MR BLOUNT AT HAWAII

People of Honolulu Turn Out en Masse to Receive Him.

HE REFUSED TO BE INTERVIEWED

The Objects of His Mission Still Remain a Secret--Annexation Clubs Formed.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—[Correspondence Associated Press, Honolulu, March 29.]—The past two weeks have been fruitful of political matters. The general lethargy of the Hawaiians prior to March 4th has given away to action. The Civil Rights League and the Hawaiian Patriotic League have held frequent mass meetings, at which either annexation or disfranchisement were the respective subjects of denunciation. On the evening of March 21st, the day before the arrival of the steamship Australia with the news that the annexation treaty had been shelved, a meeting of white residents, numbering fully 1,500, was held, at which an annexation club was formed, which now has 1,200 members, and speeches were made by some of the most prominent men in Honolulu. Robert Wilcox, editor of the Liberal, was made one of the vice-presidents of the club, and was the only Hawaiian who prominently allied himself with the meeting. The honor was practically forced upon Wilcox, who had hitherto considered that his influence would be greater among the natives if he held aloof from open demonstrations.

The United States revenue cutter Rush arrived here this morning, nine days from San Francisco, having on board ex-Congressman Blount, of Georgia, who was appointed commissioner to investigate the existing conditions in Hawaii, and report as to the expediency of annexation of the islands to the United States. As soon as the cutter was sighted off Koko head, at 9 a. m., the business men went to work, and in a short time the streets and buildings were covered with flags and bunting. The townspeople turned out en masse, and by 11 o'clock, when the Rush anchored in Naval Bow, the docks and streets were crowded. The mail steamer Anstralia which was scheduled to leave at noon, was held back and from her deck the band of the provisional government welcomed the new arrivals with the strains of the "Star Spangled Banner." A delegation from the Annexation Club was hastily formed and welcomed the commissioner at the boat landing. A party of about 75 Hawaiian women from the woman's branch of the Hawaiian Patriotic League, bearing the American and Hawaiian flags, also proceeded to the dock. Dr. J. S. McGrew, chairman, and Professor Scott and General Hartwell, as a committee from the Annexation Club; United States Minister E. F. Hastings, secretary of the foreign office and aid to President Dole; Major Robertson, the queen's chamberlain, and newspaper correspondents put off to the Rush to pay their respects to the commissioner. The news that but one person had been sent in that capacity to the islands soon spread to the shore and occasioned much surprise. Commissioner Blount declined to be interviewed for publication, but from casual conversation it would seem that his labors here may cover a period of several weeks. The Rush will probably return to San Francisco in the meantime. Commissioner Blount did not leave the steamer for several hours, and consequently the reception by the Hawaiian League and Annexation Club did not take place. The Rush brought dispatches from Washington to Admiral Skerrett, and also to the provisional government, but the nature of them could not be learned. After the first feeling of surprise had passed away, an expression of satisfaction at the personnel of the commission prevailed among the annexationists. The Rush brought no mail from the states, and the arrival of the Rio Janeiro, which is expected to put in here tomorrow on her way to China, is awaited for further particulars as to the sentiment in America.

high position which he occupies in the esteem of the citizens of this city is all in his favor. There is a doubtful feeling in the minds of the Allen men, regarding the probabilities of United States senate seating Mr. Allen. It is reported that the Union Pacific are soon to place their line of steamers again on the Sound. It will be remembered that the Union Pacific withdrew their line of steamers upon payment by the Northern Pacific to the Union Pacific of quite a large sum of money monthly. This will increase the business of the Sound country.

ELECTRIC FLASHES.
 Returns from Kansas show the republicans have scooped the state. There has been a strong change of sentiment against the populists.
 J. W. Shiverly, of Astoria died Tuesday morning at Astoria. He came to Oregon in 1843. He was born April 2d, 1804. He willed all his property, amounting to about $200,000, to his son two years ago.
 A fierce forest fire is raging in the pine woods near Raleigh, N. C. Many people owning turpentine orchards are ruined. One man has lost 2,000 acres of trees. The town of West End is nearly wiped out.
 Thomas F. Crittenden of Missouri has been nominated consul-general to Mexico. Crittenden is best known as the man who, as governor of Missouri, broke up the notorious James brothers' gang of outlaws. He is a lawyer.
 The detectives who have been working on the Richardson case claim that they will have no difficulty in presenting evidence to show that he removed the rail for the purpose of obtaining the reward. In fact, they are of the opinion that by a little more urging he will make a clean breast of the whole affair.
 Senator Palmer of Illinois is authority for the statement that President Cleveland has decided on a man for pension commissioner, and that his name will be sent to the senate within 48 hours. He declined to give the name, but from a high he dropped it is believed the man is Judge William Lochren, of St. Paul, Minn.
 Carter H. Harrison has been elected mayor of Chicago by 20,000 plurality over Samuel W. Allerton, candidate on the citizens' ticket. The entire democratic ticket is also elected by about the same plurality. Cregier, on the labor ticket, did not receive 3,000 votes. The democrats carried the west and south town tickets, but the republicans saved the north town.
 Hon. E. J. Phelps, counsel on behalf of the United States, continuing his argument at Paris in the Behring sea controversy, contended that the British supplementary report was inadmissible. The admission of new evidence at this stage, Phelps said, was a gross injustice to the United States, because it deprived them of any chance to adduce rebutting testimony.
 Reley Hannersly, of Josephine county, has struck a pocket on Jump-Off-Joe creek which contains a large amount of soft quartz, which will run $100,000 to the ton. It is a pocket in a two-foot ledge, the extent of which has not yet been determined. From 60 pounds of the quartz he has pounded out $425. Old prospectors here pronounce it the richest rock they have ever seen. Some active prospecting will be done on Jump-Off-Joe Creek within the next few weeks.

