

From All Visitors

To our store, Saturday, we heard praises of

Our Vantine Department.

Owing to the rush, we were unable to give many as much attention as we wished, and hope to see them again, as we shall constantly replenish this stock.

The new wares shown in this Department amply repay a visit to our store.

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.

APRIL APHORISMS.

And Other Sawed-Off Paragraphs Hastily Constructed.

Some go to church to take a walk. Some go there to laugh and talk. Some go there to meet a friend. While others go their time to spend. Some go there a fault to cover. While others go to meet a lover. Some go there to take an observation. And others go to make a speculation. Some go there to doze and nod. But the good go to worship God.

"Deestrick Skule" tonight.

Dan Marshall left on the noon train, being called on account of the illness of his father.

Huntington & Wilson yesterday shipped their fine bred trotting stallion, "Sam Randall" to Baker City, to make the season there.

The meeting of the Ladies Glee Club has been postponed from this evening until next Tuesday evening when it will meet with Mrs. B. S. Huntington.

The city court is quiet. His honor, Judge Menefee, complains of a dearth of business, as only two commitments for drunkenness have been made for this month.

The street sprinkling contractor did not come to time yesterday or today. What's the matter? If he intends to do anything, it's time now, as real estate is moving lively this afternoon.

The foundation for Judge Bradshaw's new house is completed, and the workmen are now sinking a pit for the chimney. They find they will have to go down six or seven feet before striking hard pan.

Mr. T. J. Burford of Klickitat, is in the city today. He informs us that farm work is progressing, although the weather is cold and the ground is quite wet. The seeding and the spring work will all be done practically, within the next fortnight.

"Deestrick Skule" Tonight.

The "Deestrick Skule" which will be given tonight is one of the funniest little comedies ever presented in The Dalles, whether by home talent or professional artists. It is more than a comedy. While you are laughing at the pranks and comical sayings such as only children can make there comes with it memories of your own school days, you become identified at once with the mischief-makers and there is resurrected in your mind incidents of the long ago which you supposed to have been forgotten. The easiest way to make yourself young again, if only for an evening, is to attend the Deestrick Skule. No extra charge for reserved seats at Snipes & Kinerly's.

A PLUCKY BOY.

A Four-Year-Old Keeps His Head During an Exciting Runaway.

A country team ran away last night, starting from Mr. Farley's house, and had quite a spin before they were caught. In the wagon was Billy Johnson, a 4-year-old grandson of R. B. Hood. The team ran down the street, where an effort was made to stop it without success, but turning it in the direction of the brewery. Up the grade it ran here, and gaining the top of the hill ran along the street until it reached Mays' stone house, when it struck a tree, throwing the little boy out. He had up to this time clung manfully to the seat, and had not got excited in the least. Men rushed quickly to the spot, expecting that the life had been crushed out of him, but imagine their surprise on asking him how he was, to receive the answer:

"Oh, I'm all right, I guess; I haven't lost (feeling in his pocket) my ball, and here's my other things."

Any other little boy of his age would have been frightened nearly to death and jumped out of the wagon with excitement.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Lochhead is much better today. A. D. Bolton, of Boyd, is in the city today.

J. Garrell of Albina is in the city today.

Mr. Claude Gordion is very sick with pneumonia.

Miss Cecile Leary is home on a visit from Albina.

Mrs. Gullinson went to Hood River this morning.

D. A. Vance of Portland, formerly of The Dalles, is in the city.

Fred Liebo has recovered from his late illness, and expects to return to Portland Saturday.

Mr. James Palmer leaves Thursday for an extended visit with friends in the east. He will take in the world's fair before he returns.

Charles Butler of Port Townsend is in the city today. The cold weather is keeping back the grass. Mutton sheep is hard to get, but beef cattle are plentiful.

Mathew Thorburn of Kingsley, received a telegram from Mt. Angel, announcing the sickness of his son. The mother and daughter have gone to care for him.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

Columbia hotel—D. O. Ramalay, Lyle; M. Meeks and daughter, Mosier; A. O. Thomas, 10-Mile; T. Olt, H. Littmann, J. White, Thomas Handy, Frank Reid, R. Richards, Waaco; Henry Hudson, Dufur; A. H. Jewett, White Salmon; C. Berry, C. H. Stranahan, James Foss, Hood River; Ralph Slaughter, George Leavary, Umatilla; James Jameson, Mill Creek; C. P. Shorts, Centerville.

Some Fine Horses.

Mr. Richard Closter of this city bought a fine pair of dapple grey horses from Mr. John D. Whitten of Kingsley yesterday for the Portland fire department, and will ship them tomorrow by steamer Regulator. These animals are beauties, being perfect matches in every respect, in color, size, and nearly so in weight, the combined weight being 3,520 pounds, and there is only 20 pounds difference in them. These horses can now be seen at the city stables.

