Secretary Carlisle's policy does not give satisfaction to the bankers of Wall street; in fact they claim to not be able to see any policy at all in his present utterances.

Wall street is trying to force a panic. Against that event the secretary is guarding by all expedients at his command. The difficulty might find an easy solution by issuing bonds, or by making use of those already issued, which will not all mature until 1907.

What is to be said of the striking ministers in Salem? They have adopted the scale of $5 per sermon at state institutions, and non-union ministers may not fill a pulpit unless with their consent. Much has been said and written about people over-working themselves and wearing themselves out, but a great deal of this advice is the merest "rot" and when given to the young man just starting out in life has a very damaging effect.

President Cleveland has made more changes up to today than he did eight years ago, after the same time spent in the White House. According to some authorities, he has made more than any executive since Grant.

Secretary Gresham has received a report from Commissioner Blount, of his action at Honolulu, but states that he has nothing to give out about it. Query, is he not ashamed to state the facts, and wishes to temporize as long as possible?

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease.
