

From All Visitors

To our store, Saturday, we heard praises of Our Vantine Department.

Owing to the rush, we were unable to give many as much attention as we wished, and hope to see them again, as we shall constantly replenish this stock.

The new wares shown in this Department amply repay a visit to our store.

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.

APRIL APHORISMS.

And Other Sawed-off Paragraphs Hastily Constructed.

"Will you accept my seat?" he said And he smiled a little bit When the lady in the hoops replied, "Oh, thanks!" but did not sit. Too well he understood the cause, And his smile her fury fanned— Unless two men should offer seats The fair one had to stand.

The King's Daughters will meet at Mrs. Randall's tomorrow afternoon.

There was a sharp frost last night in places, and ice froze over a wooden bucket full of water at the race track.

A. M. Williams & Co., and E. Jacobson & Co. are painting their stores, making them very neat and attractive looking.

The name of the young lady who died at Goldendale is Lenora Richards, and she is not related to I. C. Richards, as reported.

A sewer on Washington street has been choked for several days and a force of men were at work on it today who succeeded in opening it.

Jas. Cantrell arrived with his big freight team yesterday, and will load with freight for Prineville merchants and return in a day or so.

Mrs. Joseph Vierra heartily thanks her many friends for the kindness and sympathy in her loss of her brother and the assistance during his late illness.

Many people yesterday went down to the Regulator store-house to see a veritable curiosity. They were two turkeys of pure white, destined for Mt. Angel, and are worth $18.

Fifteen coils of wire reported by THE CHRONICLE to be used for a telephone line between The Dalles and Prineville, are said by the Ochoco Review to be intended for hop-growing.

D. C. Herrin returned yesterday from La Grande. He exhibited to us today an electrotyping of the Court house, photo-engraved and mounted by himself, which is a fine piece of workmanship.

S. B. Adams left on the Regulator this morning, with a model of the Chrisman fruit dryer, for Willamette valley points. It is very likely he will have good success in introducing it throughout the west, as the dryer is pronounced to be perfect by all those best informed.

Mr. Thorburn, a well-to-do sheep-raiser of Kingsley, of Scotch extraction, was asked how his sheep was coming out, when he made this extraordinary remark: "Oh, vera weel; I'll have fully a hundred per cent increase. There are three fours, seven threes, and God knows how many twos."

Pease & Mays is one of those enterprising firms who have discovered that there is a great deal in judicious advertising. Their curiously-worded display advertisement last week about the "Vantine" special sale resulted in a perfect jam at their store all Saturday afternoon and evening.

Some of the characters in the "Deestrick Skule" are the giggling girl, the crying girl, the good girl, the stuttering boy, the slow boy, and the mischievous boy. Ample field is given for the funniest production ever given here for years, which will not suffer by comparison with "The Boarding School" of bewitching, petite Minnie Palmer.

R. D. Rinehart, the Canyon City orchardist, has loaded two freight teams with apples and started them toward The Dalles. If he does not find a market there he will ship to Portland. It seems like turning the tables when Eastern Oregon can ship fruit to the land of "big, red apples."—Ochoco Review.

The Roslyn bank robbers were betrayed by a girl, the sister-in-law of a man at whose home, in Coos Bay, the conspiracy was hatched. Ray Christensen is his name, the woman's being Miss Sarah Jane Morgan, a beautiful young woman of about 20 years of age, who lives in Salt Lake. She betrayed the robbers through revenge, but they have not yet been arrested, as the officers are after more evidence.

For the World's Fair.

A man 61 years old, with a wheelbarrow, arrived on the Regulator Saturday night, bound for the world's fair. He stated that he started from South Bend in the Gray's Harbor country, Washington. He wins $320 if he gets to Chicago by the first of September, and loses that amount if he fails. The effects trundled weigh 60 pounds. He was only allowed to start with $1.50 to pay for ferrage and medicine. He is to solicit meals, but is not to ask for them until the meal hour. He must take the name, address and former residence of all those who furnish him with food. So far none has refused him. This is a harmless vagary, and does not even have the merit of originality, but the stakes seem small for so great an amount of discomfort.

To the Homeless.

Persons desiring to secure free homes will do well to examine the government land yet remaining in Tp. 2 N. R. 14 East. This land is surrounded with military, state and other unfenced land, on all of which is fine grazing, supplied with abundance of stock water. Much of this government land is good for agriculture and excellent for fruit raising and is close to market. Remember that The Dalles is, and always will be, the only seaport within the Inland Empire. It is destined soon to become a great metropolis. Now is the time to get a home for the taking. It will soon be too late. The undersigned will show home-seekers the government land without charge. The Divine injunction is "Go up and possess the land."

The Fruit Growers.

Emil Schanno returned Sunday morning from the meeting of the state horticultural board at Eugene. There was a full attendance of professors and a good deal of information derived. Their next meeting of the horticultural society will be held at Salem in July. At the Eugene meeting, of particular importance were the papers in regard to spraying and trimming fruit trees. Mr. Schanno advocated the lime, sulphur and salt recipe as being cheap as well as effective, and quoted Prof. Riley in a letter to him as saying that it was the best recipe, being generally used in California for a winter wash. The matter of pruning is much abused, few understanding how to prune trees to obtain the best results. This matter was well presented, showing how proper pruning not only improves the condition of the fruit, but also prevented to a certain extent the ravages of the insect pests that are becoming so destructive in this country. The suggestions are that pruning be done so as to leave an open tree where the sunlight can obtain admittance without interference.

Another matter that left a good impression was the discussion of the subject of packing fruit. The speaker on this subject showed that many fruit raisers have lost a great deal by not sorting their fruit and by mixing their first grade fruit with the lower grades, thereby getting the market price for the lower grade when making a sale. The matter of sorting the fruit is a trifling one, but of great benefit to the growers when his fruit is placed in the market.

The Condition South of Us.

Mr. J. D. Parish, of The Dalles and Prineville stage line, came in from over the road Saturday evening, and we are informed that the winter holds on remarkably out on the route, frequent snow storms being encountered, and that in consequence the roads are rendered slippery and in places bad. Mr. Parish reports stock as doing fairly well, and that the lambing season is progressing as favorably as could be expected. The losses in young lambs will be very considerable, especially in the high country.

What the "Deestrick Skule" Is.

The "skule" will be opened by Master Theophilus Grout, at Wingate Hall at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, April 18th. The exercises will consist of a forenoon and afternoon session. During the forenoon the tedious A B C and primer classes will weary the audience by their failures to distinguish A from the top of a barn or separate I from U. The gaffry get lost in their longitude and cannot tell whether it is hot or cold, while the grammar fail to recall any idea of nouns and adjectives.

The afternoon session will be filled with the closing exercises of the school, and will consist of examinations by the teacher and committee men, declamations and compositions from which we hope the audience will gain some new ideas of "Kows," "Horses," "Boys" and the other profound and deep themes discussed. The instructive remarks of the committee man will be full of wise suggestions to our able board of public school directors. We hope every member of the board will be present.

Among the names on the record we find Aleck Smart, Jerry Patterson; Timothy Truck, Rev. W. C. Curtis; Mike O'Flynn, S. L. Brooks; Ezekiel Jedediah Honeysuckle, John Parrot; Patience Priscilla Bedott, Mrs. J. M. Patterson; Comfort Hebsibah Smith, Mrs. S. L. Brooks; Esther Araminta Little, Mrs. S. French; Tom Sawyer, G. D. Snowden. There are many others the printers will not allow space to give. Come and hear the lads and lassies.
