

"He stood upon the ocean's sandy beach,
And with a reed he wrote upon the sand these words:
[PRICES BEYOND COMPETITION!]
But the winds came, and the waves rolled mountain high,
And blotted out the fair impression.
Cruel waves, treacherous sand, fragile reed,
No longer will I trust to thee;
But from the mountain peak I'll pluck the tallest pine,
And, dipped in the crater of Vesuvius, with it I'll write Upon the high and burnished sky these tender words:"
PEASE & MAYS have the fairest priced goods in Dalles City;
They are now offering their Spring line at such equitable Prices as would almost take your breath away, and I Would like to see any dog-goned wave wash that out!

MOSIER MUSINGS.
There is a young man in this town,
Whose name might be Smith or be Brown.
He works early and late,
From the ground the stamps take.
When his fruit grows he'll settle right down.
The Rowson railroad bridge gear are quartered here.
The fruit buds are a swellin', and the garden truck is up.
Four carloads of wood were shipped out of here last week.
S. E. Fisher is putting out quite a number of fruit trees this spring.
The brown hacklefly and the angler are after the troutlings these times.
Quite a number of Italian prune trees will be planted by D. A. Sturges this week.
Mrs. Belle Watt has returned from Wyeth, and will remain home for a while.
Mrs. A. Prather was at The Dalles
Thursday to have the inevitable Herrin photograph her little ones.
Mrs. Batchelor and daughters, who have been on their place on Rock Creek for some time past, have returned to The Dalles.
The Hunter Bros. have purchased two new Bufford Clipper plows, and will turn over the soil at a lively rate for a time.
Will you come, brother? Road Supervisor Reno is among us. Those who haven't good excuses must get a hustle on their thinkers. E'en before this epistle reaches you it may be too late.
However, those who get out of working the roads must forever after cease to kick.
A. M. Creed and family have returned from Hood River, where they have been wintering. Mr. Creed is here to attend to his strawberry farm on Mosier creek from which he expects large returns.
Agent Powers has the entire series of fractional currency from the 3-cent note up. He is also in possession of some rare gold coins, among them a $3 gold piece. He has been years making the collection, and prizes it highly, as well he might.
Man born of woman is of few days, but full a plenty. He goeth out to grub in the morning; in the evening he seeth not what is done. E. Handlen is going to get a stump-pulling machine, which will greatly expedite the clearing of land in this locality.
"It is human to err, but divine to forgive." Your correspondent played the first act last week in stating that Easter services were held here. We were informed services were to have been held.
In fact they would have been if they had been. No harm done, however, and our informant is a—but we'll forgive him.
Mosier has had a metropolitan air ever since the monkey and the bagpipe visited us Sunday. What we most need, however, is a "put your nickel in the slot" concert for the benefit of those who live farther back, and are not fortunate enough to find a monkey in town when they come in to trade.
"A log raising." The phrase in itself awakens enthusiasm in rural circles.
Quite a number were present to help F.
Zirka raise the logs for his new house last week. All worked faithfully amid falling snow and rain and were drenched and cold when evening came. Enthusiasm was chilled to the marrow and all were fully satisfied when their mission was accomplished and were ready to go home. Scb.
A Leader.
Since its first introduction, electric bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor, until now it is clearly in the lead among pure medicinal tonics and altera-tives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant, it is recognized as the best and purest medicine for all ailments of stomach, liver or kidneys. It will cure sick headache, indigestion, constipation and drive malaria from the system. Satisfaction guaranteed with each bottle or the money will be refunded. Price only 50c. per bottle. Sold by Snipes & Kinerly.

