London as a Center.
The city of London is put down by geographers as the center of the landed hemisphere. In other words, a radius of about 6,000 miles on the curved surface of the earth, with London as a center, would describe a circumference enclosing more land than any 6,000 mile circle that could be drawn from any other city in the world.—Exchange.

The strongest recommendation that any article can have is the endorsement of the mothers of the town. When the mothers recommend it you may know that that article has more than ordinary merit. Here is what the Centerville, South Dakota, Citizen says editorially of an article sold in their town: "From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our children. We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times its cost, and are recommending it every day." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

American paper is fast supplanting that of English make in Australia, owing to its superior quality and cheapness. One mill in New York state has permanent orders from that country to supply 6,000 tons annually.

Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right today; and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

And Still We Have Dyspepsia.
Scientists assure us that upward of 5,000,000 minute glands are constantly at work in our stomachs secreting gastric juice.—New York Journal.

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good; but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

The Sailors' Friend.
Mr. Samuel Plimmsoll still keeps to his house in Park lane, and is far from well, but he has sufficiently recovered himself to be able to write a letter claiming one result—or rather the want of result—of the recent storm to legislation. Has there ever been remembered, he asks, a gale of equal suddenness, violence and duration which was not the cause of very, very much greater loss of life than that recorded of the gale which has recently passed away?

A year and eight months ago, when he was fervently urging the government to assist in passing the load line bill, it was shown that the deplorable loss of life at sea from overloading was entirely preventable, and that the passing of the bill would immediately check it, while, when the act was steadily and uniformly administered, this head of loss would disappear. He points triumphantly to the recent gale for confirmation.—Liverpool (Eng.) Mercury.

Banish the Collar Stud.
When a man has so far gone to the bad with a stiff neck that he can't look at a pretty girl across the street, and when it grows worse and worse, until he has to hang his head out of the side of his bed when he sleeps ask him if he wears a collar button, and if he does advise him to discard it. A man in our town has discovered that the collar stud digging into the back of the neck paralyzes his brain forces and makes his head refuse to turn. Sew a plain pearl button on the back of your shirt, and be happy.

At any rate there's no torture under a coat collar that is harder to bear than the collar button under a winter overcoat's extra weight digging into the very zenith and funnybone of your spinal column. Physicians say it is a sure cure of the grip to discard the collar stud and sew on a button.—Lewis-ton Journal.

It Should Be in Every House.
J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpshurg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "la grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kinersly's. Large bottles, 50c. and $1.00.

Blackwell's Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco

Has been popular with smokers everywhere for over twenty-five years.
It is Just as Good Now as Ever.
Its FLAVOR, FRAGRANCE and PURITY have contributed largely to the growing popularity which pipe smoking enjoys. Pipe smoking is growing in favor because finer, sweeter and better tobacco can be had in this form and at much less cost than in cigars.
