HORRIBLE BUTCHERY

An old Man and a Woman Murdered at San Bernardino.

THE CRIME OF A JEALOUS LOVER

A New York Woman's Desperate Struggle for Life--Turned The Pistol on Himself.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., April 6.—A horrible butchery took place today at 12 o'clock on Fourth street, near the depot, in which an old man named Goldcoffer, and a woman named Francisca Flores, were killed by a Spaniard named Jesus Fuen. Fuen and Francisca Flores were living together as man and wife, but Fuen had become jealous of her for some reason and threatened to kill any one found in the house. The neighborhood was aroused at noon today by the screams of a woman, and Fuen chased Francisca with a butcher knife into the house of a neighbor. Old man Goldcoffer, who is about 75 years of age and a paralytic, opened the door and let in Francisca, and then attempted to bar the door against Fuen, who battered it down. Goldcoffer then tried to shoot Fuen with a shotgun which failed to discharge. Fuen rushed in and stabbed the old man in the neck, cutting his head half off. Fuen then gave chase to Francisca, running through the fields about 100 yards before overtaking her, when he stabbed her downward, just above the collarbone, killing her instantly. A house dog that had followed them began licking the body of the dead woman. Fuen kicked him away, and laid down on Francisca's arm. Isem Mendibles, a Spaniard, cutting wood near by, came running to the assistance of the screaming woman, when Fuen ran at him with a knife, but Mendibles hit Fuen on the head with a big rock, stunning him until the officers arrived, ten minutes later.

Shot and Killed Himself.
 NEW YORK, April 6.—Charles Harold, a widower, 71 years old, ran amuck in a tenement at 12 Stanton street, with two big revolvers, at 6:30 o'clock this morning. He tried to shoot the housekeeper, Mrs. Louisa Roth, but the pistols would not go off, and then the old man went to his own room in the same house and shot himself dead. He used both revolvers, one bullet entering the temple, the other his chest. Harold was a manufacturer of brushes, and the little room was also his factory. Some neighbors say the man was worth $35,000. He has a son and daughter living in the West who are said to be wealthy. Harold was unclean in his habits, and lately had become so disgusting that the landlord secured a dispossess warrant, and Harold was to leave the house today. He blamed Mrs. Roth for this and declared he would get even with her. He entered her apartments this morning while she was in bed. He approached her with both revolvers pointed at her head. Mrs. Roth sprang from her bed, grasped him, and a desperate struggle ensued. Harold snapped the revolvers, but they would not explode. The old man then beat Mrs. Roth on the head with the revolvers, inflicting severe cuts, and beat her all over the body until she was covered with wounds and bruises. Her nightdress, her single covering, was torn from her body in the struggle. The screams of the woman brought a tenant named Hayes to her assistance. The old man tried to shoot Hayes, but a kick in the stomach took much of the fight out of Harold. Harold ran to his room and ended his existence before the police could be summoned. In his room was a noose hanging from the door, with which he evidently intended to hang himself. He left a note addressed to the landlord saying that he had lain in wait for him yesterday to kill him.

Department today and had an interview with Secretary Gresham. He informed the secretary that he had received no intimation that he would be recalled by the provisional government, as stated in the San Francisco dispatch this morning. Neither Thurston nor Carter, of the Hawaiian annexation commission, is in the city at present. Carter is in Boston, but is expected to return tomorrow or Saturday. The date of Thurston's return is uncertain. He left for Chicago two weeks ago, announcing he would be absent a few days only on world's fair business, but yesterday his baggage was forwarded to him on telegraph orders.

Cholera in Russia.
 ST. PETERSBURG, April 7.—There is now scarcely a doubt entertained by those aware of the real situation that Russia is to again suffer from the ravages of cholera. Official returns have been made public showing that from March 19th to March 28th there were 65 cases of cholera and 19 deaths from the disease in the town of Orel. The official figures place the number of cases of the disease reported from March 12th to March 27th in the government of Oofa at 84 and the deaths at 29. In addition to the bad showing of the above official figures, it is a matter of common knowledge that the number of cholera cases and deaths from the scourge are far more numerous in the governments that are not included in the returns. This is especially the case in Podolia and Saratoff, which were ravaged by cholera last year.

A Bank Robber Captured.
 DENVER, Colo., April 6.—The report that the man who robbed David H. Moffatt of $21,000, in the First National bank here a few years ago, had been captured at Baker City, Or., has created great interest here. Moffatt admits that the clue is direct from the woman mentioned. He says that he will pay well for the thief's capture, whether he gets any money back or not. The robbery was one of the most daring on record. Moffatt was relieved of $21,000 in cash, at the hour of noon, when the bank was crowded and the streets were thronged, and that, too, at the point of a revolver in the hands of a desperate man who escaped and was lost in the crowd before walking 150 feet.

