MARCH MELANGE.

Stray Bits of News Gathered From All Sources.

He told her of his high estate As he sought her love to gain; He boasted of his Norman blood...

A model spring day. The mercury announced 60 degrees at 1 o'clock.

J. F. Johnson has been appointed postmaster at Pendleton.

A general sickness resembling la grippe is reported from Mosier.

A carload of Chinamen passed through to Taffe's fishing grounds today.

A force of men are at work upon the big trestle below the Umatilla house.

The "Deestrick Skule" will rehearse this evening at 8 p. m. at the Methodist church.

The river rose 8-tenths in the last twenty-four hours. It is now two feet and a half above zero level.

The regular meeting of the city council will be held on Saturday night, instead of Monday as heretofore.

The contractors on the Judge Bradshaw residence are at work excavating for the foundation and getting material on the ground.

J. J. Cozart of Canyon city is here with 27 head of fine young horses, which may be seen at the City stables. He will ship them below.

Seven thousand fruit trees will be planted on Switzer island, near Pendleton, this spring, together with 10,000 grape vines. Water will be pumped from the Columbia for irrigating purposes.

Att'y. H. S. Wilson was observed this morning piling and burning green apple boughs. He said he was going to stay with the job until it was done. It is probable he has changed his mind by this time, and turned the job over to an expression.

Chameleon-like, Mexico, adjoining the United States on the south, has assumed its political complexion, caused by the accession of the democratic party into power, on the tariff question, and now admits corn free of duty.

Mr. B. S. Huntington received yesterday a large light Brahma rooster from J. M. Gunnison. The sire of this fowl was imported from the Eastern states by Mr. Gunnison and cost, besides transportation, $50. Mr. Huntington has a fine flock of light Brahmas in which he takes much pride.

Mr. Polk Butler, of Nansene, is in the city. He reports the weather cool and the season backward; that the grain and grass are growing slowly and stock are doing well. He deboned 150 head of cattle about a couple of weeks ago and they are in fine condition on the range. The prospects for a large and heavy yield of grain has not been so good for years as the present promises.

"Why do you sign your name J. John B. B. Bronson?" asked Hawkins. "Because it is my name," said Bronson. "I was christened by a minister who stuttered."

A civil action to recover money upon an open account was heard before L. S. Davis, justice of the peace, this afternoon. John L. Thompson is plaintiff vs. John H. Baker and wife, defendants.

A proposed feature of the grand encampment at Pendleton is to form a little army of 300 school children, with baskets of flowers for weapons, to march in front of the veterans in the parade, and adorn their pathway with a floral shower.

They are getting tired of rain in Astoria. The Herald says: "The sun only shone one minute last week. It came out to see if Frank O'Bruno was drunk, and then went back. Scientists predict that the sun will again be visible for a few moments in August, but many think it is only imagination."

At the lost river hot springs, not far from Olene, can be seen thousands of suckers, or mullets, piled up dead and dying. They are, it is alleged, killed by the hot water. There they lie "by the millions," our informants tell us. In course of time not many of these dead fish are to be seen—most of them being drawn down and away by the current. Klamath Star.

Lung Destroyers. The law against minors smoking cigarettes is being enforced in Portland. The Oregonian of yesterday morning tells of the arrest of Martin Hickey, 18 years old, who was arrested on the street by an officer.

There is a national movement perceptible against the deadly cigarette which is eminently fitting if the United States would preserve the vigor of their youth. Washington has passed sumptuary laws and the general government is framing legislation to apply to all the states in the union. It is hence the duty of local officers to enforce the law at The Dalles whenever they see it broken, and the task will be made easier now that Portland has broken the ice.

Fine Fish. J. D. Whitman, the manager of the Lost River cannery, was in town Monday night. He says that he has put up 700 cans, enough to test the marketable qualities of the fish, and is drying nearly 7,000, which will require about a month's time to completely cure. He is well satisfied with the undertaking and believes the Lost River product to be the best food fish ever prepared for market. He sent a number of packages of fresh fish to Medford people who are delighted with their flavor.—Klamath Express.

Never Kick a Skunk. Strange that an Indian don't know when a skunk has got the drop on him! Wednesday morning as Justice Robinson was leading a hot skunk across the church-house bridge to be shot, an Indian stole up behind the animal and kicked him. The next moment the Indian fell with his wet face toward the cold North and his heels toward Siskiyou county. He is another unfortunate who didn't know it was loaded.—Klamath Star.

Young Folks. Prof. Aloes has done wonderful work for the young folks of this city, aged ten to eighteen years. Remember only one week more.

A Brave Soldier.

Boyd, Or., March 27th, 1893.

