OXFORD WINS AGAIN

The Greatest Race Ever Seen in England.

ALL PREVIOUS TIME SURPASSED Was a Great Struggle From Start to Finish—Both Crews in Excellent Trim.

LONDON, March 22.—Today for the fiftieth time the crews of Oxford and Cambridge sat in their shells on the Thames and rowed for dear life, and Oxford won her 27th victory. The course was the historic stretch between Putney and Mortlake, four and a quarter miles.
Each side of the river was lined with tugs, barges, wherries and all manner of craft, accommodating sightseers. Ashore and afloat was a gay show of bunting.
Along the course balconies were filled with gaily dressed ladies. The start took place from Stone Road bridge at Putney. Cambridge won the toss and chose the Surrey side. The tide was running strongly with a slight wind.
All being in readiness the official starter fired a pistol, and amid the shouts of admirers and the hooting and screaming of steam whistles and sirens, the crews shot upstream. Yells of excitement and shouts of encouragement to both crews arose along the course as the boats came in sight, and as they passed craft of every kind to be seen on the Thames closed in behind and crowded after. At Clasper's boathouse Cambridge was leading by three feet. In the last half of the race Oxford forged ahead. At the three-quarters point Oxford was six feet in advance, and led by a yard at Chis-wick Eyot, about 2 1/4 miles from the start. They maintained the lead to the end, and won by 2 1/2 lengths. The race was of added interest this year by reason of the prospective appearance of these famous crews in America against Harvard or Yale. So a comparison of the time made at home and abroad becomes a matter of importance. In the four-mile race, Harvard and Yale have never equalled the time made by Oxford last year. In 1888 the distance was covered in 20:10.

Oxford's time was 18:47. The time of the race is the best ever made over the course. The best previous time was that of Oxford last year, 19 minutes 21 seconds.

The Blaine Family.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The Blaine family will remove in the spring from the historic old house on Lafayette Square. Mrs. Blaine returned here a few days ago from New York, and, although the family gives no intimation to the outside world as to the object of that trip, it is surmised to have been in connection with the offer recently made by Mrs. U. S. Grant to purchase the property. The family will leave Washington early in May and go abroad for a year's residence. The Bar Harbor place will be leased. Mrs. Blaine's plan is to go direct to London and take a house in the suburbs. She will be accompanied by Miss Hattie Blaine, J.
G. Blaine, jr., and the Coppinger boys.
It is possible that Mrs. Emmons Blaine may join them. The greater portion of the year's absence from this country will be spent in London.

Chicago Reaching Out to Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, March 22.—Representatives of Chicago capitalists are here to arrange for an extensive packing house. They expect to receive concessions from the government. Branch houses will be established in the principal cities of Mexico. The greater portion of Mexico's supply of live and dressed pork comes from Chicago and Kansas City. An effort is to be made to encourage the production of hogs in this country.

Missouri Pacific.

NEW YORK, March 22.—The annual election of officers of the Missouri Pacific was held at noon. The following were elected: President, S. H. H.
Clark; first vice-president, George J.
Gould; second vice-president, C. G.
Warner; secretary and treasurer, C. H.
Calef. The same officers were elected for the Iron Mountain road.

Presidential Nominations.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The president has sent the following nominations: John S. Seymour, of Connecticut, commissioner of patents.
Silas W. Lamoreaux, of Wisconsin, commissioner of the general land office.
William H. Sims, of Mississippi, first assistant secretary of the interior.
Edward A. Bowers, of Washington, D. C., assistant commissioner of the general land office.
Henry C. Bell, second deputy commissioner of pensions.
H. H. Lurton, of Tennessee, United States circuit judge of the sixth judicial circuit.
Frank E. White, United States marshal, Nebraska.

Max Judd, of Missouri, consul-general at Vienna.

Oregon's Delegation of Seekers.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The expected arrival of Dan Murphy and other anxious aspirants for office from Oregon, today, created something of a flurry among the colony in this city. Murphy wants to be district attorney. Emanuel Myers wants to succeed Jim Lotan.
With the exception of Robert A. Miller, of Jacksonville, who aspires to succeed Minister Thompson at Constantinople, the Oregon delegation is not reaching out very much for large positions, confining its attentions mostly to places in Oregon and Alaska. Senator Dolph called today on the president and introduced W. T. Muir. A big fight is being made for appraiser of Portland, as the present incumbent has served four years.
Tony Noltner has the inside track.
Samuel Adair, of Astoria, and Henry Blackman, of Heppner, both filed applications in the treasury department today, one for collector of Portland, and the other for collector of internal revenue.