Drowned in the Umpqua River.
 CANYONVILLE, Or., April 6.—A young man by the name of Munroe was drowned Sunday evening in the South Umpqua river, 30 miles east of Canyonville, at the mouth of Elk creek. While trying to ford the river, it seems his horse became fractious while in the stream. In rearing up, the horse's head struck Munroe's head violently, knocking him into the river, and before he regained consciousness he was drowned. The body has not yet been recovered.

ELECTRIC FLASHES.
 Bishop Kip of San Francisco is dead. Capitalists don't want anything to do with the Northern Pacific unless Villard retires, and the N. P. needs money. The Cherokee council has indefinitely tabled the bill to send a delegation to the international congress to consider the statehood question. Indian territory don't hanker to be a state. George E. Richardson has appeared in Justice Hamlin's court on a warrant charging him with an attempt to wreck a train. His examination was postponed until next Tuesday, as the prosecution had no witnesses present.

Burglars blew up the safe in the Mount Tabor postoffice in the suburbs of Portland, securing $1,200, in promissory notes, $80 worth of postage stamps, $5 in coin and two Masonic receipt books. It is thought they were green hands.

McLeod of the Philadelphia and Reading road, was compelled to resign. Evidences of corruption are being brought to the surface. Rice, who was appointed by the Pennsylvania Trust Co. to look into the matter, said that his examination had shown unheard-of thimble-rigging at every step, but he would consider it a breach of confidence to disclose results before he had made a report to the Trust company, which he represented in the capacity of expert.

Weary of Living.
 NEW YORK, April 6.—At 10:30 o'clock this morning Mrs. Frances Eddy, 30 years of age, committed suicide in a vacant lot at One Hundred and Thirtieth street and St. Nicholas avenue, by taking a dose of carbolic acid. Her 7-year-old daughter Gladys was with her at the time, and the mother forced the child to take some of the dose also. Mother and daughter were taken to Harlem hospital, where the mother died. The child is in a precarious condition.

Dispatches From Hawaii.
 WASHINGTON, April 6.—The department of state was informed that the Australia brought to San Francisco yesterday from Honolulu a number of dispatches from Minister Stevens, which are now on their way to Washington by mail. Dr. Mott, the Hawaiian minister to the United States called at the state

THE KHAN OF KHELAT
 He Killed Five of His Wives for Infidelity.
 HAS BEEN LONG ON THE THRONE
 Dull Day in the Behring Sea Court of Arbitration--Sir John Thompson Sleepy.

BOMBAY, April 6.—Further information in regard to the atrocities committed by the Khan of Kelat are to the effect that, suspecting five of his wives of infidelity, he caused them to be cruelly put to death. The khan has agreed to deliver to the British Indian government the surviving prisoners whom he was reported as torturing. As a punishment for his conduct the British agent will withhold 40,000 of the 100,000 rupees allowed him as a subsidy, and will devote it to the benefit of the families of those unjustly executed. The khan has been on the throne since 1857, and has been generally well conducted heretofore.

The Behring Sea Arbitration.
 PARIS, April 6.—The morning session of the Behring sea court of arbitration today was dull, and even the eloquence of such leaders as Attorney-General Russell and J. C. Carter failed to awaken interest. Even the members of the court seemed bored, and it was noticed that the august head of Sir John Thompson, one of the British arbitrators, frequently nodded and suggested the awful suspicion that he was tempted to slumber. Sir Charles Russell concluded his argument in reply to the objections of Hon. E. J. Phelps, counsel for the United States, to the legal character of certain evidence offered by Great Britain. E. J. Carter then proceeded to reply to Sir Charles Russell's arguments. Carter was still arguing on behalf of the American case when the court adjourned.

Sacked by a Mob.
 WASHINGTON, April 6.—It was Chili during the last administration, and it may be its neighbor, Peru, during this. It appears the United States consulate at one of the Peruvian ports has been sacked by a mob, with apparent police sanction. The officer acting as consular agent for the United States was fired upon and wounded in the foot. The news came in a brief telegram through the United States minister to Peru. He omitted such essential details as the name of place or wounded officer, or they were dropped from his dispatch in its telegraphic transmission. The telegram was dated Lima, April 5th, and was addressed to Secretary Gresham. It was signed by Minister Hicks, and read:

"At [place omitted] a mob attacked the Masonic lodge, soaked the building and burned the fixtures in the street. Incidentally the United States consulate was invaded, its furnishings destroyed and the acting consular agent shot in the foot. The archives were saved intact. A squad of Peruvian police looked on while the mob performed its work without interference. The mail brings particulars."

The particulars in question, which are left to be supplied by mail, apparently include the information as to where the outrage occurred. There is but one consulate in Peru, that at Callao. In this position Mr. Aquila Dougherty, of Illinois, appointed during Mr. Harrison's administration, June 2, 1890, stands on the record as consul. There are under him six consular agencies, the occupants of which positions are doubtless merchants of the country, who are paid by fees.
