The Carnegie Steel company has ordered a new press for its plate-works at this place, an enormous piece of machinery, which will cost over $1,000,000 from Witworth & Co., of Manchester, England. It will be the largest piece of machinery of the kind in this country, and perhaps in the world. The press will have a capacity of 16,000 tons. The machinery will arrive here by the first of next year. It is claimed that by the aid of this machinery the company will be able to make the greatest forgings in the world, and a plate of 200 tons can be worked in one piece.