California's Floods.

STOCKTON, Cal., March 22.—The water fell about three feet during the night, and continues falling this morning. The sun is shining brightly, and one can walk through town on the sidewalk without getting his feet wet. There are a great many breaks in the levee in Rough and Ready and Roberts' islands.
The loss is very heavy. All the streams are falling, and no more trouble is anticipated. Business is resumed, and everything is moving along in the usual way.

Want to Extend Their Trade.

CITY OF MEXICO, March 22.—President Diaz is very anxious to establish closer trade relations between Mexico and Central and South American countries.
To this end he has sent an authorized commissioner to those countries to bring the matter before those governments.

tion, or money refunded. Price 25 cents ersly.

THE DALLES MARKETS.

THURSDAY, March 23.—The movement in trade has been quiet during the past week. Prices in general have been firm and steady. The greater amount of business has been confined to groceries and provisions.

The dry goods dealers complain of dull times, and that trade in their line, is very slack and unsatisfactory.

The produce market is getting short of supply, and with the increasing demand for all kinds of garden products, prices are higher. Cabbage may be quoted at 2 cents per lb. and the parsnip and turnip supply is nearly exhausted and are dearer. Potatoes and onions are in good stock and maintain their usual quotations. In seed potatoes, such as Early Rose, Goodrich and all the early varieties, there is said to be a scarcity, and prices for them are said to be at a sharp advance over ordinary grades.

Eggs are scarcer and sellers are offered 15 to 16 cents per dozen in trade.

Butter is more plentiful and fresh roll is quoted at 35 to 50 cents per roll.

Poultry is scarce and buyers offer $4 to $5 per dozen.

Green apples are very scarce and $1.75 to $2.00 per box is offered for common to choice.

Feed, grain and hay have not changed in quotations, and the supply exceeds the demand.

The wool outlook for 1893 is for a larger clip, and prices will not vary much from those of last year. Those putting their wool on the market earliest will probably get top prices, as the late wool market seldom is satisfactory.

WORLD'S WHEAT CROP.

The last monthly report from the department of agriculture announces that at present prospects indicate a wheat crop for 1893 of 2,347,968,035 bushels.
This is an immense figure, and so many bushels could only be counted in aggregate. If the estimate finally comes within 100,000,000 of this it will be considered a fair guess.

The department has a system by which it can tell very nearly what each country can produce. By this table the calculation is made. Thus it is as reliable as any forecast can be. Conditions of seasons may yet change this total by decreasing or increasing it materially.
Wheat is the most important grain raised because it is the chief food staple. When the population of the world is considered, these two and a third billions of bushels do not seem so immeasurable in quantity. How quickly a diminishing in the supply is felt is shown by the high prices in wheat in 1891. The world must have it for food even if it cost a third more than the usual figure. Its failure in a locality that depends upon it is even worse. Russia's famine illustrates this. A great section that raises this crop alone was left almost without a berry of the grain, and the whole world was agonized with the awful stories of thousands dying of starvation upon the vast plains of that empire.

When the United States would again rejoice to see its farmers reap the benefits of high prices, yet it would be brutal to desire this by a repetition of another such experience in Russia. All good men must wish that these 2,347,968,035 bushels include a fair return from that land.

Chinese Exclusion.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Secretary Carlisle has replied to certain inquiries, as to whether he will enforce the provisions of the Chinese exclusion act, as follows: "As the act of May 6th, 1892, entitled 'an act to prohibit the coming of Chinese persons into the United States,' has not been repealed, it will be enforced so far as lies within the power of this department. Section 14 of the act approved May 6th, 1892, entitled 'an act to execute certain treaty stipulations relating to Chinese,' provides that 'hereafter no state court of the United States shall admit Chinese to citizenship, and all laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.' This provision of the law being in full force, the naturalization of Chinese is therefore illegal. Chinese merchants established in business in the United States, who may depart therefrom with the intention of returning thereto, will be permitted to land upon submission to the collector of customs at the port of first arrival of evidence sufficient to satisfy him of their identity as such returning merchants. Chinese persons not of the exempt class, as for instance laundry-men, residing in the United States, and who may depart therefrom, will not be permitted to return."

Blount's Powers.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Commissioner Blount has gone to Honolulu clothed with extraordinary authority.
Should any trouble arise on the islands pending his investigation, the naval commanders and Minister Stevens will be expected to follow his advice. He has discretionary orders, it is said, to decide after his arrival whether a continuance of the temporary protectorate is desirable and whether the American sailors should be continued on shore.
