"The Regulator Line" The Dalles, Portland and Astoria Navigation Co. THROUGH Freight and Passenger Line WITHOUT PARALLEL. Such is Declared to Have Been the Columbian Mail. NEW YORK, April 27.—The Columbian ball tonight at Madison Square Garden, in respect to magnificence of decoration and arrangement and the large number of the world's famous guests present, was the most splendid ever given in the New World. Besides the president and his advisors, the chief legislative body of the United States and the Spanish grandee, the lineal descendants of Christopher Columbus, there were the diplomatic corps, admirals and subordinate officers of every great naval power in the world; the governors of neighboring states and famous army officers. It was, in fact, a gathering of celebrities so varied and so gloriously arrayed that the oldest and most traveled guest acknowledged that seldom, or never before, had he seen a parallel to the gorgeous picture presented. EXTRA SESSION TO BE HELD. IT WILL BE CONVENED BETWEEN SEPTEMBER 1st and 15th. WASHINGTON, April 27.—"Congress will be convened in special session between September 1st and 15th at the latest. In substance this was the language used by President Cleveland yesterday. He was addressing Congressman Kil-

REVIEWED IN THE RAIN

A Soaking Downpour Dampens the Great Parade.

IT WAS A TRULY GRAND SIGHT

President Cleveland Received With Thunders of Artillery—Scenes Along the Review Line.

New York, April 27.—A heavy downpour of rain was the most immediate observable feature of the great naval parade yesterday. One of the most painful results of the storm was the wilted and forlorn condition of the many beautiful decorations of buildings throughout the city.

Promptly at 1 o'clock President Cleveland and party left the Victoria hotel, drove to the dock and embarked on the steamer Dolphin and steamed away to review the squadron, in spite of the still unfavorable weather.

The president was escorted to the Dolphin by naval aides, accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland and members of the cabinet and their wives. The Duke of Veragua, the nation's specially invited guest, followed the Dolphin in the army boat General Meigs, and the members of the diplomatic corps occupied the coast survey steamer Blake. About 2 o'clock the signal was given for the start. As soon as the president stepped on board the Dolphin she tripped anchor and fired one gun as a signal, and this was responded to by a boom which seemed to shake the whole city. The double-turreted monitor Miantonomoh, lying at the rear of the port column, had fired one of her new 10-inch guns charged with 250 pounds of powder. At once the whole fleet was called to quarters and the yards manned. The scene was as pretty as well could be imagined. As the Dolphin's bow came in line with each man-of-war, "present arms" was sounded on the bugle. The officers and crew saluted, the bands struck up the national air and a national salute of 21 guns was fired by each ship.

The last ship in the reviewing line was the steamer Monmouth, upon which were the senators, members of congress, governors of states and other invited guests.

The quaintest part of the day's proceedings was that of the post of honor at the head of the review—the Columbus caravels, which, with infinite care, had been towed from Cadiz to Cuba by United States war vessels, and from Cuba to Hampton Roads and New York by Spanish warships. These pigmy boats, anchored opposite Ninety-third street, formed practically the turning point of the review. The contrast of four centuries of naval development could not have been more strongly and picturesquely marked. The line of vessels reviewed was over three miles in length, stretching in two columns from Twenty-third street to Ninety-fifth.

EXTRA SESSION TO BE HELD. IT WILL BE CONVENED BETWEEN SEPTEMBER 1st and 15th.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—"Congress will be convened in special session between September 1st and 15th at the latest. If there could be any necessity for calling congress together before that time, it will be done, but I can see no reason for such action at this time." In substance this was the language used by President Cleveland yesterday. He was addressing Congressman Kilgore, of Texas, and several correspondents overheard the conversation.

"Have you any objections to having this statement made public?" asked Kilgore.

"No objections whatever," returned the president. "The fact is, I think it is only fair to business men of the country to know that the present tariff is to be changed, and that it will be done just as soon as careful and conservative action can be taken."