Long Creek News.
Eagle.
Grant county's stock inspector gave the Eagle the following information concerning the sheep of the county:
"Sheep have wintered well in this valley, generally speaking. The loss will be comparatively nothing, excepting Mr. J. Small, who will sustain some loss by having had to dip late last fall when the weather was cold and stormy." Fruit in Grant county is yet uninjured by the cold weather, and an abundant crop of apples, prunes, plums, etc., is expected.
The Eagle is informed that there are about 1,500 head of four and five-year-old beef cattle on Beaver creek that will go into the markets of the Northwest this year.
Cattle buyers state that there will be more beef cattle for sale in Grant county this year than were driven out last year.
One stockman of South Fork has a band of three and four-year-olds.
Crook County Notes.
Prineville News.
Fred Smith was down from his Beaver creek possessions this week. He got his band through the winter with a loss of only seven head.
The lambing season is now in progress on many of our sheep ranges, and the weather is not overly propitious therefor. Some of our Eastern Oregon exchanges estimate the increase in the flocks of their neighbors at 90 per cent.
This is premature; the time to estimate such increase is when the tails are counted.
Mr. Newman was down from his ranch near Post yesterday. Price has returned with a band of their sheep which was wintered on Wolf creek, and the lamb-ing season is now under way. Their sheep are in good condition, and notwithstanding the unfavorable weather and the short grass, they hope to raise a good per cent.

Patent medicines differ—One has reasonableness, another has not. One has reputation—another has not. One has confidence, born of success, another has only "hopes." Don't take it for granted that all patent medicines are alike. They are not. Let the years of uninterrupted success and the tens of thousands of cured and happy men and women, place Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription on the side of the comparison to which they belong. And there isn't a state or territory, no—nor hardly a country in the world, whether its people realize it or not, but have men and women in them that're happier because of their discovery and their effects.
Think of this in health. Think of it in sickness. And then think whether you you can afford to make the trial if the makers can afford to take the risk to give your money back, as they do, if they do not benefit or cure you.
In a Sorry Flight.
The road down about Spanish Gulch is reported nearly impassable by reason of washouts. As that is on the route to The Dalles, our early spring shipping point, freighters and merchants will suffer. And the camp is nearly out of sugar, too.—Canyon City News.

Peach trees are in bloom in Southern Oregon.
A fine spring rain visited this section this forenoon.
The "Deestrick Skule" will have another rehearsal tonight.
Ice formed a quarter of an inch thick in Pendleton a few nights ago.
Some fine salmon were observed this morning in one of our markets.
The Klickitat hills were covered with snow again this morning to half their height.
The remains of Edgar Ross Smith were buried in Riverview cemetery, Sunday.
S. E. Hornbrook of Centerville, offers 50 cents for every case of hog cholera he can't cure.
About 50 cars of coal have arrived in the yards at this point to be stored in the sheds.
Mr. John Adams of Nansene, says that when he left there this morning there was two inches of snow on the ground and was still falling.
The steamer Regulator brought fifteen coils of telephone wire last Saturday, marked C. M. Elkins, Prineville, for the Prineville and Dalles Telephone line.
Congressman Ellis announces that about the middle of April a competitive examination for the cadetship to West Point, from this district, will be held in The Dalles.
The receipts in the Pendleton post-office have passed the $8,000 limit and are entitled to be raised to a second-class office, with a salary of $2,000 a year for the postmaster.
Some of the Yuma Indians have met the inquiry as to whether they are the head of a family with the statement that they had three families apiece and want as many allotments of land.
Mr. A. H. Jewett of the Jewett nurseries, White Salmon, brought on the Regulator a large invoice of fruit trees last night and they are being forwarded to Spokane today by U. P. railroad.
From a gentleman of Gilliam county we learn that the loss of stock has been very light. Mr. Fred Hale recently lost nearly 200 head, caused by the sheep huddling close together, resulting in their being smothered.

A Western Pittsburgh.
In Tacoma a scouring mill company has just been organized. There is no reason in the world why The Dalles should not have one, several, in fact, since this is one of the great wool markets of the Northwest and enjoying every advantage for the furtherance of the work. The Dalles is destined to be a great manufacturing center, owing to its commanding location, and bordering upon a river capable of furnishing unlimited water power. The only question is as to who will avail themselves of these advantages and lay the foundations for large fortunes by industries to be perpetuated for generations.

