Walked Off the Train While Asleep.

The other night, on the west-bound train, a family named Parkins arrived from Kansas. They removed on a stretcher a thirteen-year-old boy from the depot to the Golden Rule hotel. The youngster was in a sorrowful plight, one of his hips being broken and a bone of the other leg fractured above the knee. It seems that while walking in his sleep he stumbled off the car platform and had a fearful fall, as the train was running at a speed of about thirty miles an hour. The accident occurred at a point east of Huntington. After the boy's injuries had been attended to by a physician the family came on. They remained but one night at the hotel at Pendleton, desiring doubtless to avoid expense, and although the boy seemed suffering greatly removed him to the Spokane train the next morning, their destination being Northern Idaho. The little sufferer was made as comfortable as possible at the hotel during his stay.—East Oregonian.

Talking of patent medicines—you know the old prejudice. And the doctors—some of them are between you and us. They would like you to think that what's cured thousands won't cure you. You'd believe in patent medicines if they didn't profess to cure everything—and so, between the experiments of doctors, and the experiments of patent medicines that are sold only because there's money in the "stuff," you lose faith in everything. And you can't always tell the prescription that cures by what you read in the papers. So, perhaps, there's no better way to sell a remedy, than to tell the truth about it and take the risk of its doing just what it professes to do. That's what the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., does with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If they don't do what their makers say they'll do—you get your money back.

LEWISTON, Idaho, has raised a subscription of $75,000 to induce the Northern Pacific to build to that town. The company has accepted the proposition.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by Blakeley and Houghton, druggists.