Mr. Editor:

By your permission, we would like to chronicle the startling news of a brave soldier's action. As Mr. C. B. Cockerline, a militiaman belonging to company A, was going yesterday on an errand from Boyd postoffice to Mr. Bolton's, he was startled by the sight of a man lying in the road before him, apparently dead or in terrible distress. As he approached within about 120 feet he began to turn white in the face, and in an instant he ran the spurs in his horse's side and started back on the dead run to tell the people at the store of the startling news. He reached the store out of breath, and then he led the way back toward the man, with his brother and Mr. Smith following him. When they approached the man proved to be Mr. George Rice, who saw him coming and threw himself down to try the soldier's grit. The soldier says he will return the joke of a soldier's retreat from a dead man. Moses.

Remains Exhumed.

Messrs. Crandall & Burget, undertakers, completed the exhuming of the remains of Mrs. C. J. Curtis today, and they will be taken to Seattle by this afternoon's train, under the supervision of Mr. L. Curtis, a son of the deceased. The casket was in good condition and really sound, not being decayed at all. The remains have been interred twelve years, and will be laid beside her husband in Seattle, who died about a month ago. Mr. C. J. Curtis was the O. R. & N. Co. master mechanic the company's machine shops in this city for a number of years.

Joseph Y. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good; but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

Card of Thanks.

We desire through this medium to extend our sincere thanks to our friends, whose kind sympathy and help was extended during the illness and death of our little girl.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN ELTON.

Strength and Health. If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If "la grippe" has left you weak and weary, use Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on liver, stomach and kidneys, gently aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with sick headache, you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50c. at Snipes & Kinnersly's drug store.

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. M. McEntree, roadmaster, and A. J. Borie were east-bound passengers today.

Benj. Robeson, of the Oregon City Mfg. Co., residing in Portland, is in town today.

J. S. Hunter, Chas. Frather, and W. E. Husky came in from Mosier on today's passenger.

Mrs. M. Wilkerson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Blakeley, has returned to her home in Portland.

Dr. Rinehart went to Arlington on the noon train, where he was called to amputate a boy's leg. He will return tomorrow.

Hon. W. H. Biggs, of Wasco, is in town. He substantiates the numerous reports hitherto given in regard to the condition of stock.

Mr. C. A. Fisher, father of Mrs. I. I. Burget, returned to his home in Iowa last Sunday eve, after a visit of six months with his daughter. Mr. Fisher is much pleased with this part of Oregon and will return as soon as he can dispose of his valuable property in the Hawkeye state.

Nester, Wm Morris, Wm Richard, Portland; David Hearney, John Thomas, Pendleton; H. C. Deiro, Baker City; C. H. Smart, Grass Valley; C. G. Green, Wm Bevers, Collins Landing; J. Backus, Hood River; M. Moet, Duir.

Speculation Party.

Miss Maie Williams entertained a few of her most intimate friends last evening at a "speculation party," and from the confident manner in which some of the young people speculated it was evident they had no misgivings as to their success. Among the many prizes won was a typical "red man," who must have been imbibing freely, as Deputy Marshal Jameson carried him off. Mr. H. French came out ahead of all the gentlemen in his speculations and was presented with a nicely-bound book, while Miss Marden has less dread of the warm weather, having won a beautiful fan. Lunch was scarcely over before all were more than pleased at the familiar sound of the mandolin and guitar. Miss Maie then sang two of the sweetest solos the company have been privileged to hear for some time, and after singing, dancing, conversation, etc., the jolly crowd were compelled by the lateness of the hour to disband.

Talk's cheap, but when it's backed up by a pledge of the hard cash of a financially responsible firm, or company, of world-wide reputation for fair and honorable dealing, it means business!

Now, there are scores of sarsaparillas and other blood-purifiers, all cracked up to be the best, purest, most peculiar and wonderful, but bear in mind (for your own sake), there's only one guaranteed blood-purifier and remedy for torpid liver and all diseases that come from bad blood.

That one—standing solitary and alone—sold on trial, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

If it doesn't do good in skin, scalp and scrofulous diseases—and pulmonary consumption is only lung-scrofula—just get its makers know and get your money back.

Talk's cheap, but to back a poor medicine, or a common one, by selling it on trial, as "Golden Medical Discovery" is sold, would bankrupt the largest fortune. Talk's cheap, but only "Discovery" is warranted.

MARRIED.

On the 26th inst, by Rev. W. H. Wilson, at his residence, Arthur H. Beal, and Agnes D. Cooper, all of Wasco county, Oregon. The best wishes of their many friends go with them to their home on Mill Creek.

DIED.

At Morrow, Wisconsin, March 20th, Washington Hill, aged 74 years. Deceased was the father of Mrs. J. B. Condon of this city. He attained his 74th birthday Sunday, and died the following Monday.
