Stray Bits of News Gathered From All Sources.

The boastful pug put on boxing gloves,
And in a loud tone said:
"I'm champion of all the little dogs, Will anyone spar with me?"
And the Maltese cat, from a safe place said,
"To spar with you I'll agree,
"Come down on the ground, then," said the pug,
"I'll fight you on the ground."
—St. Nicholas.

The salmon cannery's trust is broken, a result of yesterday's meeting in Portland.

St. Patrick's day—you recollect—"the gentleman that thriv all the shnakes out of Oirland."

The train due here at 3 o'clock yesterday morning did not arrive until 8 o'clock last night.

It has rained considerably here today but Portland has been subjected to a downpour seldom equalled.

We are in receipt of the first biennial report of the state reform school.
Thanks to the superintendent, W. W.
Smith.

A gentle rain began falling about 7 o'clock this morning and continued without cessation until after 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Our townsman, Oscar Grunert, has succeeded in raising a black lily, which is to the botanical what a white blackbird is to the ornithological kingdom.— Statesman.

Snowing at Kingsley today. This point is 2,600 feet higher than The Dalles, though not far away, and is more subject to the caprices of the storm king.

H. W. Wells, of Sherars Bridge, arrived today from Portland. A patent has just been granted him for his ranch, consisting of 80 acres, and this he has just sold to a Mr. Jones, of Portland, for $5,600.

Those who have reason to think that their eyes are defective should consult with Prof. Aloes at once at the Umatilla house. He is not a new optician to this section, having been here several years ago, and has a list of references of high standing wherever he goes.

The famous sugar pine belt of upper Rogue river is to have railroad connection soon with the Oregon and California Ry. This is as pretty a body of timber as there is in the world, there being, besides gigantic sugar pine trees, stately fir and yellow pine, often 100 feet to a limb.

The new county of Lincoln take a three mile strip from the southern end of Tillamook and contains an area of 760 square miles as against 670 in Benton.
Toledo, the temporary capital, of the new county, is to have a newspaper and other things of a growing nature.

The members of the legislature, while serving their short term of sixty days, were little tin gods on wheels and carried things with a very high hand. Since their return to their respective districts they have awakened to the fact that their day is gone and that the newspapers are now in session every day of the year and likely to continue so.— Walla Walla Statesman.

Gov. Pennoyer and Secretary Phil Metschan passed through this city this morning, enroute for the eastern part of the state for the purpose of selecting a location for a branch insane asylum.

A valuable document, evidently, was picked up on the street today and can be had by the owner at this office. It is addressed to Patrick Farrell, and dated Fort Douglass, Utah, May 20th, 1883, evidently some old army orders which have been preserved for evidence.

The Umatillas have a law among themselves that any of their number arrested for drunkenness shall have their hair cut short. The strange part of it is that those who were most energetic in making the law are now wearing their blankets close up to their hat brims.—Tribune.

Messrs. Dave McKelorey and Asa Whetstone called yesterday; they inform us that they have just finished plowing 100 acres and have it ready to sow spring grain on. As the weather is a little cool and there is nothing gained in early sowing, they came to the city with their teams and have secured freight for Haun and Freid, who are doing business at Muddy.

Where is Mulhatton?

The Walla Walla Statesman shows the story which has been going the rounds of the press about the skeletons of forty-three soldiers and their accompaniments being found in "Devil's Gulch," near "Abiquia," New Mexico, to be a fake. There is no such place as Abiquia, and Fort Mary and Espagnola, places where it is said the company had figured before they disappeared, have a like origin in the brain of some imaginative newspaper correspondent short of news. Now if somebody will reveal the true inwardness of the recent "earthquake at Umatilla," a kindness will be bestowed on a long-suffering public.

Bill Nye's Autobiography.

The following is an extract of Bill Nye's autobiography, "written by himself":

Edgar Wilson Nye was born in Maine in 1850, August 25th, but at two years of age he took his parents by the hand and telling them that Piscataquis county was no place for them, he boldly struck out for St. Croix county, Wisconsin, where the hardy young pioneer soon made a home for his parents. The first year he drove the Indians out of the St. Croix valley and suggested to the Northwestern railroad that it would be a good idea to build to St. Paul as soon as the company could get a grant which would pay them two or three times the cost of construction. The following year he adopted trousers and made $175 from the sale of wolf scalps.—Engene Guard.