Dan Visits Grover.
 WASHINGTON, April 5.—Senator Dolph today introduced Dan Murphy and John Myers to the president. It is doubtful if Myers can be appointed marshal, for the fact that he has held that office constitutes an objection. Murphy says he and McKee have agreed upon candidates for most of the places in Oregon. Roby is expected here in a few days, and will press his application for postmaster or minister to Turkey.
The Jersey Lily Got Left.
 LONDON, April 5.—The entire property of the late Abingdon Baird, spent and backer of pugilists, who died at New Orleans, is left to his mother for her lifetime, and upon her death to be divided among the cousins of the deceased. It negatives the report that he had devised everything to the noted actress, Mrs. Langtry.

Seattle News.
 SEATTLE, April 5.—[Special to THE CHRONICLE.]—The political pot has been boiling for some time and Seattle has many aspirants in the field for positions. The register of the land office, at this place, resigned his position on the 1st inst., and it is generally believed that Hon. A. McDonald will be the successful man in securing this position. Mr. McDonald was the register of The Dalles land office under Cleveland's administration and was succeeded by Capt. Lewis. He seems to have the endorsement of the united democracy and the

BETRAYED AND SHOT

Sad Death at Morganfield of a Beautiful
 Kentucky Girl.

HER HUSBAND'S FRIENDS GUILTY

A Drunken Wretch Charged With Killing His Mother, who Supported Him in Idleness.

MORGANFIELD, Ky., April 5.—Miss Abbie Oliver, a beautiful young lady of Sturgis, Union county, was led astray eight months ago. Last night the mother of the girl entered the place of business of Henry Delaney, a drug clerk, and accused him of being responsible for the girl's condition. At the point of a pistol she compelled him to enter a carriage with her husband and daughter. They drove 15 miles to Morganfield, procured a license and compelled him to marry the girl. On the way back the carriage was attacked by armed men on horseback, Delaney's friends who fired into the carriage. They followed it as it flew up the road, Delaney having jumped out and joined them. The girl was shot through the head, and died this morning. She would soon have become a mother. The father was also mortally wounded. Mrs. Oliver recognized the pursuers, and warrants for their arrest were issued. All belong to prominent families. More bloodshed is expected.

Accused of Killing His Mother.
 BOSTON, April 5.—Thomas Brown, a picture-frame maker of dissipated character, was arrested this morning charged with killing his mother, Mrs. Catharine O'Meally, an old woman who lived at 72 Broadway, South Boston, by beating her. Brown has been a habitual drinker for years, and for a week or more constantly. He is about 33 years old and a widower. Mrs. O'Meally, the murdered woman, was married twice. Her first husband's name was Brown, and he has been dead some years. Some time after his death she married John O'Meally, who subsequently left her. The accused man lived with his mother, and, according to the statements of the neighbors, they did not get along together on account of Brown's drinking habits. Brown was drunk last night, and this morning the bruised and battered body of his mother was found on the floor of her room.

A Notorious Woman Lynched.
 CHARLESTON, W. Va., April 5.—About a week ago Policeman Chandler, of Blufffield, Mercer county, was killed in the notorious disorderly house of "Kiz" Redd, known as the wickedest woman in West Virginia, who is believed to have had a hand in several murders, and who has defied the authorities relative to illicit distilling. Monday night a row was started in her place by a crowd of black and white toughs, in which Charles Morgan, colored, shot and killed John Lees, a colored boy. Morgan was caught and lynched by a mob of citizens. "Kiz" Redd fled pursued by the mob, and is reported to have been caught last night and lynched.

Killed By a Falling Limb.
 BARLOW, Or., April 5.—Peter Kessler, 39 years old, was killed Monday by a limb falling on him. He formerly lived in Portland. He leaves a wife and seven children. He will be buried to day at Macksburg.
