BEHRING SEA MUDDLE
Court of Arbitration Met in Paris Yesterday.
ALL MEMBERS WERE PRESENT
Journal of the Proceedings Will Be Kept in English and French— Developments.

Paris, March 23.—The court of arbitration to adjust the differences between Great Britain and the United States over the Behring sea fisheries met today. All the members of the court were present. Develle, the French minister of foreign affairs, made a short speech welcoming the members of the court, agents and counsel. The meeting was purely formal. Credentials were presented and the court was organized by the election of Baron de Courcelles as president. It was decided to meet at 11:30 a. m. each day and sit 4½ hours daily. The meetings were to be open to members of the press, to whom cards should be issued. The court then adjourned until April 4th, in order to examine the printed arguments of the United States and Great Britain, which will then be presented. These printed arguments are to be submitted to the American congress and the British parliament probably next week, and then made public. The debates of the court of arbitration will be held in English, and the journal of proceedings will be kept in French with an English version. All the members of the court today made general formal visits to President Carnot; Hon. L. J. Coolidge, American minister; and the Marquis of Dufferin.

Death in the Flames.
CLEVELAND, O., March 23.—Shortly before 12 o'clock today fire broke out in the Morgan, a fashionable apartment-house on Prospect street, near Granger. The engines responded quickly, but before help arrived the building was enveloped in flames and smoke, and a terrible panic ensued. All that can be learned at this writing, is that four women and a baby were burned to death, and several others more or less suffocated in the smoke. The house was a handsome one of three stories. The central hall runs through the building with rooms on either side. The only escape was by way of the front stairs. Those in the third story had no time to get their goods together, and before they were aware of any fire they were surrounded with flames and smoke. The scene was a terrible one, and the excitement and consternation of those in safety who were unable to aid the suffering women was great. The firemen worked heroically. The second alarm was given and every effort made to rescue those still in the burning building. The body of the first woman found was that of Mrs. Sommers, a blind lady, who had groped her way to the stairs, only to die. Three other women, with a little child, were all found lying on the floor of the second story in the front hall dead, suffocated by smoke. Their bodies were huddled together but it was evident from their positions that they had died without pain. The fire started, no one knows how, in the basement, and the building is a total loss.

Dec's Eve Battle to be Fought.
VALPARAISO, March 23.—A correspondent in Ortigas denies the story that General Tavares, leader of the revolution in Rio Grande do Sul, was chased into Uruguay and then disarmed. The correspondent telegraphs that Tavares and a large body of revolutionist troops are hurrying toward Bage, and he expresses the opinion that the last stand will be made there. He believes that the battle to be fought there will settle the fate of the revolution.

No decision has been reached by the government of Argentina in regard to the treaty with Chili on the boundary question. The correspondent in Buenos Ayres says the government is awaiting a fuller explanation from Commissioner Virazco. A meeting, attended by the president, vice-president members of the cabinet, and Messrs. Roca, Mitre and Pellegrini, was held today, at which the sentiments expressed were favorable to the treaty, and it will probably be ratified. It is hinted, however, that congress may review the government's action.

A Missionary Nearly Murdered.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—According to Korean advices by the steamer Gaelic, Father M. Jozeau, a Catholic missionary, was terribly maltreated by a mob recently. He was passing on foot through the market town of Kinchien, accompanied by a teacher and a boy. As soon as the crowd recognized him there were shouts of "Kill the foreigner," "Stone him." The natives threw themselves upon him, knocked him down and kicked him unmercifully. After the mob had torn out his beard they beat him, and then tried to bury him alive in the sand. At last, somewhat alarmed at the consequences of a murder, always a serious matter in Korea, the mob dispersed, leaving the missionary and his companions half dead on the ground.

Prince David Pleased.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Prince David Kawanankoa, of the Hawaiian islands, accompanied by E. C. McFarlane and suite, arrived in this city from Washington late last night. Prince David expressed himself as thoroughly pleased with the prospects of a speedy settlement of the Hawaiian question. He enthusiastically stated that he had full confidence in the present administration, which would doubtless render a favorable decision in the matter. They will proceed to Honolulu by the next steamer. Paul Neumann, the ex-queen's envoy, is expected to arrive from Washington today.

The Standard Oil Monopoly.
NEW YORK, March 23.—Shippers and brokers are in trouble because the Standard Oil company refuse to sell them oil or quote prices to them. The brokers have orders from abroad, but cannot fill them. Many oil ships and tank steamers are waiting to get a cargo. It is said the Standard Oil company intends to monopolize the foreign oil trade, and with that object is fast accumulating a fleet of steamers.

Rejoicing Over the Caravels.
HAVANA, March 23.—The arrival here of the Columbus caravels, Nina and Pinta, were made the occasion of great rejoicing. Last night the residence of the general of marine was brilliantly illuminated, as were also the war ships in the harbor. Thousands of people visited the caravels during the day and night. American and Spanish flags were displayed everywhere upon the shipping, and officers of American warships were the recipients of many courtesies.

An Oregon Man Killed.
SACRAMENTO, March 23.—Last Friday E. J. Winslow, a horse-trainer of Umatilla, Or., was struck on a bridge near Gault by a passenger train. He was taken to the county hospital, where he died. A few days ago a tramp was arrested here on suspicion of having knocked Winslow senseless for the purpose of robbery, and then having placed the body on the bridge.

Millions in Land.
MUSCATINE, Ia., March 23.—The Iowa & Oregon Land Company, with a capital stock of $2,000,000, was organized here today by 12 of the principal lumbermen of the Mississippi valley. The object of the company will be to handle a tract of 850,000 acres of Oregon land which is richly timbered. Farming and grazing lands in the tract are to be leased and lumber mills erected on the timber land.

Oregon Pacific Reduces Rates.
CORVALLIS, Or., March 23.—The Oregon Pacific announces a rate of 5 cents per 100 on all kinds of freight from Portland to all Willamette river points as far south as Corvallis and will make a rate of 7½ cents per 100 on nails in car-load lots, from San Francisco to Portland, and a 11-cent rate to all points reached by its lines. It does not mean to allow its territory to be taken without a fight.

In Memory of Jay Gould.
ROXBURY, N. Y., March 23.—A new stone memorial church will soon be erected here by the children of the late Jay Gould, in memory of their deceased father. It will be presented to the Presbyterian congregation whose church was burned a year ago.

He Wants to Be Fired.
WASHINGTON, March 23.—Secretary Carlisle has requested the resignation of J. M. Patterson, second auditor of the treasury. Patterson declines to resign. The secretary has accepted the resignation of W. D. Owens, superintendent of immigration.

After Law Violators.
When the fish and game warden, H. D. McGuire, was up here last week he lodged complaint against a number of persons residing up against the McKenzie on a charge of unlawfully killing elk. It is reported that half a dozen men or more are implicated, and that the affair took place while the heavy snow was on the ground. The elk gathered around a spring or watering place, and the men gathered there and drove them out and had no trouble in overtaking them in the deep snow and killing them. In this way a large number are said to have been slaughtered. Gainey Mathews has been sent up to investigate the matter and expects to bring several parties back with him. If the report is true the parties deserve to be well punished, and no doubt will be. It is time the law in respect to the protection of game law is being enforced.
LAYER.—Mathews returned last night with C. D. Mulford, Dr. Barr and a man named Thompson, whom he arrested on this charge. Two of the Powell boys were also arrested but could not be brought down.—Eugene Guard.

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good; but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

The strongest recommendation that any article can have is the endorsement of the mothers of the town. When the mothers recommend it you may know that that article has more than ordinary merit. Here is what the Centerville, South Dakota, Citizen says editorially of an article sold in their town: "From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our children. We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times its cost, and are recommending it every day." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