Karl's Clover Root, the new blood purifier, gives freshness and clearness to the complexion and cures constipation.
25c., 50c. and $1.00. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists.

AN OLD MISSION.

Two Ladies Visit Its Former Site on the Academy Grounds.

Mrs. R. Wood of Santa Cruz, Calif., and Mrs. Filmore of Portland, visited this city yesterday and were the guests of Mrs. S. French. Mrs. Wood is a cousin of the Rev. Jason Lee, one of the early M. E. missionaries to Oregon in 1836. The ladies visited the spot where one of the first missionary stations was built, out in the western frontier in the early days. There is now nothing left to mark its former site but a depression in the ground a few yards south of the academy building. This was the cellar of the building, the latter being destroyed by fire many years ago. In point of fact there was little to be seen, but while the ladies were looking at it, imagination reared for itself the uncouth walls, the lumber of which was cut with whip-saws. Imagination, too, supplied the interior with the first early Christian workers, and the grounds adjoining with savage idlers, gaudily painted or feather-bedecked, listlessly standing around or sitting within the friendly shade of the pioneer mission. Thus will time efface all traces of a previous order of existence.
Thus have the highest civilizations been buried in the annals of the past. Time will crumble the pyramids to dust, fire will burn history, as at Alexandria, eruptions will bury communities, as at Pompeii and Herculaneum, and who will deny that any of the nations now existing on the face of the earth will some day be known to earth no more?

Salem Congregationalists.

Rev. P. S. Knight, for many years pastor of the Congregational church in Salem, has been called to the pastorate again. He has accepted for a term of three months in which time it is expected that a permanent engagement can be secured. Mr. Knight was at one time dismissed from this pastorate, owing to a hankering for a more polished incumbent, a sort of a religio-society leader.
From the reported developments it is supposed that they were successful in this respect, though the morality of some of the lady members may have suffered by the exchange, the church losing prestige and membership remarkably fast. A heroic measure was adopted in the endeavor to regain Knight, and Christlike humility and forgiveness finds no more fitting example in the fact that Mr. Knight will resume his pastorate and endeavor to regain what was lost by his successor's perfidious conduct.

Announcement From Mrs. Blaine.

The following statement is published by request:
17 MADISON PLACE WASH-INGTON, D. C., Feb. 1, '93.
The public advertisements of many "Biographies of James G. Blaine," pretending to be "authentic" and "authoritative" compel me to state that no biography or "Life and Work of Mr.
Blaine" is authorized or approved by myself or by any member of Mr.
Blaine's family; that no manuscript by Mr. Blaine or any private letter or paper of Mr. Blaine, or any material for biography has been given out to any one. If in the future any "authentic" or "authorized" biography should be prepared by competent authors, it will be authenticated and authorized by myself.
HARRIET S. BLAINE.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to thank the members of the A. O. U. W. lodge for their kindly interest manifested during my recent bereavement; also to all the friends whose sympathy and acts tended to lessen the blow caused by the death of my husband.
MRS. MAX MYER.
Shiloh's cure, the Great Cough and Croup Cure, is for sale by Snipes & Kin-ersly. Pocket size contains twenty-five

Resolutions.

WHEREAS, in the dispensation of His providence it has pleased the Divine Ruler to remove from our midst our beloved brother Max Meyer, therefore be it RESOLVED, that in his death Temple Lodge, Ancient Order of United Workmen, has lost an earnest and faithful brother, and his family a loving husband and faithful father, and, Resolved, that the sincere and heartfelt sympathy of the lodge be extended to the family in this, their sad bereavement, and the charter of this lodge be draped in mourning for 30 days.
Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and that a copy be furnished The Dalles papers for publication, and that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the lodge.

WINANS

THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large eighty lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil, pure cold water and shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort and for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is also unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 150 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse power in its rushing streams and waterfalls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufactories will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment
