OREGON AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The following is a list of the superintendents of the different departments of the world's fair commission. Anyone who has anything to exhibit should correspond with the proper officer, one of the following:
W. F. MATHIAS, department of agriculture, forestry and forest products, and live stock; Pendleton.
C. W. AYERS, department of mines, mining and metallurgy; Ashland.
DR. J. B. CARDWELL, department of horticulture, including floriculture and viticulture; Portland.
GEO. T. MYERS, department of fishing and fishing apparatus, manufactures, electrical and mechanical inventions; Portland.
MRS. M. PAYTON, Salem, (until July 1, 1893) and MRS. E. W. ALLEN, Portland, (after July 1, 1893, department of woman's work, comprising the fine arts, household economy and products thereof).
E. B. MCLEOD, department of education, including educational exhibits, literary, special, general, music, etc.; Salem.
GEO. W. MCBRIDE, department of civil government, including state and county; Salem.

We are sorry to learn that a large number of our merchants who hold bills against A. S. Collins and wife cannot lawfully attach the money now held in custody for the latter by our county clerk. We also hear that all their goods (wonder if that fine cloak, those silks and velvets, gotten under false pretenses from H. Herbring, are among them?) are still stored in the Wasco warehouse awaiting shipment to the more congenial climate of Chicago. The swindling now-a-days is carried on so fine and successfully that we are not in the least surprised to hear that several of our merchants have shut down on the credit system.

It is hard for land lubbers to understand sea methods. If a ship is in distress and liable to be wrecked a tug boat demands a price equal to confiscation to rescue her. If refused, the steamer smilingly moves away, and as a result many a noble ship and brave seaman's bones bleach on the sands. On shore all hands would rush to the rescue; thought of compensation would be an after consideration. Its true, rescuing is a part of tug boat business, but laws regulating the fee should be established.—Ex.

To a birth notice in a Southern California paper the following remarks are added by the editor: "The child is the first Dutch infant born in the San Luis Valley. The notice is written by a Dane, put in type by a Mormon, the proof is read by an American, the type placed in the 'form' by a German, and the paper is printed by a Mexican. This affords an interesting notion of the composite character of the great American people of the far Southwest."

A statistician who has been looking into the matter of divorce has found that the proportion of divorces to population is least in Ireland—only one divorce to every 400,000 inhabitants. In the United States the proportion of divorces is ominously large, 88.71 to every 100,000 population, the largest known, in fact, save in Japan, the figures for that happy empire being 608.45 divorces to every 100,000 population.

Ambrose Bierce, in his Sunday Morning Examiner column, satirically criticizes Madge Morris, the San Diego poetess, for saying that coyotes howl. According to Bierce, coyotes bark and yelp, but never howl. Madge insists that she was right and has submitted the question to Long, professor in the state of California for an answer. Sixty million people are waiting in breathless suspense for a solution of the question.

The Vermont Board of Agriculture finds that many of the farms in the state which were abandoned some years ago are becoming gradually taken up. This points to a revival of farming in New England, and it is an encouraging sign. The science of farming has been greatly developed in the last fifteen years, with resultant thrift where there had been haphazard methods and waste.

There is a proposition to make it a misdemeanor for the newspaper publisher to make any misrepresentations as to the circulation of his paper. That is all right; now let us have another law making it a misdemeanor for a farmer to exaggerate the strict purity of suspicious eggs.

The excitement over, there is no demand for the souvenir Columbian coins. There are nearly two million of the half-dollars waiting to be called for at the Mint.

The more Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used the better it is liked. We know of no other remedy that always gives satisfaction. It is good when you first catch cold. It is good when your cough is seated and your lungs are sore. It is good in any kind of a cough. We have sold twenty-five dozen of it and every bottle has given satisfaction. Stedman & Friedman, druggists, Minneapolis Lake, Minn. 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. J. B. Cardwell, Portland, Ore.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by Blakeley and Houghton, druggists.

Situation Wanted.

A young lady with good references wishes situation in private family. Apply at this office.

Senator Hoar has objected to an adjournment of the senate, which was sustained, in order to secure action on the Roach investigation.

HELP! HELP! THE LADY FAINTS.

"'Tis the twink of an eye,
'Tis the draught of a breath,
From the blossom of health,
To the palace of death."

When sudden fainting spells come upon a lady, you may always suspect some uterine disturbance or trouble, or some great disorder in the circulation and nerve centers. A remedy that has always proved successful in warding off and removing the tendency to a recurrence of fainting spells—that removes the cause of them, corrects the circulation of blood, and gives to the system that even running nervous energy so essential, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The "Prescription" is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded. Nothing else does as much. You only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more?

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at the critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The change of Life."