The Encampment.
The first contingent of G. A. R. men passed through today from Portland and McMinnville, numbering about 80 men, under command of Commander Gardner. The greater number will pass through tonight on No. 2.
The Dalles is represented by Commander J. M. Patterson and Comrades A. R. Johnson and J. R. Warner.
Mrs. Patterson also went, representing the Women's Relief Corps.
Pendleton is gaily decorated with flags, evergreens and flowers to welcome the veterans, who will no doubt receive handsome treatment at their hands.

Street Improvements.
Street Commissioner Staniels is making good streets out of bad ones as far as one man is able. On Ninth and Pendleton there has existed all winter a bad mud-hole followed by a rocky ledge. This ledge he has clipped off and filled up the hole to a level with the road. He is working today on a cross walk on Eleventh street, cornering on Liberty.

PERSONAL MENTION.
Harry Lonsdale and J. Oles go to Portland this afternoon.
Dr. Doane was called by telegraph to Wasco last night to visit a sick person.
Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pease returned from the metropolis last evening by the Regulator.
Mr. J. J. Cozart departed this morning for his home near Canyon City, Grant Co.
E. McArthur and F. N. Wallace of Antelope are now in the city. The roads being bad delay them in going home.
We are pleased to learn Mrs. W. H. Wilson, nee Sue Cates, who has been quite ill the last few days is reported very much better.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:—In your issue of March 8th there appeared the following communication: WANTS IT UNDERSTOOD.
THE DALLES, March 5, 1893.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:—I saw in your columns some time ago where you said that the jury brought in a verdict against Mr. Herbring. We had nothing to do with it. His honor, Judge Bradshaw, told us what we would have to do; so please explain, that the outside people will know how it is. Yours, etc.
ONE OF THE JURYMEN.
As my name is mentioned in this communication (owing to my trip to California I could not answer sooner), and as you omitted to give the desired explanation, you will please allow me to state that THE CHRONICLE reporter was correct in every particular that he wrote about my recent law suit in the circuit court. However, as the gentleman who signs himself "One of the Jurymen" seems to have forgotten what actually transpired in the court room, I will publish for his benefit the following document as it appears on record in the original journal entry:
A. S. Collins and Mrs. A. S. Collins vs. H. Herbring.

Now, on this day, Feb. 24th, this cause comes on regularly for trial, plaintiffs appearing by A. S. Bennett, their attorney, and defendant appearing by J. L. Story and E. Schutz, his attorneys, and there came eight good and lawful men of this county to try this cause, as follows: J. C. Wood, W. C. Hansel, A. Bettingen, sr., E. W. Trout, G. W. Miller, G. W. Joles, James Harper and S. B. Adams, and after listening to the testimony of witnesses and the evidence in the case, the argument of counsel and the instructions of the court, retired in charge of a properly sworn officer to consider the case, and after deliberation returned into court with the following verdict: In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon vs. Wasco County:
A. S. Collins and Mrs. A. S. Collins, pl't's vs. H. Herbring, defendant.
We, the jury in the above entitled cause, find for the plaintiffs and against the defendant, and assess their damages at ninety-two ($92.00) dollars.
S. B. ADAMS, Foreman.

Being asked if this was their verdict and replying that it was, the jury were discharged from further consideration of the case.
(sd) W. L. BRADSHAW, Judge.
The language of this document is so plain that it needs no explanation. I acknowledge that my defeat in the court room was a complete one, but whoever thinks that I am ashamed of "this defeat" is very much mistaken. I have paid this day to our worthy county clerk, Mr. J. B. Crossen, those $92.00 and all costs, and thus this extraordinary law suit came legally to an end. The severe, but just criticism of the result of my law suit, which appeared in your esteemed journal on March 24th, was a true echo of public opinion, and though legally defeated out of $52.80 for goods sold to A. S. Collins and wife, whom I am told now reside in Chicago, I still say with the old Romans: "Vivat justitia, pereat mundus!"

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the kindness you have shown towards me, an old citizen and taxpayer of The Dalles, in my fight against dead beats, I remain Yours Very Truly,