This is the first direct and authentic statement the president has just made in reference to his intention to have congress meet before the regular date.

Management of the Reading.

The resignation of President McLeod of the Reading railroad arouses much curiosity as to who will be his successor.

It is generally believed President Joseph S. Harris, of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, will be selected. Should this be the case it is expected that the practical management of the company will devolve upon First Vice President Vochées. Harris is not strong enough to perform such an enormous amount of work as President McLeod has placed upon himself with the general control of the road. Mr. Vochées had a great amount of railroad experience before coming to the Reading, and it is believed his management will be both vigorous and progressive.

SPOKANE HAS A SENSATION.

President State Board of Pharmacy Detected in a Systematic Robbery.

SPOKANE, Wash., April 27.—A sensation was created this evening by the announcement that J. W. McArthur, president of the state board of pharmacy, had been detected in a systematic robbery of the county. Some time ago the county commissioners awarded McArthur a contract to furnish 4,000 ounces of strychnine, at 95¢ per ounce, to be furnished farmers to kill squirrels. McArthur kept the poison at his store, and supplied it to the farmers on orders from the commissioners. Recently complaints have been received from farmers that bottles, supposed to contain an ounce of strychnine, were under weight. An investigation showed that McArthur had removed the corks from the bottles, which were all sealed as they came from the manufacturers, and removed a small quantity from each bottle, and were then somewhat clumsily resealed. The commissioners sent for McArthur this afternoon, and accused him of tampering with the bottles. He made an indignant denial, but when confronted with the unmistakable proof of his guilt, he admitted all and begged for clemency. It was decided not to prosecute him if he would recompense the county for the amount of strychnine taken, and this he did this evening. He is also accused of removing labels from original bottles and placing them on other bottles containing an adulterated article. The manufacturers, from whom the entire 4,000 ounces was purchased, have been informed of this, and have sent a man here to investigate and prosecute McArthur if the charge is substantiated.

ELECTRIC FLASHES.

The pardon for C. W. Stricklin arrived at Oregon City yesterday, and the prisoner was released.

A statement was published yesterday morning to the effect that the Southern Pacific Company is preparing to reduce all of its local rates in California and will adopt the western classification of freights within the limits of the state. In an interview recently Governor Flower emphatically denied a report that he had decided to pardon Carlyle W. Harris. He has appointed what he considers the best criminal lawyer in the state to review the case and will await his report.

was in a short time promoted to the colonelcy of the Eighth Alabama volunteers. He was wounded at the battle of the Wilderness in 1864. After the war he resumed the practice of law at Greenville, Ala., until 1872, when he moved to Montgomery, where he has since practiced. He was elected to the Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, Fiftieth and Fifty-first congresses and re-elected to the Fifty-second congress as a democrat, receiving 10,611 votes, against 2,681 votes for S. A. Pillary, independent. Mr. Herbert has twice been chairman of the house naval committee, and is well fitted to administer the office of secretary of the navy.

Fortune's Freaks.

In unexpected turns of the wheel of fortune, elevating the unknown to places of power and dethroning the mighty without warning France leads the nations, not excepting America, where the grandson of the millionaire may back boots for the grandson of the crossing sweeper. The installation of Mme. Grey in the Elysee is a happy instance. She was the daughter of a tanner and earned her living in Paris as a bonnet maker. When she married, her whole fortune was less than five hundred dollars; at her death she leaves something like a quarter of a million to her daughter. She did not invent an ancestry with her promotion, nor assume fine airs with her rich gowns. Her manners were characterized by simplicity, her accounts were carefully audited to the smallest detail, and she set her face against court etiquette.

The Crank's Bullet.

LONDON, April 27.—The Pall Mall Gazette contains a sensational article under big headlines declaring an attempt was made to shoot Gladstone at midnight last night, as he was walking through St. James' Park on his way home. Many inquiries are received from various parts of the country as to the accuracy of the report. Its truthfulness is not credited.

It Should Be in Every House

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpshurg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "la grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it.