Shiloh's Vitalizer is what you need for Appetite, torpid liver, yellow skin or kidney trouble. It is guaranteed to give you satisfaction. Price 74c. Sold by Snipes & Kinerly, druggists.

Sad End of a Menagerie.

In an item last week we failed to publish a very important circumstance. The item was in regard to Cal Hedgepeth's menagerie, and what we neglected to mention was a series of sad accidents which recently befell it. The menagerie formerly contained two eagles, specimens of those birds that roost on the top rung of liberty and scream for American independence; but sad to say, one of them got hungry and devoured his fellow bird as if he had been a hand out from a ten-cent lunch counter. Then he died of ennui. A porcupine that was formerly one of the crowd shuffled off his mortal quills and passed away into history with the last day of March. Cal thinks he died of measles, and we are glad of it. We have no sympathy for a man who would make a "playful little pet" of a measly varmint that is always trying to drive carpet tacks with his tail.—Prineville News.

Don't Go To San Francisco.

A circular letter has been received from San Francisco, as follows: Greeting, Brothers: Do not be deceived by false reports. The city of San Francisco is crowded with idle men. There are thousands of us tramping the streets hungry, hopeless and destitute. For God's sake keep away from this city. Advertisements for laborers, sailors or mechanics are false. Place no faith in them. There are ten men here for every job now. By order Executive Committee San Francisco Unemployed. W. M. WILLEY, Chairman. L. C. FRY, Secretary.

Should Live in The Dalles.

A girl has been arrested in Chicago and fined $20 for hugging and kissing men on the streets. She pleaded in court that she had a desire for that sort of thing that she could not control, and when she saw a man whose appearance pleased her she just threw her arms about him and kissed him as many times as she could before he could escape. If this young lady is good looking, we venture the assertion she could live in The Dalles indefinitely and there would never be a complaint made against her.

The tracks of the great Atlantic liners between the United States and Great Britain are as accurately made out and followed as if they were built on land, the winter track being some distance south of the summer track because of icebergs. Over these watery roads the ocean greyhounds travel at the speed of moderately fast railway trains, the maximum attained by the American liner Paris being about twenty-three miles an hour.

THROTTLE AND CAB.

Meaty morsels of News and Gossip for Trainmen.

All trainmen are respectfully asked to contribute to this column, the editor reserving the right to reject anything which, in his judgment, would be detrimental to the interests of the paper.

Ed. Ryan and lady are in Portland. The boys on the work train are keeping up their lick, and as well as doing lots of work, they have lots of fun.

Fireboy Dickey Adams is on the sick list, and besides following the doctor's directions in regard to medicines, etc., has a weather eye on those handsome baby carriages on exhibition in an up town window.

Engineer Morgan, that gallant knight of the throttle, who has a record of making the fastest time between Umatilla and Wallula junction that was ever made on that part of the road, spent Sunday in town.

The veteran Engineer Geo. Lang is again at work. George has been off duty for eight or nine months on account of sickness, and we hope he may be able to hold a position henceforth, although he takes Haslam's run on engine 542. Haslam has a right to take the next best job in sight.

Fireman Rastus Young is contemplating a trip to Chicago to visit the world's fair, and if rumor proves correct, he will also visit the old Buckeye state, and pluck one of her fair damsels to share his joys and woes. Brother Young is held in high esteem by all of the railroad boys, and will be sure to reap a bountiful harvest of old alppers and rice when he returns to The Dalles.

Come listen to my story boys, That is if you have time, I'll tell you about a work train Upon the U. P. line.

The captain's name is Renner, I think you know him well, He run upon the Sandy, And in The Dalles did dwell.

Now Renner has four brakemen, And of them I will tell, But there is one I can't describe If I should go to jail.

There's Main Line Jack and Bird Cage Bill, We count them as a pair, And staying on the side track, You bet they do their share.

There's ball-faced George and honest Mell, They form the other crew, And when anything goes wrong Old George gets in a stew.

The engineers, well I guess not; I must not let them go, So each of them must have a shot As well as Ben and Joe.

Jim Nickell, he will work all day, And you will never have a bubble, But to get that Morgan to do right You've got to have a squabble.

Now comes Joe the handsome man That keeps up steam for Jim, With large blue eyes and Roman nose And small and dimpled chin.

There's fire-boy Ben With round, full face, He surely is a nice young man And always keeps his place.

Next comes John Roof, telegrapher, He's tall and awfully spare, He goes away on Sunday To get himself a square.

The boarding boss must not escape, I wish that I had room, I'd paint him in the colors That would terrify the moon.
