MONDAY, APR. 24, 1893. OREGON AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The following is a list of the superintendents of the different departments of the world's fair commission. Anyone who has anything to exhibit should correspond with the proper officer, one of the following: W. F. MATLOCK, department of agriculture, forestry and forest products, and live stock; Pendleton.

The Oregonian believes that electricity is likely to solve the road problem. In Pennsylvania, where the common highways are as execrable as in most other sections of the country, electric railways aggregating hundreds of miles in length have recently been projected, and no doubt many miles will be constructed within the year.

It is said that one of the president's ideas of reform in the Indian service is the detailing of army officers to act as Indian agents, instead of the appointment of civilians to these positions. This course would be a decided disappointment to many western congressmen, who have counted upon finding places for constituents as Indian agents.

The objection that in annexing Hawaii we are adding a class of undesirable citizens, is fallacious. It is impossible that the Kanakas, on small islands 2,100 miles away from our nearest coast, can influence us one way or the other; this is as obvious as that we should care to direct or influence their local interests, of which we neither know nor care.

Keeley's chloride of gold cure for intoxication is likely to have a serious and most agreeable rival in the use of apples, if the alleged discovery of a German doctor amounts to anything, says the American Cider Maker. According to the latter authority, there is no cheaper or more effective method of curing inebriation than to eat apples freely. The patient is to use them in allopatic doses. That is, he is to eat apples, and after that more apples. The doctor claims certain success in the worst cases of dipsomania, if the apple cure is steadfastly pursued. The remedy can do no harm, in any event, and is worthy of investigation.

Hog-raising promises to be one of the best paying business in which a farmer can engage. The statistician of the department of agriculture reports a decrease of over 1,000,000 head in the stock of live hogs in Great Britain, and the shortage in Ireland is estimated at 1,200,000 head. Bacon and pork are abnormally high as compared with the prices of other meats, and the opinion prevails that they will continue so for some time.

WOOD, WOOD, WOOD. Best grades of oak, fir, and slab oard wood, at lowest market rates at Jos. T. Peters & Co. (Office Second and Jefferson streets.)

Nothing Funny About It.

Somebody says, remarks an exchange, that a wagonmaker who was dumb for years picked up a hub and spoke. Yes, and a blind carpenter on the same day reached out for a plane and saw, and a deaf sheep ranchman went out with his dog and herd, and a noseless fisherman caught a barrel of herring and smelt, and a defunct hatter was tenderly deposited on a pile of hair and felt, and a forty-ton elephant inserted his trunk into a grate and flue.

Shiloh's cure, the Great Cough and Croup Cure, is for sale by Snipes & Kinersly. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses, only 25c. Children love it. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly.

The savage patience shown in the beauty with which the negroes of Africa and the Indians of Alaska ornament their weapons also mark to some extent the negroes of the south, and a southern negro's fishing tackle is sometimes made in a fashion to excite the envy of the most enthusiastic northern sportsman.

A feeble woman is restored to health and strength, by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If you're overworked, "run-down," or debilitated, you need it. It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, and a soothing and strengthening nerve, imparting tone and vigor to the whole system. It's a legitimate medicine, too—carefully compounded by an experienced physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. For all the chronic weaknesses, functional disorders, and painful ailments peculiar to the sex, it is an unerring remedy. It's because it is unerring that it can be sold under a positive guarantee. If it fails to give satisfaction, in any case for which it's recommended, the money paid for it will be promptly returned.

It is a legitimate medicine—not a beverage. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to sour or ferment in the stomach and cause distress. As peculiar in its marvelous, remedial results as in its composition.
