A Philosophical Family.

Amelia has pimples, and sores in the head. From humors internal her nose has grown red. She's a bot on her neck that's as big as a bell. But in other respects she is doing quite well.

And pa has dyspepsia, malaria and gout. His hands with self-rheum are all broken out. He is prone to rheumatism that makes his legs swell. But in other respects he is doing quite well.

And ma has night-sweats and a troublesome cough. That all of our doctors can't see to drive off. She wakes every night and coughs quite a spell. But in other respects she is doing quite well.

There is nothing like philosophy to help one bear the ills of life, but in the case of this family what is most needed is a good supply of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It would cleanse Amelia's bad blood, cure pa's ailments, and check ma's cough. The "Golden Medical Discovery," by its action on the liver, cleanses the system of impurities. It cures humors, ulcers, boils, scrofula, salt-rheum, erysipelas, and all kinds of sores and swellings. The only guaranteed blood-purifier.

A Smart Lad.

The man who puts no heart in his work is doomed to failure. He may walk the commonplace lines of a clerk or book-keeper, but he will never win the confidence or gain the affection of his employers. A western preacher gives the following humorous account of a test to which he submitted one of his boys: "I said the other day: 'Wife, that boy has reached a period when we ought to find out what he is going to do,' and so we got up an original experiment. We put him in the parlor with a Bible, an apple and one dollar, and I said: 'Wife, we will go and leave him. If, when we get back he is poring over that Bible he will follow my profession and we will make a minister out of him. If he is examining that apple we will make a farmer out of him. If he has got that dollar in his pocket, we will make a lawyer or a banker out of him.' When we came back that boy was sitting on the Bible, eating the apple out of one hand and holding the dollar tight in the other, and I said, 'Wife that boy is a hog; we will make a politician out of him.'"

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him. Edw. Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at Snipes & Kinnersly's drug store.
